The JSEALab is part of a five-year initiative on Social Justice in Southeast Asia at the University of Wisconsin-Madison generously funded by the Henry Luce Foundation and located in the Center for Southeast Asian Studies and the Human Rights Program. A combination of intensive exchange between faculty and graduate students and public-facing events that aim to foster significant collaboration between academics and practitioners, the JSEALab reflects both the recognition that a growing number of MAs and PhDs in Southeast Asian Studies are choosing to pursue professional careers outside the university and that there is a need for academic work to be directly responsive to ongoing social justice crises in the region. Stay tuned for upcoming activities!

While many books have probed the role of Islam in political and social change in Southeast Asia over the past three decades few have focused on the power of the religious discourse itself in shaping this transformation Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay Indonesian World captures the interplay between religion and social thought in comparative case studies from Malaysia Indonesia and Singapore Drawing on a critical sociology of knowledge and a profound understanding of historical contexts the central focus is on Muslim intellectuals who have grappled with the impact of modernity in these societies between those seeking to reform Islam's role and those who take a hardline defensive stance The discussion deals successively with the role of religious traditionalism the upsurge of dakwah revivalism and the public sphere attitudes towards democracy and pluralism and finally the ideas advanced by liberal Islam and its opponents Above all Azhar Ibrahim offers the reader a creative way of understanding the modern Islamic discourse and its relationship to the remaking of society at large Azhar Ibrahim's book cuts through the noise of much discourse on Islam and puts perspective to a vast amount of materials effectively constructing their actual social and historical meaning It should be read by all those seeking an in depth understanding of contemporary Southeast Asia even beyond the particular issues of Islam and Muslims Shaharuddin Maaruf Academy of Malay Studies University of Malaya This book is a must read for all those interested in a critical evaluation of the force and implications of religious traditionalism conservatism and revivalism on the development of plural and democratic Muslim societies in Southeast Asia and the challenges they pose to critical voices struggling for the relevance of ethical and humanist traditions of Islam Noor Aisha binte Abdul Rahman Department of Malay Studies National University of Singapore Questioning Development in Southeast Asia Nancy Chng, 1977 Memikir-ulang Tradisi

untuk Pembaharuan Azhar Ibrahim, Buku ini melewati semula agenda pembaharuan dengan menelesuri tradisi yang tercerah yang tersudut dalam sejarah serta harus dapat dikembalikan peranannya tanpa pula kita terjebak meromantikannya yang mengidamkan pulang ke tradisi semata mata sebagai jalan keluar dari segala kemelut dan permasalahan yang kita hadapi Pembaharuan akan bisa berakar sekiranya tampil di kalangan agamawan dan aktivis santri yang bukan sahaja teryakin dari gagasan reformis tetapi juga datang dari sekelompok tradisionalis yang tercerah Yang terakhir ini dapat membedakan peranan tradisi yang dinamis sifatnya sebagai gerak nilai dan budaya yang mampu menawarkan nilai nilai ulung dan universal sepanjang perjalanan sejarah tanpa terikat dengan pola pemikiran sesuatu zaman Yang paling jelas pembaharuan tradisi agama akan terbantut selagi agama tidak bergerak dalam ranah yang bebas yakni dibelenggu dengan hegemoni konservatisme yang pantang mendengar ungkapan baru yang tidak selari dengan ideologi mereka ataupun wacana itu sendiri senang dikotak katikkan oleh pihak berwewenang yang lebih cenderung untuk memaksakan fahaman dominan ke atas semua atas nama mengekalkan kemurniaan dan kepersatuan agama dan jemaahnya

Social Justice in EAP and ELT Contexts Paul Breen,Michèle le Roux,2024-02-22 This book articulates an understanding of what is meant by the term social justice from a global perspective drawing upon examples of practice from across a range of English for academic purposes EAP and English language teaching ELT higher education contexts Presently within western higher educational systems there is a drive for greater integration of approaches that lend themselves to social justice However questions still remain about what that means in practice This book seeks to answer that not by telling but by showing It presents a series of chapters that act as vignettes into a diverse set of classrooms contexts and countries offering examples of how and where an epistemology of social justice has been put into practice in teaching and learning situations Such situations range from cross continental higher educational partnerships between east and west to instances of EAP practitioners work with refugees from North Africa and the Middle East These examples are threaded together by the common goal of understanding what it is that defines an enactment of social justice and what the shared denominators are across these contexts Through looking at these various examples the authors produce a set of codes and themes that are common to practice across contexts and discuss how these might help inform practice in other areas of language education higher education and educational development work in general
