evidenced through their respective popular cultures The key underlying assumption is that our collective popular expressions create an arena of global cultural exchange further precipitating new cultural adaptations expressions and connections The volume is divided into two sections The first consists of articles investigating theoretical and methodological approaches to the dynamics of history and cultural changes These include cultural anthropology history economics and sociology The second section is made up of explorations into a myriad of cultural practices and expressions that exemplify not only the wide diversity of popular cultures and their workings but also the interconnections between and within those cultural systems A wide variety of specific case studies are presented to evidence and support the more general points made in the previous section The collection demonstrates that the everyday lives of ordinary people while varying from culture to culture are unified through their expressions of shared humanity Foreword by Gary Hoppenstand      Pervasive Games Markus Montola, Jaakko Stenros, Annika Waern, 2009-06-12 Games are no longer confined to card tables and computer screens Emmy award winning games like The Fallen Alternate Reality Game based on the ABC show or The Lost Experience based on the CBS hit show are pervasive games in that they blur traditional boundaries of game play This book gives game designers the tools they need to create cutting edge pervasive games      Cross-Media Communications Drew Davidson, 2010 This text is an introduction to the future of mass media and mass communications cross media communications Cross media is explained through the presentation and analysis of contemporary examples and project based tutorials in cross media development The text introduces fundamental terms and concepts and provides a solid overview of cross media communications one that builds from a general introduction to a specific examination of media and genres to a discussion of the concepts involved in designing and developing cross media communications There is also an accompanying DVD ROM full of hands on exercises that shows how cross media can be applied For the DVD ROM <http://www.lulu.com/content/817927>      Magic, Monsters, and Make-Believe Heroes Douglas E. Cowan, 2019-01-29 Magic Monsters and Make Believe Heroes looks at fantasy film television and participative culture as evidence of our ongoing need for a mythic vision for stories larger than ourselves into which we write ourselves and through which we can become the heroes of our own story Why do we tell and retell the same stories over and over when we know they can't possibly be true Contrary to popular belief it's not because pop culture has run out of good ideas Rather it is precisely because these stories are so fantastic some resonating so deeply that we elevate them to the status of religion Illuminating everything from Buffy the Vampire Slayer to Dungeons and Dragons and from Drunken Master to Mad Max Douglas E Cowan offers a modern manifesto for why and how mythology remains a vital force today      Childhood in a Global Perspective Karen Wells, 2015-02-02 The second edition of this compelling and popular book offers a unique global perspective on children's lives throughout the world It shows how the notion of childhood is being radically re shaped in part as a consequence of globalization Taking an engaging historical and comparative approach the book explores social issues such as how children are constituted as raced classed and gendered subjects how children's
