Spiritual Leadership in the Pattern of Gideon Theodore Andoseh, 1901 Many people long for nominative leadership but very few people qualify for intrinsic leadership When we are first introduced to Gideon we see a faint hearted grain farmer sneaking around like a coward hiding in a winepress He was the most unlikely of potential candidates for spiritual leadership What kind of people does God choose and use to do His work Throughout Scripture we see unnervingly real men and women who faltered struggled and at times fell short In the words of John MacArthur God worked through them in surprising and incredible ways to accomplish His purposes Scripture does not hide their weaknesses caricature their strengths or spin their stories as a display of human nobility Instead it describes these leaders of God s people with unflinching honesty and delivers an unexpected ending God is not ashamed to be called their God Hebrews 11:16 In Spiritual Leadership in the Pattern of Gideon Pastor Theodore Andoseh takes us back to see the times call ordination work and perils of leadership in the life of Gideon a weak man made strong In doing so it becomes clear how his story applies in our days to anyone who aspires to emerge as a leader of God s people what did Gideon do to qualify for leadership what did he do as a leader what was involved in his leadership what were the perils or dangers encountered during his leadership In this book you will see God at work in unexpected ways in what went into the making of Gideon s call and the timely lessons on the emergence of intrinsic spiritual leadership
