patronized by Waseda University in Tokyo which confronted Japanese and Western views on nature It was assumed that an intercultural dialogue on nature which still is a central concept in modern thought both ecological and ethical is not possible without an historical understanding of the formation of this concept in medieval culture The various contributions of Japanese and Western scholars offer the medieval precedents for such a dialogue

The Beauties of Nature and Art Displayed in a Tour Through the World, 1764 Is the Sublime Sustainable? A Comparative Aesthetics Approach to the Sublime Peter L. Doeblner, 2023-03-13 Is the Sublime Sustainable introduces the key points of debate around the sublime while opening new avenues for future inquiry especially through its comparative aesthetics approach In it you will discover how thinking on the sublime emerged historically and then engage with the recent critical scholarship on the topic including from the fields of theology philosophy and literature The critiques of the sublime are then expanded in dialogue with perspectives from Japanese aesthetics and art shaping the argument that what is needed today is a sublime that enriches human lives by cultivating profound participative relationships
