Scott C. Dulebohn

On The Catechising Of The Uninstructed:

On the Catechising of the Uninstructed St. Augustine St. Augustine of Hippo, 2017-12-10 In the fourteenth chapter of the second book of his Retractations Augustine makes the following statement There is also a book of ours on the subject of the Catechising of the Uninstructed or for Instructing the Unlearned De Catechizandis Rudibus that being indeed the express title by which it is designated In this book where I have said Neither did the angel who in company with other spirits who were his satellites forsook in pride the obedience of God and became the devil do any hurt to God but to himself for God knows how to dispose of souls that leave Him it would be more appropriate to say spirits that leave Him inasmuch as the question dealt with angels This book commences in these terms You have requested me brother Deogratias The composition so described in the passage cited is reviewed by Augustine in connection with other works which he had in hand about the year 400 A D and may therefore be taken to belong to that date It has been conjectured that the person to whom it is addressed may perhaps be the same with the presbyter Deogratias to whom as we read in the epistle which now ranks as the hundred and second Augustine wrote about the year 406 in reply to some questions of the pagans which were forwarded to On the Catechising of the Uninstructed St. Augustine, 2018-08-05 In the fourteenth chapter of the him from Carthage second book of his Retractations Augustin makes the following statement There is also a book of ours on the subject of the Catechising of the Uninstructed or for Instructing the Unlearned De Catechizandis Rudibus that being indeed the express title by which it is designated In this book where I have said Neither did the angel who in company with other spirits who were his satellites forsook in pride the obedience of God and became the devil do any hurt to God but to himself for God knoweth how to dispose of souls that leave Him it would be more appropriate to say spirits that leave Him inasmuch as the question dealt with angels This book commences in these terms You have requested me brother Deogratias The composition so described in the passage cited is reviewed by Augustin regarding other works which he had in hand about the year 400 A D and may therefore be taken to belong to that date It has been conjectured that the person to whom it is addressed may perhaps be the same with the presbyter Deogratias to whom as we read in the epistle which now ranks as the hundred and second Augustin wrote about the year 406 in reply to some questions of the pagans which were forwarded to him from On the Catechising of the Uninstructed St Augustine of Hippo, 2019-06-26 In the fourteenth chapter of the Carthage second book of his Retractations Augustin makes the following statement There is also a book of ours on the subject of the Catechising of the Uninstructed or for Instructing the Unlearned De Catechizandis Rudibus that being indeed the express title by which it is designated On the Catechising of the Uninstructed Saint Augustine, Saint Augustine of Hippo, 2015-06-08 Augustine the man with upturned eye with pen in the left hand and a burning heart in the right as he is usually represented is a philosophical and theological genius of the first order towering like a pyramid above his age and looking down commandingly upon succeeding centuries He had a mind uncommonly fertile and deep bold and soaring and with it what is better a heart full of Christian love and humility He stands of right by the side of the greatest philosophers of antiquity and of modern times We meet him alike on the broad highways and the narrow footpaths on the giddy Alpine heights and in the awful depths of speculation wherever philosophical thinkers before him or after him have trod As a theologian he is facile princeps at least surpassed by no church father schoolman or reformer With royal munificence he scattered ideas in passing which have set in mighty motion other lands and later times He combined the creative power of Tertullian with the churchly spirit of Cyprian the speculative intellect of the Greek church with the practical tact of the Latin He was a Christian philosopher and a philosophical theologian to the full The Shadow of Creusa Anders Cullhed, 2015-04-24 Anders Cullhed's study The Shadow of Creusa explores the early Christian confrontation with pagan culture as a remote anticipation of many later clashes between religious orthodoxy and literary fictionality After a careful survey of Saint Augustine's critical attitudes to ancient myth and poetry summarized as a long drawn out farewell Cullhed examines other Late Antique dismissals as well as appropriations of the classical heritage Macrobius Martianus Capella and Boethius figure among the Late Antique intellectuals who attempted to save or even restore the old mythology by means of allegorical representation On the other hand pious poets such as Paulinus of Nola and Bible epic writers such as Iuvencus or Avitus of Vienne turned against pagan lies and the mighty arch bishop of Milan Saint Ambrose played off unconditional Christian truth against the last Roman strongholds of cultural pluralism Thus The Shadow of Creusa elucidates a cultural conflict which was to leave traces all through the Middle Ages and reach down to our present day Treatises St. Augustine of Hippo, 2017-08-31 The most weighty of the doctrinal treatises is that on the Holy Trinity The Latin original De Trinitate contra Arianos libri quindecim is contained in the 8th volume of the Benedictine edition It is the most elaborate and probably also the ablest and profoundest patristic discussion of this central doctrine of the Christian religion unless we except the Orations against the Arians by Athanasius the Father of Orthodoxy who devoted his life to the defense of the Divinity of Christ Augustine owing to his defective knowledge of Greek wrote his work independently of the previous treatises of the Eastern Church on that subject He bestowed more time and care upon it than on any other book except the City of God Besides this treatise the following works are included The Enchiridion or On Faith Hope and Love On the Catechising of the Uninstructed Treatise on Faith and the Creed Concerning Faith of Things not Seen On the Profit of Believing On the Creed Nicene and Post-nicene Fathers First Series, St. Augustine Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume III of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find a complete collection of Saint Augustines writings concerning Christian doctrine and ethics On the Holy Trinity is one of his most important works and Augustine spent a significant amount of time crafting it Among the ethical considerations covered in the second half of the book readers will find essays on virginity lying patience and proper care for the dead The Works of Aurelius Augustine, Bishop of Hippo: On Christan doctrine: the Enchiridion Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1873 The Works of Aurelius Augustine Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1883 The Church Quarterly Review ,1913 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1895-1902 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1903 Classified Catalog of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1895-1902.
