Films, 1940s Gregory William Mank, 2015-09-15 They had more in common than just a scream whether they faced Dracula Frankenstein's Monster the Mummy Dr Jekyll Mr Hyde King Kong the Wolf Man or any of the other legendary Hollywood monsters Some were even monsters themselves such as Elsa Lanchester as the Bride and Gloria Holden as Dracula's Daughter And while evading the Strangler of the Swamp former Miss America Rosemary La Planche is allowed to rescue her leading man This book provides details about the lives and careers of 21 of these cinematic leading ladies femmes fatales monsters and misfits putting into perspective their contributions to the films and folklore of Hollywood terror and also the sexual harassment exploitation and genuine danger they faced on the job Veteran actress Virginia Christine recalls Universal burying her alive in a backlot swamp in full mummy makeup for the resurrection scene in The Mummy's Curse and how the studio saved that scene for the last day in case she suffocated Filled with anecdotes and recollections many of the entries are based on original interviews and there are numerous old photographs and movie stills

Brand Platform in the Professional Sport Industry Jingxuan Zheng, Daniel S. Mason, 2018-05-17 This book examines how the emergence of new media brings brought challenges to the North American sport industry discussing challenges in terms of a shift from an information economy to an attention economy perspective Historically the arrival of new forms of media including radio and television were not universally supported by sports leagues wary of existing industry relationships with stakeholders and new media have made the multi sided market model of professional sports leagues which has focused on protection and exploitation of league content inefficient and calls for a new model to integrate new media into the market By integrating platform theory with the Service Dominant Logic SDL of marketing we describe how the multi sided market of professional sports is evolving into a platform ecosystem and the role of its most important customers the fans will also evolve from end users to value co creators complementors and innovators This book will create a new way of understanding the evolution of professional sports leagues and future growth of the industry and lay the foundation for new research within the academic realm of sport management and sports marketing

Jack's Life Patrick McGilligan, 1996-01-26 No male American film star of the post Brando era has demonstrated the talent charisma the larger than life audacity and the string of screen triumphs of Jack Nicholson Now one of America's finest film historians has produced the definitive biography of this most private and public of stars Photos Second serial to Cosmopolitan

The Immigrant Scene Sabine Haenni, 2008 Yiddish melodramas about the tribulations of immigration German plays about alpine tourism Italian vaudeville performances Rubbernecking tours of Chinatown In the New York City of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries these seemingly disparate leisure activities played similar roles mediating the vast cultural demographic and social changes that were sweeping the nation's largest city In The Immigrant Scene Sabine Haenni reveals how theaters in New York created ethnic entertainment that shaped the culture of the United States in the early twentieth century Considering the relationship between leisure and mass culture The Immigrant Scene develops a new picture of the metropolis in which the movement of people objects and images on screen and in the street helped residents negotiate the complexities of modern times In analyzing how communities engaged with immigrant theaters and the nascent film culture in New York City Haenni traces the ways in which performance and cinema provided virtual mobility ways of navigating the socially complex metropolis and influenced national ideas of immigration culture and diversity in surprising and lasting ways
