Nautilus Woman:

Strength Training for Women Lori Incledon, 2005 Strength Training for Women provides you with information tailored to the way your body works and responds to training and the specific tools you need to reach your goals Sporting Females Jennifer Hargreaves, 2002-09-11 1994 North American Society for the Sociology of Sport Annual Book Award An outstanding contribution to feminist analysis of sport from the nineteenth century to the present day Jennifer Hargreaves views sport as a battle for control of the physical body and an important area for feminist intervention Placing women at the centre of discussion no other book is as comprehensive The Business Woman's Magazine, 1905 The Art of Useless Calvin Hui, 2021-09-21 Since embarking on economic reforms in 1978 the People's Republic of China has also undergone a sweeping cultural reorganization from proletarian culture under Mao to middle class consumer culture today Under these circumstances how has a Chinese middle class come into being and how has consumerism become the dominant ideology of an avowedly socialist country The Art of Useless offers an innovative way to understand China's unprecedented political economic social and cultural transformations showing how consumer culture helps anticipate produce and shape a new middle class subjectivity Examining changing representations of the production and consumption of fashion in documentaries and films Calvin Hui traces how culture contributes to China's changing social relations through the cultivation of new identities and sensibilities He explores the commodity chain of fashion on a transnational scale from production to consumption to disposal as well as media portrayals of the intersections of clothing with class gender and ethnicity Hui illuminates key cinematic narratives such as a factory worker's desire for a high quality suit in the 1960s an intellectual's longing for fashionable clothes in the 1980s and a white collar woman's craving for brand name commodities in the 2000s He considers how documentary films depict the undersides of consumption exploited laborers who fantasize about the products they manufacture as well as the accumulation of waste and its disposal revealing how global capitalism renders migrant factory workers scavengers and garbage invisible A highly interdisciplinary work that combines theoretical nuance with masterful close analyses The Art of Useless is an innovative rethinking of the emergence of China's middle class consumer culture I Am a Woman I Am J. F. Reis, 2013 The car is so near JF knows he can touch her if he only could move his right arm the left one is griping his mother's leg He has his eyes on the Queen Is she a Queen is she he thinks He looks at her eyes in the eyes Both are at the same height The cavalcade passes by and JF asks his mother Isshe the Queen from the Fairy tales Hot Hips and Fabulous Thighs Ellington Darden, 1991-04-01 A guaranteed program for women focusing on their most troublesome areas hips thighs and buttocks Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine, 2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women's poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine s study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities
