Performing Israel's Faith Narrative And Law In Rabbinic Theology:

Performing Israel's Faith, 2005 If law alone yields legalism then religious belief by itself fails to create justice In Performing Israel's Faith Jacob Neusner shows how Jewish Halakhah law and Aggadah narrative fit together to form a robust and coherent covenant theology one directly concerned about this world Neusner's careful and thorough examination of several key issues within rabbinic Judaism the nations idolatry sin repentance and atonement demonstrates that neither Halakhah nor Aggadah can be fully and rightly understood when the two are isolated from each other Performing Israel's Faith thus effectively reveals that rabbinic Judaism's true pattern of religion was constituted by a covenant theology comprised by both law and story a covenant theology whose aim was to restore the sanctification of God's original creation

Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people the people of Israel Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures exodus Torah Temple land and Davidic kingship As a Christian Israelology this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture Old and New Testaments and Christian theology The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish Christian dialogue from the perspective of post Vatican II Catholicism

Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opening byness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy Narratives in Conflict Matthew Aaron Bennett,2019-11-18

Did Jesus die on the cross for our sins as the Gospels describe Or as Muslims often contend was Jesus rescued to heaven in order to avoid the shameful crucifixion that would be unbecoming of a messenger of God This debate has raged for generations and has caused no shortage of frustration among those seeking to explain the central teaching of the Christian faith to those influenced by the Qur'an What this book aims to do is uncover four barriers to understanding the biblical teaching on atonement that likely exist in the minds of our Muslim friends prior to asking about the historical reality of the Christ event What we will discover is that the Qur'an diverges from the biblical teaching on atonement at the lexical ritual narrative and worldview levels Each of these points of divergence presents a barrier to communication Therefore before arguing with our Muslim friends that Jesus died on the cross we must provide an answer to the prior question why would it matter This book argues that the Letter to the Hebrews provides a particularly helpful biblical starting point for overcoming all four barriers Biblical Covenantalism, Volume 3 Douglas W. Jesus the Central Jew André LaCocque, 2015-03-16 Not a Jew marginally but centrally In this book LaCocque presents the case that Jesus was totally and unquestionably a Jew He lived as a Jew thought as a Jew debated as a Jew acted as a Jew and died as a Jew He had no intention of creating a new religion rather he was a reformer of the Judaism of his day True his critique went far beyond an intellectual subversion In fact Jesus progressively thought of himself as the Son of Man inaugurating the advent of the Kingdom of God on earth Features Focused attention given to the historical Jesus and not Christianity or Christology Addresses restricted sources namely the Synoptic Gospels Close examination of Jesus's way of thinking teaching and behaving

Jesus and His Death Scot McKnight, 2005 Recent scholarship on the historical Jesus has rightly focused upon how Jesus understood his own mission But no scholarly effort to understand the mission of Jesus can rest content without exploring the historical possibility that Jesus envisioned his own death In this careful and far reaching study Scot McKnight contends that Jesus did in fact anticipate his own death that Jesus understood his death as an atoning sacrifice and that his death as an atoning sacrifice stood at the heart of Jesus' own mission to protect his own followers from the judgment of God

Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering, 2014-11-24 In Mary's Bodily Assumption Matthew Levering presents a contemporary explanation and defense of the Catholic doctrine of Mary's bodily Assumption He asks How does the Church justify a doctrine that does not have explicit biblical or first century historical evidence to support it With the goal of exploring this question more deeply he divides his discussion into two sections one historical and the other systematic Levering's historical section aims to retrieve the rich Mariological doctrine of the mid twentieth century He introduces the development of Mariology in Catholic Magisterial documents focusing on Pope Pius XII's encyclical Munificentissimus Deus of 1950 in which the bodily Assumption of Mary was dogmatically defined and two later Magisterial documents Vatican II's Lumen Gentium and Pope John Paul II's Redemptoris Mater. Levering addresses the work of the neo scholastic theologians Joseph Duhr Alo's Janssens and R ginald Garrigou Lagrange before turning to the great theologians of the nouvelle th ologie Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer Joseph Ratzinger and their emphasis on biblical typology Using John Henry Newman as a guide Levering organizes his systematic section by the three pillars of the doctrine on which Mary's Assumption rests biblical typology the Church as authoritative interpreter of divine revelation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the fittingness of Mary's Assumption in relation to the other mysteries of faith Levering's ecumenical contribution is a significant engagement with Protestant biblical scholars and theologians it is also a reclamation of Mariology as a central topic in Catholic theology

The Journal of Jewish Studies ,2006 Elenchus of Biblica ,2005 Christian Scholar's Review ,2004 Jewish Book World ,2008 Doing Jewish Theology Rabbi Neil Gillman, PhD,2011-02-07 An Intellectually Rich and Challenging Exploration of Modern Jewish Theology How we deal with revelation determines how we handle the issue of authority in belief and practice How we understand authority determines how we deal with the claims of the tradition on us how we deal with those claims determines how we shape our own Judaism That conclusion opens the gate to a reconsideration of all of Judaism's theology in particular how we understand God for God is at the heart of Torah from the Introduction With clarity and passion award winning teacher author and theologian Neil Gillman captures the power of Jewish theological claims and reveals extraordinary insights into Jewish identity the purpose of religion and our relationship with God Drawing from Judaism's sacred texts as well as great thinkers such as Mordecai Kaplan Abraham Joshua Heschel and Paul Tillich Gillman traces his theological journey over four decades of study beginning with his own understanding of revelation He explores the role of symbol and myth in our understanding of the nature of God and covenant He examines the importance of community in both determining authority and sanctifying sacred space By charting the development of his own personal theology Gillman explores the evolution of Jewish thought and its implications for modern Jewish religious identity today and in the future

Building Blocks of Rabbinic Tradition Jacob Neusner,2008 This book responds to a question that came to the author from Professor Maren Niehoff of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Have you written a simple introduction to your documentary theory and method which can serve as a starting point for my students In this book are gathered eight of the more fundamental items of documentary theory and practice_three in theory five in practice_for Professor Neihoff's students and anyone else who takes an interest in the formative history of Judaism The documentary thesis of Rabbinic literature holds that the document_the Mishnah Sifra Lamentations Rabbah the Bavli for example_forms the basic building block of the Rabbinic tradition Excluded by that definition are sayings attributed to and stories told about named sages These cannot serve in the reconstruction of the Rabbinic tradition its literature history religion and theology

A Narrative Theology of the New Testament Timo Eskola, 2015-07-21 Focusing on the metanarrative of exile and restoration Timo Eskola claims that a post liberal narrative New Testament theology is both consistent and explanative Combining a post New Quest perspective on Jesus with an eschatological reading of Paul the author states that Jesus temple criticism aims at restoration eschatology Jesus starts a priestly community that expects God's jubilee to begin with Jesus work and proceed with the preaching of the new gospel The reception of this message in the post Easter church results in resurrection Christology that proclaims Jesus Davidic kingship on God's throne of glory Both Paul and Jewish Christian teachers later present Christ's community as a new temple where believers serve the Lord as priests of the new covenant Furthermore restoration eschatology provides a new basis for understanding Paul's contrast with the words of the law and his teaching of justification First Things ,2005
