Molly Doane Kathy M Closkey Jane Henrici Technical Bulletin ,1942 Reclaiming Diné History Jennifer Nez Denetdale, 2015-09-01 In this groundbreaking book the first Navajo to earn a doctorate in history seeks to rewrite Navajo history Reared on the Navajo Nation in New Mexico and Arizona Jennifer Nez Denetdale is the great great great granddaughter of a well known Navajo chief Manuelito 1816 1894 and his nearly unknown wife Juanita 1845 1910 Stimulated in part by seeing photographs of these ancestors she began to explore her family history as a way of examining broader issues in Navajo historiography Here she presents a thought provoking examination of the construction of the history of the Navajo people Din in the Navajo language that underlines the dichotomy between Navajo and non Navajo perspectives on the Din past Reclaiming Din History has two primary objectives First Denetdale interrogates histories that privilege Manuelito and marginalize Juanita in order to demonstrate some of the ways that writing about the Din has been biased by non Navajo views of assimilation and gender Second she reveals how Navajo narratives including oral histories and stories kept by matrilineal clans serve as vehicles to convey Navajo beliefs and values By scrutinizing stories about Juanita she both underscores the centrality of women's roles in Navajo society and illustrates how oral tradition has been used to organize social units connect Navajos to the land and interpret the past She argues that these same stories read with an awareness of Navajo creation narratives reveal previously unrecognized Navajo perspectives on the past And she contends that a similarly culture sensitive re viewing of the Din can lead to the production of a Navajo centered history Navajo Davida Woerner, 1941 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline's history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women s history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger's examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey's documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan's use of the text of Ruth Underhill's O odham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same

facts The Book of Looms Eric Broudy, 2021-09-29 A heavily illustrated classic on the evolution of the handloom The handloom often no more than a bundle of sticks and a few lengths of cordage has been known to almost all cultures for thousands of years Eric Broudy places the wide variety of handlooms in their historical context What influenced their development How did they travel from one geographic area to another Were they invented independently by different cultures How have modern cultures improved on ancient weaving skills and methods Broudy shows how virtually every culture has woven on handlooms He highlights the incredible technical achievement of early cultures that created magnificent textiles with the crudest of tools and demonstrates that modern technology has done nothing to surpass their A Comparative Study of Storage at 32 Degrees and 36 Degrees F. of Apples Grown in the Potomac River Valley Mark Hughlin Haller, Jacob Martin Lutz, 1941 Indigenous Women and Work Carol Williams, 2012-10-30 The essays in Indigenous Women and Work create a transnational and comparative dialogue on the history of the productive and reproductive lives and circumstances of Indigenous women from the late nineteenth century to the present in the United States Australia New Zealand Aotearoa and Canada Surveying the spectrum of Indigenous women's lives and circumstances as workers both waged and unwaged the contributors offer varied perspectives on the ways women s work has contributed to the survival of communities in the face of ongoing tensions between assimilation and colonization They also interpret how individual nations have conceived of Indigenous women as workers and in turn convert these assumptions and definitions into policy and practice The essays address the intersection of Indigenous women's and labor history but will also be useful to contemporary policy makers tribal activists and Native American women's advocacy associations Contributors are Tracey Banivanua Mar Marlene Brant Castellano Cathleen D Cahill Brenda J Child Sherry Farrell Racette Chris Friday Aroha Harris Faye HeavyShield Heather A Howard Margaret D Jacobs Alice Littlefield Cyb le Locke Mary Jane Logan McCallum Kathy M Closkey Colleen O Neill Beth H Piatote Susan Roy Lynette Russell Joan Sangster Ruth Taylor and Carol Williams A New Deal for Navajo Weaving Jennifer McLerran, 2022-05-10 A New Deal for Navajo Weaving provides a detailed history of early to mid twentieth century Din weaving projects by non Natives who sought to improve the quality and marketability of Navajo weaving but in so doing failed to understand the cultural significance of weaving and its role in the lives of Din women By the 1920s the durability and market value of Din weavings had declined dramatically Indian welfare advocates established projects aimed at improving the materials and techniques Private efforts served as models for federal programs instituted by New Deal administrators Historian Jennifer McLerran details how federal officials developed programs such as the Southwest Range and Sheep Breeding Laboratory at Fort Wingate in New Mexico and the Navajo Arts and Crafts Guild Other federal efforts included the publication of Native natural dye recipes the publication of portfolios of weaving designs to guide artisans and the education of consumers through the exhibition of weavings aiding them in their purchases and cultivating an upscale market McLerran details how government officials sought to use these programs to bring the Din into the national
