Performativity And Belonging:

Performativity and Belonging Vikki Bell,1999 This title offers a revision of the centrality of belonging in contemporary culture Contributors examine belonging as an achievement involving several levels of production performance and embodiment

Performativity & Belonging Vikki Bell,1999-08-27 This book explores belonging as a performative achievement The contributors investigate how identities are embodied and effected and how lines of allegiance and fracture are produced and reproduced Questions of difference are tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of history and politics Drawing on sociology philosophy and anthropology this collection brings together leading commentators including Judith Butler Paul Gilroy and Arjun Appadurai as well as a range of new scholars It examines questions of visibility political affiliation ethics mimesis spatiality passing and diversity in modes of embodied difference The volume advances conceptual and theoretical issues through testing various propositions around specific examples or questions What emerges is a rich engagement with the complexity of contemporary forms of belonging

Special Issue On: Performativity and Belonging Vikki Bell,1999

Online Belongings Debra Ferreday,2009 In her reading of cyberculture studies after the affective turn the author argues for a new cyberculture studies that goes beyond dominant cultural narratives of the Internet as dystopian or utopian space and pays attention to the ways in which online culture has become embedded in everyday lives The book intervenes in narratives of virtual reality to propose that the Internet can be re read as a space of fantasy

Believing in Belonging Abby Day,2011-10-06 Drawing on empirical research exploring mainstream religious belief and identity in Euro American countries Abby Day explores how people believe in belonging choosing religious identifications to complement other social and emotional experiences of belongings

German Narratives of Belonging Linda Shortt,2017-07-05 Since unification German culture has experienced a boom in discourses on generation family and place Linda Shortt reads this as symptomatic of a wider quest for belonging that mobilises attachment to counter the effects of post modern deterritorialisation and globalisation Investigating twenty first century narratives of belonging by Reinhard Jirgl Christoph Hein Angelika Overath Florian Illies Juli Zeh Stephan Wackwitz Uwe Timm and Peter Schneider Shortt examines how the desire to belong is repeatedly unsettled by disturbances of lineage and tradition In this way she combines an analysis of supermodernity with an enquiry into German memory contests on the National Socialist era 1968 and 1989 that continue to shape identity in the Berlin Republic Exploring a spectrum of narratives that range from agitated disavowals of place to romances of belonging this study illuminates the topography of belonging in contemporary Germany

The Christian Tradition in Anglo-Saxon England Paul Cavill, 2004 Essays exploring a wide array of sources that show the importance of Christian ideas and influences in Anglo Saxon England A unique and important contribution to both teaching and scholarship Professor Elaine Treharne Stanford University This is a collection of essays exploring a wide array of sources that show the importance of Christian ideas and influences in Anglo Saxon England The range of treatment is exceptionally diverse Some of the essays develop new approaches to familiar texts such as Beowulf The Wanderer and The Seafarer others deal with less familiar texts and genres to illustrate the role of Christian ideas in a variety of contexts from preaching to remembrance of the dead and from the court of King Cnut to the monastic library Some of the essays are informative providing essential background material for understanding the nature of the Bible or the distinction between monastic and cleric in Anglo Saxon England others provide concise surveys of material evidence or genres others still show how themes can be used in constructing and evaluating courses teaching the tradition Contributors GRAHAM CAIE PAUL CAVILL CATHERINE CUBITT JUDITH JESCH RICHARD MARSDEN ELISABETH OKASHA BARBARA C RAW PHILIPPA SEMPER DABNEY BANKERT SANTHA BHATTACHARJI HUGH MAGENNIS MARY SWAN JONATHAN M WOODING

Performing the Iranian State Staci Gem Scheiwiller, 2013-02-15 This book discusses what it means to perform the State what this action means in relation to the country of Iran and how these various performances are represented The concept of the State as a modern phenomenon has had a powerful impact on the formation of the individual and collective as well as on determining how political entities are perceived in their interactions with one another in the current global arena

Judith Butler, Race and Education Charlotte Chadderton, 2018-05-22 This book provides an analysis of race and education through the lens of the work of Judith Butler Although Butler tends to be best known in the field of education for her work on gender and sexuality her work more broadly encompasses the functioning of power and hegemonic norms and the formation of subjects and thus can also be applied to analyse issues of race Applying a Butlerian framework to race allows us to question its ontological status while considering it a hegemonic norm and a performative notion which has a significant impact on real lives The author considers the implications of Butler's thinking for debates addressing diverse contemporary educational issues in which race continues to be reproduced such as the formation of learner identities the production of the good citizen raising student aspirations counter terrorism and surveillance in education and qualitative research in education This book will be of interest to students and scholars of education and race the sociology of education and equality of opportunity

Performing the Pied-Noir Family Aoife Connolly, 2020-10-16 The impact of the Algerian War 1954-1962 continues to resonate in France where the subject was long repressed in the collective psyche This book sheds new light on a memory community at the heart of the conflict the million European settlers known as the pieds noirs who migrated to France as the war reached its bloody end Aoife Connolly draws on theories of performativity to explore autobiographical and fictional narratives by the settlers in over 30 canonical and non canonical works of literature and film produced from the colony's imminent demise up to the present day Connolly focuses on renewed attachment to the family in exile in a comprehensive analysis of settler masculinity femininity childhood and adolescence that uncovers neglected representations including homosexual and Jewish voices Findings on the construction of a post independence identity and collective memory have broader implications for communities affected by colonization and migration Scholars of French Studies Postcolonial Studies Cultural Studies Gender and Identity Studies Memory Studies and Migration Studies will find this book particularly useful

The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Communication Bonnie J. Dow, Julia T.

Wood, 2006-07-19 Publisher Description

Habitus: A Sense of Place Emma Rooksby, 2017-09-19 Habitus is a concept developed by the late French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu as a sense of one's place a sense of the other's place It relates to our perceptions of the positions or place of ourselves and other people in the world in which we live and how these perceptions affect our actions and interactions with places and people Habitus implies that a web of complex processes links the physical the social and the mental Inspired by this concept this compelling book brings together leading scholars from interdisciplinary fields to examine ways in which spaces and places are constructed interpreted and used by different people This second edition contains updated chapter material together with an entirely new introduction and revised conclusions which recognise the importance of Bourdieu's work This publication is a tribute to Pierre Bourdieu's remarkable contribution to the fields of sociology anthropology geography political philosophy and urban planning

The Global City and the Holy City Tovi Fenster, 2016-09-17 The Global City the Holy City explores the local embodied knowledge of women and men of different national cultural and ethnic identities and age groups living in London and Jerusalem Their narratives focus on the three main concepts of Comfort Belonging and Commitment to the various spaces in which they live By deconstructing the meanings of these three notions and analyzing their expression in cognitive temporal maps The Global City The Holy City examines the practicalities of incorporating this kind of local embodied knowledge into the professional planning and management of cities in the age of globalization

Criminological Approaches to International Criminal Law Ilias Bantekas, Emmanouela Mylonaki, 2014-11-06 This volume is one of the few books to explain in depth the international crimes behind the scenes of substantive or procedural law The contributors place a particular focus on what motivates participation in international crime how perpetrators witnesses and victims see their predicament and how international crimes should be investigated at local and international level with an emphasis on context The book engages these questions with a broad interdisciplinary approach that is accessible to both lawyers and non lawyers alike It discusses international crime through the lens of anthropology neuroscience psychology state crime theory and information systems theory and draws upon relevant investigative experience from experts in international and domestic law prosecutions

The Mauritian Novel Julia Waters, 2019-01-08 This book analyses how the idea or the problem of belonging is articulated in a range of contemporary francophone Mauritian novels Waters explores how forms of affective belonging intersect with the exclusionary politics of belonging in novels by Nathacha Appanah Ananda Devi Shenaz Patel Bertrand de Robillard Amal Sewtohul and Carl de Souza

What's France got to do with it? Juliana de Nooy, 2020-07-30 While only one book length memoir recounting the sojourn of an Australian in France was published in the 1990s well over 40 have been published since 2000 overwhelmingly written by women Although we might expect a focus on travel intercultural adjustment and communication in these texts this is the case only in a minority of accounts More frequently France serves as a backdrop to a project of self renovation in which transplantation to another country is incidental hence the question What's France got to do with it The book delves into what France represents in the various narratives its role in the self transformation and the reasons for the seemingly insatiable demand among readers and publishers for these stories It asks why these memoirs have gained such traction among Australian women at the dawn of the twenty first century and what is at stake in the fascination with France

Passing Fancies in Jewish American Literature and Culture Judith Ruderman, 2019-01-09 This scholarly study explores the conflicting forces of assimilation and cultural heritage in literary portrayals of Jewish American identity In Passing Fancies in Jewish American Literature and Culture Judith Ruderman takes on the fraught question of who passes for Jewish in American literature and culture In today's contemporary political climate religious and racial identities are being reconceived as responses to culture and environment rather than essential qualities Many Jews continue to hold conflicting ideas about their identity seeking deep engagement with Jewish history and the experiences of the Jewish people while holding steadfastly to the understanding that identity is fluid and multivalent Looking at carefully chosen texts from American literature Ruderman elaborates on the strategies Jews have used to pass from the late nineteenth century to the present nose jobs renaming clothing changes religious and racial reclassification and even playing baseball While traversing racial and religious identities has always been a feature of America's nation of immigrants Ruderman shows how the complexities of identity formation and deformation are critically relevant during this important cultural moment

Cultural Change And Ordinary Life Longhurst, Brian, 2007-09-01 How important are the media How is culture changing How is ordinary life being transformed How do we belong This ground breaking book offers a new approach to the understanding of everyday life the media and cultural change It explores the social pattern of ordinary life in the context of recent theories and accounts of social and cultural change Brian Longhurst argues that our social and cultural lives are becoming increasingly audience and performed and that activities in everyday life are changing due to the ever growing importance and salience of the media These changes involve people forging new ways of belonging where among other things they seek to distinguish themselves from others In Cultural Change and Ordinary Life Longhurst evaluates changes in the media and ordinary life in the context of large scale cultural change especially with respect to globalization and hybridisation fragmentation spectacle and performance and enthusing or fan like activities He makes the case that analysis of the media has to be brought into a more thorough dialogue with other forms of research that have looked at social processes Cultural Change and Ordinary Life is key reading for students and researchers of sociology media studies cultural studies and mass communication The ISA Handbook in Contemporary Sociology Ann Denis, Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2009-05-22 Representing the fruit of in depth dynamics it invites us to give all necessary attention to the concepts of conflict cooperation and competition By reflecting on the possible articulations of these concepts and attempting to apply them in diverse fields of social science the editors give voice to those who are studying the world as it is and perform the service of returning a set of concepts approaches or paradigms to their legitimate place Michel Wieviorka President International Sociological Association This ISA Handbook presents and tracks the transformation of the societies and social relations that characterize the twenty first century The volume is organized around a conceptualization of three processes that are fundamental to the analyses of micro meso and macro social relations conflict competition and cooperation In addition to chapters that delve into sociological theory case studies and overviews of subfields discuss and contextualize debates from an international perspective incorporating relevant material about North America Latin America Europe Africa and Asia Chapters on topics and fields crucial to the experience of people around the world include among others childhood studies consumption hunger labour studies peace keeping law health sport and welfare Systematic and informed the handbook will serve readers in all branches of the social sciences providing both experienced researchers and novices with the materials to explore the different domains of contemporary life
