Period Furniture Handbook:

The Period Furniture Handbook G. Glen Gould, 2015-07-20 Excerpt from The Period Furniture Handbook What we need in order to form an accurate conception of the style of furniture of any particular period is facts and not an expression of a writer's personal feeling either in preference for any particular style or detestation of it Unhappily the ability to enjoy what is delightful in every period is not common The critic who knows everything there is to be known about every one of the period styles is not always as wise a guide as one who has that God-given ability to select unerringly what is best in each There is not a single one of the period styles which has not some excellent examples of furniture design and craftsmanship to its credit To discredit the Baroque or the Rococo the Empire or the Victorian in order to exalt the Gothic or the Renaissance is silly Each incorporates its own ideas of suitability dignity decoration and comfort The pomp and state of the rectangular types in Europe and America prior to the 18th Century all count for nothing when you drop at nightfall into your easy chair if it is easy And you can be grateful enough for that welcome over stuffing of seat and back and arms which enfolds you with a restfulness achieved only in the Victoria era About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Period Furniture Handbook George Glen Gould, Florence Holden Gould, 1928 The Period Furniture Handbook George Glen Gould, Florence C.
