Navaho Weaving Its Technic And History:

Navaho Weaving Charles Avery Amsden, 2013-01-17 First in depth study of the technical aspects of Navaho weaving plus history of the loom and its prototypes in the prehistoric Southwest analysis and description of weaves dyes and more Over Ethnographic Feminisms Lynne Patricia Phillips, 1995 This significant new study contains the work of 230 illustrations anthropologists engaged in doing research on gender The editors argue for the creation of an ethnography based feminism that at the same time pays heed to what women in specific circumstances identify as their concerns and also recognizes contradictions inherent in the goals of a feminist anthropology These essays grapple with a range of awkward issues including feminism in international contexts the invisibility of women s working lives and the problems of voice and ethnographic representation Referring to a variety of ethnographic contexts and working from diverse perspectives the contributors examine the multiple dilemmas and conflicts of gender and power A volume which will not only constitute a significant contribution to the social sciences literature both theoretically and substantively but will also place Canadian feminist anthropology on the cutting edge of global feminist anthropology I strongly recommend it Valda Blundell Carleton Ethnographic Feminisms Sally Cole, 1995-05-15 This book is written by anthropologists who are currently University engaged in research on gender The editors argue for the development of an ethnography based feminism that both pays heed to what women in specific circumstances identify as their concerns and recognizes the contradictions inherent in the goals of feminist anthropology The essays consider a range of awkward issues including feminism in international contexts the invisibility of women s working lives and the problems of voice and ethnographic representation Referring to a variety of ethnographic contexts and working from diverse perspectives the contributors examine the multiple dilemmas and conflicts of gender and power Swept Under the Rug Kathy M'Closkey, 2002 Debunks the romanticist stereotyping of Navajo weavers and Reservation traders and situates weavers within the economic history of the southwest Genuine Navajo Rug -- are You Sure??? Noël Bennett, 1973 Technical Bulletin ,1942 Reclaiming Diné History Jennifer Nez Denetdale, 2015-09-01 In this groundbreaking book the first Navajo to earn a doctorate in history seeks to rewrite Navajo history Reared on the Navajo Nation in New Mexico and Arizona Jennifer Nez Denetdale is the great great great granddaughter of a well known Navajo chief Manuelito 1816 1894 and his nearly unknown wife Juanita 1845 1910 Stimulated in part by seeing photographs of these ancestors she began to explore her family history as a way of examining broader issues in Navajo historiography Here she presents a thought provoking examination of the construction of the history of the Navajo people Din in the Navajo language that underlines the dichotomy between Navajo and non Navajo perspectives on the Din past Reclaiming Din History has two primary objectives First Denetdale interrogates histories that privilege Manuelito and marginalize Juanita in order to demonstrate some of the ways that writing about the Din has been biased by non Navajo views of assimilation and gender Second she reveals how Navajo narratives including oral histories and stories kept by matrilineal clans serve as vehicles to convey Navajo beliefs and values By scrutinizing stories about Juanita she both underscores the centrality of women's roles in Navajo society and illustrates how oral tradition has been used to organize social units connect Navajos to the land and interpret the past She argues that these same stories read with an awareness of Navajo creation narratives reveal previously unrecognized Navajo perspectives on the past And she contends that a similarly culture sensitive re viewing of the Din can lead to the production of a Navajo centered history Education Among the Navajo Davida Woerner, 1941 Fair Trade and Social Justice Mark Moberg, Sarah Lyon, 2010-06-01 By 2008 total Fair Trade purchases in the developed world reached nearly 3 billion a five fold increase in four years Consumers pay a fair price for Fair Trade items which are meant to generate greater earnings for family farmers cover the costs of production and support socially just and environmentally sound practices Yet constrained by existing markets and the entities that dominate them Fair Trade often delivers material improvements for producers that are much more modest than the profound social transformations the movement claims to support There has been scant real world assessment of Fair Trade s effectiveness Drawing upon fine grained anthropological studies of a variety of regions and commodity systems including Darjeeling tea coffee crafts and cut flowers the chapters in Fair Trade and Social Justice represent the first works to use ethnographic case studies to assess whether the Fair Trade Movement is actually achieving its goals Contributors Julia Smith Mark Moberg Catherine Ziegler Sarah Besky Sarah M Lyon Catherine S Dolan Patrick C Wilson Faidra Papavasiliou Molly Doane Kathy M Closkev Jane Henrici Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline s history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women's history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger s examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey's documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan s use of the text of Ruth Underhill's O odham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same facts A Comparative Study of Storage at 32 Degrees and 36 Degrees F. of Apples Grown in the Potomac River Valley Mark Hughlin Haller, Jacob Martin Lutz, 1941

The Book of Looms Eric Broudy,2021-09-29 A heavily illustrated classic on the evolution of the handloom The handloom often no more than a bundle of sticks and a few lengths of cordage has been known to almost all cultures for thousands of years Eric Broudy places the wide variety of handlooms in their historical context What influenced their development How did they travel from one geographic area to another Were they invented independently by different cultures How have modern cultures improved on ancient weaving skills and methods Broudy shows how virtually every culture has woven on handlooms He highlights the incredible technical achievement of early cultures that created magnificent textiles with the crudest of tools and demonstrates that modern technology has done nothing to surpass their skill or inventiveness
