Foster,Philadelphia Museum of Art,2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor s central place in American art and culture The Magazine Antiques ,1998-10 Encyclopedia of American Art Before 1914 Jane Turner,2000 This alphabetically arranged volume covers all the major artistic developments in the USA from the Colonial period until 1914 with the start of World War I Newport History ,1993 Antiques ,2004 American Symbolist Art Diane Johnson,2004 This work describes the concepts of Symbolist art used for this study and presents a sequence of the works and writings of five artists Washington Allston at the beginning of the century John La Farge and William Rimmer at mid century and George Inness and Albert Pinkham Ryder at the end These five were selected after a lengthy survey of 19th and early 20th century American art Although a broader selection might have been made these particular artists successfully developed at one point or another in their careers and with more or less clearly defined objectives highly articulate visual art in the Symbolist mode as well as writings about their Symbolist intentions without using the term itself In many instances their words as well as their art recall those of artists like Paul Gauguin and Vincent Van Gogh although predating the Europeans by several decades The Symbolist works of these five Americans are analyzed along side their writings about art as well as writings by the few major critics who understood their aesthetic intentions at the time such as James Jackson Jarves Charles de Kay and Roger Fry Not a survey but rather a highly selective and suggestive American Impressionism and Realism ,1998 49 American impressionist and realist paintings and works on paper from the Margaret and Raymond Horowitz collection were presented including works by William Merritt Chase Childe Hassam George Bellows Maurice Prendergast and William Glackens This was the first time the collection had been on exhibition since it was shown at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in 1973 American Paintings in the Brooklyn Museum Brooklyn Museum,Teresa A.
