Perception East And West

Margaux Whiskin, David Bagot

Perception East And West:

Religiosity in East and West Sarah Demmrich, Ulrich Riegel, 2020-11-06 The book discusses the theoretical and methodological challenges of an interculturally valid sociology of religion and provides insights into the autochthonous socio religious research in Muslim societies and Asian countries In this way it links discourses that have so far taken place primarily independently of one another The book goes back to a conference in Münster that questioned the Western foundation of empirical religiosity research which reaches its limits in the non American and non European context but also with regard to orthodox forms of faith in the Western context Western Perceptions Of Soviet Goals Klaus Gottstein, 2020-01-23 This study investigates Western views on the potential future developments in the U S S R It traces the facts figures fears and ideological prejudices that have contributed to the mutual mistrust between the East and the West over long range political goals and recommends ways of reducing it Heidegger, Rorty, and the Eastern Thinkers Wei Zhang, 2012-02-01 Wei Zhang joins the ongoing hermeneutic quest for understanding and appropriating the East West encounter and cross cultural engagement by exploring Martin Heidegger's and Richard Rorty's cross cultural encounters with Eastern thinkers Zhang begins by examining Rorty's correspondence with Indian philosopher Anindita N Balslev outlining their debate about the discipline of comparative philosophy and curriculum reform as well as the nature or origin of philosophy itself She then focuses on the dialogue between Heidegger and a Japanese professor concerning the nature of human language and discusses whether Heidegger's view of language allows for a true understanding between East and West or whether it admits only misunderstanding and prejudice are possible Finally the author presents a conceptual dialogue with Heidegger's primary text on hermeneutics and phenomenology Ontology The Hermeneutics of Facticity Utilizing the dialogues and correspondence between Heidegger Rorty and the Eastern thinkers as textual examples Zhang deconstructs and recovers layers of misconceptions of the various interpretations of the East West encounter The Balkan Wars from Contemporary Perception to Historic Memory Katrin Boeckh, Sabine Rutar, 2017-01-10 This book explores the historical role of the Balkan Wars In Eastern Europe the two Balkan Wars of 1912-13 had greater importance than the First World War for the construction of nations and states This volume shows how these short wars profoundly changed the sociopolitical situation in the Balkans with consequences that are still felt today More than one hundred years later the successors of the belligerent states in Southeastern Europe memorialize the wars as heroic highlights of their respective pasts Furthermore the metaphor that the Balkans were Europe's powder keg perpetuated at the beginning of the twentieth century in the face of these wars was reactivated in both the West and the East up through the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s The authors entangle the hitherto exclusive national master narratives and analyse them cogently and trenchantly for an international readership They make an indispensable contribution to the proper integration of the Balkan Wars into the European historical memory of twentieth century warfare Student Migration from Eastern to Western Europe

Mette Ginnerskov-Dahlberg,2021-07-29 This book explores European student migration from the perspectives of Eastern European students moving to Western Europe for study Whilst most research on student migration in Europe focuses on the experiences of Western European students this book uniquely casts a light on Eastern European student migrants moving to the West Mette Ginnerskov Dahlberg deploys a novel approach to the subject by drawing on insights gleaned from a longitudinal study of master s students pursuing an education abroad and their multifaceted journeys after graduation Thereby she brings their narratives to life and highlights the changes and continuities they experienced over a period of seven years fostering an understanding of student mobility as an activity enmeshed with adult commitments and long term aspirations Using Denmark as a case study of a host country Ginnerskov Dahlberg analyses the trajectories of these students and situates their experiences within the wider socio historical context of Eastern European post socialism and the contemporary dynamics between EU and non EU citizens in the welfare state of Denmark reflecting issues playing out on the global stage today This book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of migration and mobility studies as well as human geography sociology higher education area studies and anthropology
