Mentored to Perfection Simone Dennis, Alison Behie, 2022-05-23 Mentored to Perfection The Masculine Terms of Success in Academia examines how mentoring programs between women tend to replicate the hierarchical relations of patriarchy that they are meant to dismantle Simone Dennis and Alison Behie argue that while paradigmatic mentoring programs look like networking support services for neophytes these mentorships nevertheless replicate the very institutional structures they seek to uproot The generosity that senior women show to junior women as they share their tips and offer their support ironically obscures participants involvement in debt relations and the biases of replicating a particular type of success This book considers the possibilities for disrupting our tendency to reproduce ourselves in the masculine terms of success The Evolution and perfection of the aseptic surgical technique Lewis Samuel MacMurtry,1897 Perfection Makes Practice Anna M. Rothman, David Rothman, 2011-04-06 What does it mean to live in a time when medical science can not only cure the human body but also reshape it How should we as individuals and as a society respond to new drugs and genetic technologies Sheila and David Rothman address these questions with a singular blend of history and analysis taking us behind the scenes to explain how scientific research medical practice drug company policies and a quest for peak performance combine to exaggerate potential benefits and minimize risks They present a fascinating and factual story from the rise of estrogen and testosterone use in the 1920s and 1930s to the frenzy around liposuction and growth hormone to the latest research into the genetics of aging The Rothmans reveal what happens when physicians view patients unhappiness and dissatisfaction with their bodies short stature thunder thighs aging as though they were diseases to be treated The Pursuit of Perfection takes us from the early days of endocrinology the belief that you are your hormones to today's frontier of genetic enhancements the idea that you are your genes It lays bare the always complicated and sometimes compromised positions of science medicine and commerce This is the book to read before signing on for the latest medical fix Claim the Land Vicky

The Shadow of Perfection James G. Donat, Jay Livernois, 1996 The latest issue of the distinguished Jungian journal from Switzerland The Theology of Christian Perfection Antonio Royo Marin, 2012-05-16 The best manual of spiritual theology which has appeared to date the most ordered and complete a true summa of spirituality This is a work of extraordinary informative value and yet possessing a notable doctrinal solidity This encomium of M M Philippon laudatory as it is does less than justice to this modern classic now at last appearing in English in a smooth readable translation and adaptation by Fr Aumann For in reality this is three books in one volume First of all this is a textbook a manual whose lucid and orderly presentation of the basic principles of the spiritual life of the supernatural organism and of its progressive development recommends it unreservedly for seminarians and other serious students of spiritual theology As Garrigou Lagrange points out the author's order has permitted him to treat all the important questions relative to perfection and to show clearly the basic unity of the Christian life Thorough and solid as it is however firmly based on the chief masters of the spiritual life St Thomas St John of the Cross and St Teresa of Avila this truly theological synthesis is set forth in clear and accessible form as its widespread popularity in Spain four editions in six years attests But The Theology of Christian Perfection is perhaps even more valuable as a work of spiritual formation It is an eminently practical manual of sound advice counsel and direction with respect to the increasingly fruitful use of the means negative and positive for advancing in perfection As such it will be immediately valuable for spiritual directors an indispensable aid for self formation and a work of precious merit for all souls desirous of spiritual advancement
