W. Ho,2019-10-04 Good poetry is like a good painting the more you linger over it the more it reveals It is a deep well that never runs dry And that is why the Psalter like a good painting keeps giving In the last four decades Psalms scholarship has found remarkable fruitfulness in reading the Psalter as a book that is in reading the Psalms as a unified composition with a metanarrative across its 150 poems Pivotal questions associated with this approach really boil down to two questions how and why How are individual psalms sequenced if at all and what is the design logic behind that macrostructure This volume seeks to answer those questions In essence the Psalter unfurls the story of the Davidic covenant While interest in the editing of the Psalter remains high in recent Psalms scholarship this interest has not led to clear consensus The specific and timely contribution of this volume is twofold First it consolidates the results of studies on groups of psalms Second it integrates poetic and thematic approaches that are typically separated in Psalms scholarship Readers will find results of this study surprising and their implications sobering Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1998 The Church of England magazine [afterw.] The Church of England and Lambeth magazine ,1868
Jeanne Guyon's Apocalyptic Universe Jeanne de la Mothe Guyon,2019-03-14 In seventeenth century France Jeanne Guyon 1648 1717 writes about the suffering of the apocalypse followed by the consummation of the second coming Guyon believed that in our earthly pilgrimage we may find the way to union with our Savior Jesus Christ To read her commentary on Revelation translated into English here for the first time is to be caught up in her conversation with the living Lord We experience the wonder and passion of this conversation which is her authenticity at its highest level As Guyon expresses her love to Jesus Christ the words carry the attentive reader into the heart of God while deepening our own interior being In her commentary on Revelation Guyon interprets Jesus Christ s grace needed for living faithfully during the time of suffering in the apocalypse before the advent of the new heaven and new earth in which believers experience eternal union with God Guyon writes It is your universal reign that I desire O God and about which I am passionate So come Lord Jesus Let the grace of the Lord Jesus prepare us all for the second coming Amen
