consume services and enjoy experiences in space and time Performing Tourist Places Jørgen Ole Bærenholdt, Michael Haldrup, John Urry, 2017-05-16 This book looks at the making and the consuming of places in the contemporary world Illustrated through various case studies from Denmark it considers how places performances and peoples intersect It examines the fascinating circumstances through which visitors to a place in part produce that place through their performances Places are intertwined with people through various systems that generate and reproduce performances in and of that place These systems comprise networks of hosts guests buildings objects and machines that contingently realize particular performances of specific places The studies featured here develop an exciting new mobility paradigm emerging within the social sciences Heritage of Death Mattias Frihammar, Helaine Silverman, 2017-11-28 Today death is being reconceptualised around the world as heritage replete with material markers and intangible performances These heritages of death are personal national and international They are vernacular as well as official sanctioned as well as alternative This book brings together more than twenty international scholars to consider the heritage of death from spatial political religious economic cultural aesthetic and emotive aspects It showcases different attitudes and phases of death and their relationship to heritage through ethnographically informed case studies to illustrate both general patterns and local and national variations Through analyses of material expressions and social practices of grief mourning and remembrance this book shows not only what death means in contemporary societies but also how individuals groups and nations act towards death New Research Paradigms in Tourism Geography Alan A. Lew, 2017-10-02 This collection of papers from Tourism Geographies emphasizes new and emerging research paradigms in the geographic study of tourism The papers included in this collection follow one of two threads explicitly supporting specific research frameworks or implicitly presenting new and emerging theoretical perspectives through empirical research on the geographical topics These begin with three overview papers from themes that emerged from recent annual meetings of the Association of American Geographers including evolutionary economic geography EEG political ecology and community resilience Each of these theoretical and conceptual frameworks is leading to new explorations and insights in a wide variety of geographical and social science research including tourism studies These are followed by a series of papers that extend our knowledge and thinking on a range of key geographical topics including development and underdevelopment by Saarinen Rogerson sustainable tourism planning by Torres Delgado Saarinen encounters with the natural environment by Hill and the geography of place names by Light as well as economic geography and new technologies and their applications to spatial behavior research The papers in this special issue are especially relevant to tourism scholars and very much represent the types of perspectives that Tourism Geographies seek to promote This book was published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Die Fabrik als touristische Attraktion Daniela Mysliwietz-Fleiß, 2019-12-09 Während Fabriken in der Früh- und Hochindustrialisierung weitgehend als distinkte Sphären der Arbeit galten die vom Mittelstand so weit wie möglich gemieden wurden zog es Ende des 19. Jahrhunderts immer mehr

Besucherinnen und Besucher aus dem B rgerum in die industriellen Produktionsst tten Die Fabriken wandelten sich durch dieses Interesse von einem Ort der Produktion zu einer touristischen Attraktion Daniela Mysliwietz Flei arbeitet nicht nur erstmals den Ursprung der noch heute u erst beliebten Betriebsbesichtigungen in Unternehmen verschiedener Branchen auf sondern verkn pft zudem die Tourismus mit der Mentalit tsgeschichte des deutschen B rgerums Die Arbeit wurde 2021 mit dem Conrad Matscho Preis f r Technikgeschichte ausgezeichnet Der Verein Deutscher Ingenieure e V zeichnet mit diesem Preis hervorragende Arbeiten aus die technikhistorische Fragen und ihre Relevanz einem weiten Rezipientenkreis n her bringen und innovative Beitr ge zur Disziplin leisten Cultural Tourism Hilary du Cros,Bob McKercher,2020-04-19

Cultural Tourism remains the only book to bridge the gap between cultural tourism and cultural and heritage management The first edition illustrated how heritage and tourism goals can be integrated in a management and marketing framework to produce sustainable cultural tourism The current edition takes this further to base the discussion of cultural tourism in the theory and practice of cultural and heritage management CM and CHM under the understanding that for tourism to thrive a balanced approach to the resource base it uses must be maintained An umbrella approach to cultural tourism represents a unique feature of the book proposing solutions to achieve an optimal outcome for all sectors Reflecting the many important developments in the field this new edition has been completely revised and updated in the following ways New content on increasingly relevant topics including sustainability climate change the threat of de globalization overtourism and social media New sections on experience creation accessibility and inclusivity as well as expanded material on creative industries and new management challenges New international case studies and tried and tested assignment exercises have been added to every chapter Written by experts in both tourism and cultural heritage management this book will enable professionals and students to gain a better understanding of their own and each other s roles in achieving sustainable cultural tourism It provides a blueprint for producing top quality long term cultural tourism products Tourist Attractions Johan R.

Edelheim,2015 Tourist attractions constitute the metaphorical heart of tourism This book aims to both deconstruct and construct what tourist attractions are how we perceive them and how we can enhance our understanding of what attracts us as tourists The volume reaches beyond current ideas about the ways tourist attractions are created shaped and packaged It focuses on the importance and subjective nature of identity memory narrative and performance in the tourist experience to find new ways of analysing and managing tourist attractions The book will appeal to researchers and students in tourism and destination management and heritage and indigenous tourism Journal of Travel Research ,2010-02 Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda,Jennie Germann Molz,2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive

element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Tourism Enterprise David Leslie, 2014-11-26 The environmental quality and popularity of any tourist destination is the outcome of sustained development shaped by the socio economic and physical dimensions of the local environment Protecting the living landscape requires recognizing promoting and developing the links between economic social and environmental objectives This book therefore examines the tourism business in terms of greening the local economy people and environment establishing the green agenda and investigating its application to the tourism sector American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Tourism: Tourism, development and sustainability Stephen Williams, 2004 This collection of key articles from the most influential journals and books in the field examines what social scientists mean by the term tourism and what it means to be a tourist Carefully selected and introduced by the editor this material charts the sociological changes that have occurred in tourism and the change from the upper class grand tours of the late nineteenth century to the mass tourism of the present day The collection also assesses the economic impacts of tourism on local economies environmental considerations and whether the growth of tourism is sustainable in a post September 11th world Tourism Critical Concepts in the Social Sciences is an accessible and comprehensive resource designed for academics and scholars researching in tourism globalization and human geography Tourism, Terrorism and Security Maximiliano E. Korstanje, Hugues Seraphin, 2020-09-07 International tourism has been a target for terrorist agents seeking to cause political instability and economic disruption in the West This book lays the foundations of a new understanding of tourism security by discussing the nature of tourism tourists and terrorists
