D. Miller,2025-02-18 Freya and Aunt Carole everyone s favorite antique hunting mystery solving duo return in a sequel that somehow manages to be even more captivating than their first adventure Tom Ryan USA TODAY bestselling author as they are on the hunt for a dangerous criminal aboard a cruise ship When a painting vanishes from a maritime museum and a dead body is found nearby Freya Lockwood and her Aunt Carole of the Lockwood Antique Hunter s Agency are called to investigate Following a lead that takes them aboard a glamorous antiques cruise sailing toward the Red Sea in Jordan they quickly discover that the ship s art gallery is filled with stolen antiquities Each antique is also listed in Freya s late mentor s journals that detail unsolved cases In chasing a murderer with a stolen painting they may have found something more sinister than they could ve imagined Their hunt soon turns deadly when they learn the enigmatic and dangerous art trafficker named The Collector could be on board But on a ship full of antiques enthusiasts plus some unexpected familiar faces will Freya and Carole be able to discover the Collector s identity and stop his murderous plans before the ship docks Or will the killer strike again An intriguingly complex locked cruise ship mystery filled with wonderful characters murder twists humor and fascinating antiquities details Miller s The Antique Hunter s Death on the Red Sea is a page turning delight from start to finish Celeste Connally author of Act Like a Lady Think Like a Lord Marine Art & Antiques Joseph Welles Henderson,Rodney P. Carlisle,1999 Over the years Welles Henderson the author of this intriguing book noted that the majority of maritime museums throughout the world placed their emphasis on ship paintings ship models figureheads navigation equipment nautical tools and weapons but gave little insight into the daily life of the ordinary sailor

For over four decades therefore he has been collecting material in an attempt to fill the gap This has been a great challenge as comparatively few real life depictions of shipboard activities and the life of a sailor at sea were made during the eighteenth and much of the nineteenth century There are countless ship portraits but very little of the human interest side of the sailor afloat While many well known expeditions including that of Captain James Cook had artists accompany them practically all their depictions were of flora fauna landscapes and local inhabitants rather than of shipboard life Finding a piece here and a piece there however Welles Henderson has painstakingly succeeded in putting together a fascinating mosaic of the life of a sailor from the time of his going off to sea until his death on board or on shore Boating, 1977-01
