Perfect Victims Bill James, 2011-07-07 The Black Dahlia case The Manson murders The Zodiac Killer The slaughter of JonBenet Ramsay These killings among many others in Bill James's astonishing chronicle of the history of American crime have all created a frenzy of interest and speculation about human nature And while many of us choose to avoid the news about gruesome murders Bill James contends that these crime stories which create such frenzy and have throughout history are as important to understanding our society culture and history as anything we may consider to be a more serious subject The topic envelopes our society so completely we almost forget about it James looks at the ways in which society has changed by examining the development of how crimes have been committed investigated and prosecuted The book takes on such issues as the rise of an organized police force the controversial use of the death penalty the introduction of evidence such as fingerprinting and DNA and the unexpected ways in which the most shocking crimes have shaped the criminal justice system and our perceptions of violence

Perfect Victims Mohammed El-Kurd, 2025-02-11 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Mohammed El Kurd has written a new Discourse on Colonialism for the twenty first century Robin D G Kelley Perfect Victims is an urgent affirmation of the Palestinian condition of resistance and refusal an ode to the steadfastness of a nation Palestine is a microcosm of the world on fire stubborn fragmented dignified While a settler colonial state continues to inflict devastating violence fundamental truths are deliberately obscured the perpetrators are coddled while the victims are blamed and placed on trial Why must Palestinians prove their humanity And what are the implications of such an infuriatingly impossible task With fearless prose and lyrical precision Mohammed El Kurd refuses a life spent in cross examination Rather than asking the oppressed to perform a perfect victimhood El Kurd asks friends and foes alike to look Palestinians in the eye forgoing both deference and condemnation How we see Palestine reveals how we see each other how we see everything else Masterfully combining candid testimony history and reportage Perfect Victims presents a powerfully simple demand dignity for the Palestinian

Legal Spectatorship Kelli Moore, 2022-05-02 In Legal Spectatorship Kelli Moore traces the political origins of the concept of domestic violence through visual culture in the United States Tracing its appearance in Article IV of the Constitution slave narratives police notation cybernetic theories of affect criminal trials and the look of the battered woman Moore contends that domestic violence refers to more than violence between intimate partners it denotes the mechanisms of racial hierarchy and oppression that undergird republican government in the United States Moore connects the use of photographic evidence of domestic violence in courtrooms which often stands in for women's testimony to slaves' silent experience and witnessing of domestic abuse Drawing on Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl abolitionist print culture courtroom witness testimony and the work of Hortense Spillers Moore shows how the logic of slavery and antiblack racism also dictates the silencing techniques of the contemporary domestic violence courtroom By positioning testimony on contemporary domestic violence prosecution within the archive of slavery Moore demonstrates that domestic violence and its image are haunted by black bodies black flesh and black freedom Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient Perfect Poison: A Female Serial Killer's Deadly Medicine M. William Phelps, 2014-02-25 The true crime story of a Massachusetts nurse with a dark secret by the New York Times bestselling author of The Girl Left Behind At the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Northampton Massachusetts Kristen Gilbert was known as a hardworking dedicated nurse Yet so many emergencies and sudden deaths occurred under Kristen's watch that others jokingly called her the Angel of Death No one suspected the horrifying truth that over the course of six months Gilbert had caused the deaths of as many as forty patients With new insight into the sociopathic mindset of nurses who kill and the latest details on Gilbert's ongoing prison sentence M William Phelps exposes how one person's good intentions went so chillingly killingly wrong Praise for Perfect Poison True crime at its best compelling gripping an edge of the seat thriller Phelps packs wallops of delight with his skillful ability to narrate a suspenseful story Harvey Rachlin award winning author of Song and System A compelling account of terror the author dedicates himself to unmasking the psychopath with facts insight and the other proven methods of journalistic leg work Lowell Cauffiel New York Times bestselling author of House of Secrets Includes sixteen pages of dramatic photos Language as Symbolic Action Kenneth Burke, #MeToo and the Politics of Transnational Feminism Chaitanya Lakkimsetti, Vanita Reddy, 2025-07-15 The global context of a feminist movement The MeToo movement is most famous for the US celebrities it took to task for sexual crimes Harvey Weinstein Bill Cosby and Matt Lauer to name a few Mainstream representations of MeToo frame it as a global feminist campaign that originated in the US and focused on high profile American actors and executives But the debates about gender based violence that MeToo catalyzed were felt worldwide Despite the global uptick of the movement there are very few feminist accounts of the transnational politics of MeToo This anthology frames MeToo as a movement with uneven itineraries goals and outcomes The essays in this volume take a transnational and comparative feminist approach to MeToo focusing on the multiple ways that feminist voices from Argentina Egypt India Pakistan South Korea the US and the UK have pushed the boundaries of what counts as politics justice solidarity violence precarity and vulnerability In doing so this volume shows how an engagement with MeToo allows us to extend and sharpen the empirical theoretical and methodological parameters of transnational feminist thought A blend of global activist and academic work MeToo and the Politics of Transnational Feminism offers a necessary transnational framing of the MeToo movement Imperfect Victims Leigh Goodmark, 2023-01-31 A profound compelling argument for abolition feminism to protect criminalized survivors of gender based violence we must dismantle the carceral system Since the 1970s anti violence advocates have worked to make the legal system more responsive to gender based violence But greater state intervention in cases of intimate partner violence rape sexual assault and trafficking has led to the arrest prosecution conviction and incarceration of victims particularly women of color and trans and gender nonconforming people Imperfect Victims argues that only dismantling the system will bring that punishment to an end

Amplifying the voices of survivors including her own clients abolitionist law professor Leigh Goodmark deftly guides readers on a step by step journey through the criminalization of survival Abolition feminism reveals the possibility of a just world beyond the carceral state which is fundamentally unable to respond to let alone remedy harm As Imperfect Victims shows abolition feminism is the only politics and practice that can undo the indescribable damage inflicted on survivors by the very system purporting to protect them Perfect Harvey Chou,2016-06-15 Criminal Crime Unit as a freshman in the criminal investigation department in maintaining social stability the fight against illegal and criminal process will play what role

Not Giving Up on People Barrett Emerick,Audrey Yap,2023-12-06 Feminist philosophers Barrett Emerick and Audrey Yap bring theoretical arguments about personhood and moral repair into conversation with the work of activists and the experiences of incarcerated people to make the case that prisons ought to be abolished They argue that contemporary carceral systems in the United States and Canada fail to treat people as genuine moral agents in ways that also fail victims and their larger communities Such carceral systems are a form of what Emerick and Yap call institutionalized moral abandonment Instead they argue that we should create communities of moral solidarity which open up space for wrongdoers to make up for their wrongs As part of this argument the book directly addresses one of the paradigm cases of wrongdoing often used to justify carceral systems rape Carceral systems that treat perpetrators of sexual violence as irredeemable monsters both obscure the reality of sexual violence and are harmful to everyone involved As an alternative to carceral systems Emerick and Yap argue for an orientation towards justice that is grounded in moral repair This incorporates elements of restorative justice mutual aid and harm reduction Instead of advocating for one specific and universal approach the authors argue for multigenerational collective action that aims to build resilient communities that support the wellbeing of everyone The Concept of the Civilian Claire Garbett,2015-01-09 The Concept of the Civilian Legal Recognition

Adjudication and the Trials of International Criminal Justice offers a critical account of the legal shaping of civilian identities by the processes of international criminal justice It draws on a detailed case study of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia to explore two key issues central to these justice processes first how to understand civilians as a social and legal category of persons and second how legal practices shape victims identities and redress in relation to these persons Integrating socio legal concepts and methodologies with insights from transitional justice scholarship Claire Garbett traces the historical emergence of the concept of the civilian and critically examines how the different stages of legal proceedings produce its conceptual form in distinction from that of combatants This book shows that the very notions of civilian protection and redress that underpin current practices of international criminal justice continue to evoke both definitional difficulties and analytic contestation Using a unique interdisciplinary approach the author provides a critical analysis of the relationship between mechanisms of transitional justice and civilians that will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of transitional justice sociology law politics and human rights The Psychology of Honor Abuse, Violence, and

Who is Worthy of Protection? Meghana Nayak, 2015 A surprisingly understudied topic in international relations is gender based asylum Gender based asylum offers protection from deportation for migrants who have suffered gender violence and persecution in their home countries Countries are increasingly acknowledging that even though international refugee law does not include gender as a category of persecution gender violence can threaten people's lives and requires attention But Meghana Nayak argues that it matters not just that but how we respond to gender violence and persecution Asylum advocates and the US government have created frames or ideas about how to understand different types of gender violence and who counts as victims These frames are useful in increasing gender based asylum grants But the United States is negotiating the tension between the protection and the restriction of non citizens claiming to offer safe haven to persecuted people at the same time that it aims to control borders Thus the frames construct which migrants are worthy of protection The effects of the asylum frames are two fold First they leave out or distort the stories and experiences of asylum seekers who do not fit preconceived narratives of good victims Second the frames reflect but also serve as an entry point to deepen strengthen and shape the US position of power relative to other countries international organizations and immigrant communities Who Is Worthy of Protection explores the politics of gender based asylum through a comparative examination of US asylum policy and cases regarding domestic violence female circumcision rape trafficking coercive sterilization and abortion and persecution based on sexual and gender identity

The New Slave Narrative Laura T. Murphy,2019-09-17 A century and a half after the abolition of slavery in the United States survivors of contemporary forms of enslavement from around the world have revived a powerful tool of the abolitionist movement first person narratives of slavery and freedom Just as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and others used autobiographical testimonies in the fight to eradicate slavery today s new slave narrators play a crucial role in shaping an antislavery agenda Their writings unveil the systemic underpinnings of global slavery while critiquing the precarity of their hard fought freedom At the same time the demands of antislavery organizations religious groups and book publishers circumscribe the voices of the enslaved coopting their narratives in support of alternative agendas In this pathbreaking interdisciplinary study Laura T Murphy argues that the slave narrative has reemerged as a twenty first century genre that has gained new currency in the context of the memoir boom post 9 11 anti Islamic sentiment and conservative family values politics She analyzes a diverse range of dozens of book length accounts of modern slavery from Africa Asia the United States the United Kingdom and Europe examining the narrative strategies that survivors of slavery employ to make their experiences legible and to promote a reinvigorated antislavery agenda By putting these stories into conversation with one another The New Slave Narrative reveals an emergent survivor centered counterdiscourse of collaboration and systemic change that offers an urgent critique of the systems that maintain contemporary slavery as well as of the human rights industry and the antislavery movement

The Victim and Its Masks Abdellah Hammoudi,1993-11 Each year in a solemn Sunni Muslim feast the Ait Mizane of southern Morocco reenact the story of Abraham as a ritual sacrifice a symbolic observance of their submission to the divine After this sober ceremony comes a bacchanalian masquerade which seems to violate every principle the sacrifice affirmed Because of the apparent contradiction between sacrifice and masquerade observers have described the two as entirely separate events This book reunites them as a single ritual process within Islamic tradition The Mystical Meaning of the Ceremonies of the Mass Jean-Jacques Olier, 2024-09-18 Olier's The Mystical Meaning of the Ceremonies of the Mass first published in 1657 and presented here with an Introduction by Abb Claude Barthe is an outstanding example of the application to the liturgy and its actions of the search for a deeper meaning that has also been so influential throughout the history of contemplative Christianity in the resonant anagogical reading of the Bible Olier shows us that there is nothing in the traditional Catholic Mass that lacks its own progressively deeper levels of meaning and that for this reason cannot inspire in us new spiritual insights new visions of heaven Olier writes as eloquently as he spoke the flow of his eloquence carries us with him as he brings to light many a sparkling gem lying too long concealed in the spiritual treasure trove of the Mass To follow him in his inspired excavations is an unforgettable spiritual adventure of discovery The Word of a Woman? J. Jordan, 2004-08-18 The notion that women lie about rape is a prevalent belief with pervasive influence This book is unique in combining police file data with interviews obtained from both rape survivors and detectives in order to critically explore how this belief affects police officers responses to women who report rape Examination of this material is located within a broader analysis of the historical and socio cultural environment and illustrates how rape investigations continue to be conducted within the context of pervasive beliefs and stereotypes regarding both the nature of rape and the nature of women
