relation between modern writing and modern experience It examines how his prose registers the impact on society and the arts of new technologies such as railways and telephones It demonstrates how Ford s writing reflects and elaborates new conceptions of subjectivity gender nation and empire And it establishes his contribution to the growing sense of crisis in the fields of history epistemology and representation It includes essays by twenty leading Ford scholars on a wide range of his fiction and criticism giving particular attention to The Good Soldier and to his responses to modern war Italo Calvino and Classics ,2024-12-23 In his Memos for the Next Millennium the Italian writer Italo Calvino identified five literary qualities that should accompany writers and readers into the literature of the future: lightness, quickness, exactitude, visibility, multiplicity. Though never finished, the Memos continue to inspire readers and scholars. This volume turns three of Calvino's poetic qualities—lightness, quickness, multiplicity—into powerful hermeneutic strategies for reading ancient and late antique texts ranging widely from Homer's Iliad to Claudian's carmina minora. It is the first book to read ancient literature through the lens of Calvino's Memos, thus fostering a new discussion of the interactions between modern and ancient texts as well as between methodologies.
