Beauty, Responsibility, and Power Leszek Koczanowicz, Katarzyna Liszka, 2014-09-01 This book addresses the interrelations between aesthetics ethics and politics in the framework of pragmatist aesthetics offering a comprehensive panorama of the ways and fields in which pragmatist aesthetics ties in with vital social and ethical problems of modernity Most of the contributors refer to the model propounded by Richard Shusterman Following in Dewey's footsteps Shusterman has elaborated and expanded his concept adding new dimensions to it The most important supplement is the idea of aesthetic experience being constituted by our bodiliness In somaesthetics pragmatism has acquired a new dimension a fully developed comprehensive aesthetic theory Pragmatist aesthetics with its essential notion of the body engages in critical dialogue with many key concepts of modernity which locate the body in social and cultural frameworks The articles collected in this volume illustrate the complex range of pragmatist aesthetics and its impact on the understanding of crucial issues in social and moral philosophy Thinking Through the Body Richard Shusterman, 2012-09-17 A richly rewarding vision of the burgeoning interdisciplinary field of somaesthetics with fourteen essays by the originator of the field Mapping Landscapes for Performance as Research Shannon Rose Riley, Lynette Hunter, 2009-07-16 Although the sciences have long understood the value of practice based research the arts and humanities have tended to structure a gap between practice and analysis This book examines differences and similarities between Performance as Research practices in various community and national contexts mapping out the landscape of this new field The Book of Hours and the Body Sherry C. M. Lindquist, 2024-02-29 This book explores our corporeal connections to the past by considering what three theoretical approaches somaesthetics posthumanism and the uncanny may reveal about both premodern and postmodern terms of embodiment It takes as its point of departure a selection of fifteenth century northern European Books of Hours evocative objects designed at once to inscribe social status to strengthen religious commitment to entertain to stimulate emotions and to encourage discomfiting self scrutiny Studying their kaleidoscopically strange moving humorous disturbing and imaginative pages not only enables a window into relationships among bodies images and things in the past but also in our own internet

era where surprisingly popular memes drawn from such manuscripts constitute a part of our own visual culture In negotiating theoretical post theoretical and historical concerns this book aims to contribute to an emerging and much needed intersectional social history of art It will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies Renaissance early modern studies gender studies the history of the book posthumanism aesthetics and the body Buddhism and the Body,2023-08-28 Mahayana Theravada ancient modern Even at the most basic level the diversity of Buddhism makes a comprehensive approach daunting This book is a first step in solving the problem In foregrounding the bodies of practitioners a solid platform for analysing the philosophy of Buddhism begins to become apparent Building upon somaesthetics Buddhism is seen for its ameliorative effect which spans the range of how the mind integrates with the body This exploration of positive effect spans from dreams to medicine Beyond the historical side of these questions a contemporary analysis includes its intersection with art philosophy and ethnography The Aesthetics of Disengagement Christine Ross,2006 Reveals the artistic subjectivity of the scientific notion of depression Embodying Pragmatism Wojciech Małeck,2010 Embodying Pragmatism is the first monograph in English devoted to Richard Shusterman an internationally renowned philosopher and one of today s most innovative thinkers in pragmatism and aesthetics The book presents a comprehensive account of Shusterman s principal philosophical ideas concerning pragmatism aesthetics and literary theory including such themes as interpretation aesthetic experience popular art and human embodiment culminating in his proposal of a new discipline called somaesthetics As Shusterman s philosophical writings involve a dialogue with both analytic and continental traditions this monograph not only offers a critical vision of contemporary pragmatist thought but also situates Shusterman and pragmatism within the current state of theory Art in Community Rimi Khan,2016-04-29 The arts are situated at the centre of policies and programs seeking to make communities more creative cohesive or productive This book highlights the governmental aesthetic and economic contexts which shape art in community offering a constructive account of the ties between government culture and the citizen Shusterman's Somaesthetics ,2022-04-19 This edited collection provides an in depth and wide ranging exploration of pragmatist philosopher Richard Shusterman s distinctive project of somaesthetics devoted not only to better understanding bodily experience but also to greater mastery of somatic perception performance and presentation Against contemporary trends that focus narrowly on conceptual and computational thinking Shusterman returns philosophy to what is most fundamental the sentient expressive human body with its creations of living beauty Twelve scholars here provide penetrating critical analyses of Shusterman on ontology perception language literature culture politics aesthetics cuisine music and the visual arts including films of his work in performance art Shock and the Senseless in Dada and Fluxus Dorothée Brill,2010 A groundbreaking analysis of two movements of the historical avant garde Surface and Depth Richard Shusterman,2018-08-06 A paradox of surface and depth pervades the field of aesthetics How can art s surface meanings and qualities be properly appreciated without understanding the cultural context that shapes their creation and perception But exploring such underlying cultural conditions challenges the perception of those qualities and meanings of aesthetic surface that constitute the captivating power of art If aesthetics deals with both surface and depth impassioned immediacy yet also critical distance of judgment how can this doubleness be held together in one philosophical vision In his new book Richard Shusterman explores the dialectics of surface and depth by examining key issues in the philosophy of art and culture from the logic of interpretation and evaluation to the roots of taste and convention from the meanings of aesthetic purity and immediacy to the role of nature theory and history in our experience and understanding of art In treating these topics Shusterman combines the methods of analytic philosophy critical theory and poststructuralism to arrive at new positions displaying the philosophical versatility originality of vision and graceful accessible writing that have become his trademark Surface and Depth is crowned by a new definition of art as dramatization Global Changes - Local Stages Hans van Maanen, Andreas Kotte, Anneli Saro, 2009

Global Changes Local Stages investigates the relationships between what happened the last twenty years on the world stage and how theatre life developed on the local level The subject has been approached from three different angles each covered by one part of the book The Effects of Social Changes on Theatre Fields Values in Theatre Politics and Localization of Theatrical Values The group of authors tries to find the links between these three areas The book profits from the fact that the authors come from two sides of the former Wall Twenty years after its fall the transitional processes in countries of the former Eastern Bloc can be compared not only mutually but also with the changes in the Western part of Europe With its 537 pages Global Changes Local Stages is the most extensive research of the possible relationships between cultural change theatre politics and theatre life in smaller European countries Somaesthetics and Sport, 2022-04-04 Somaesthetics and Sport brings together a diverse set of explorations into the embodied experience of watching and playing sport Sport can at once be a source of sensual beauty and pleasure and also of pain and anguish spectators can both celebrate and glorify athletes but also expect certain forms of behaviour and intentionally or otherwise police the movements of their bodies sport and physical exercise can improve our health and increase the self awareness of our abilities and limitations but they also help us to shape our sense of what it means to live a good life Listen to Their Voices Katharine Smithrim, Rena Upitis, 2007-09-15 Making the connection between Research and Practice is the hope of most music education researchers This volume brings the two together with the goal of furthering the dialogue concerning music education for young learners

Philosophy After Postmodernism Paul Crowther, 2003-09-02 Formulating a new approach to philosophy Paul Crowther identifies conceptual links between value knowledge personal identity and civilization understood as a process of cumulative advance Civilisation and Fear Wojciech Kalaga, Agnieszka Kliś, 2012-03-15 Paradoxically if nature has always been a source of fear civilisation its other and at the same time the epitome of progress and order has not only doubled fear itself but also added its new sister anxiety In effect the notions of civilisation fear and anxiety can hardly be separated Fear either linked with anxiety or distinct from it lies at the foundation of civilisation which as much promises to shelter us from these afflictions as it does proliferate them Confronted no longer with the adversary powers of nature humans have to face now the adversary powers produced by their own endeavours and ideologies Each effort aimed at attaining an equilibrium results in new unexpected rifts and breaches into which fear and anxiety grow Out of the games played between fear and civilisation there emerge new versions of the human subject homo anxious homo civilis homo rationalis This volume represents a collection of papers devoted to the many various relations between fear and society culture and civilisation both Western and Eastern contemporary and past The articles collected here approach the relationship of civilisation fear anxiety and the subject from multiple perspectives Relating to modern critical thought including that of Kant Freud Derrida Kierkegaard and Heidegger they investigate the objects causes and effects of fear reality nature reason libidinal excess atheism critical discourse technological advances conspiracy terrorism capital punishment the diversity of cultures and the breakdown of civilisation as a whole most of all however they explore the various shades of fear itself
