Perles Dafrique:

Beads of life Marie-Louise Labelle, 2005-01-01 Beads of Life is a fascinating exploration of traditional beadwork from eastern and southern Africa as well as the socio religious principles upon which many aesthetic choices were based The author concludes with an examination of contemporary beadwork as seen in particular through the eyes of Canadians from these regions Published in English Sharma Axelle Rougeulle, 2015-09-30 Excavation reports from the medieval port of Sharma discovered in 1996 at the extremity of the Ra s Sharma 50km east of al Shihr on the Hadramawt coast of Yemen

Continent of Mothers, Continent of Hope Torild Skard, 2003-06-14 Cutting through the Western media s stereotype picture of Africa as a continent wracked only by civil conflict and AIDS Torild Skard has written an engrossing introduction to a continent in change Based on her extensive travels through the region Skard combines eyewitness accounts lively description and deeply informed insight to portray the human reality of Africa today With honesty cultural sensitivity and a commitment especially to women she frankly describes the social health and other problems experienced by its people but also the sources of hope for the future represented by courageous individuals community level projects and programs being implemented in the region Anthology of French lyric poetry Charles Edmund Young, 1925 French Lyrics: Selected And Edited With An Introduction And Notes Arthur Graves Canfield, 2025-08-18 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Saharan Crossroads Tara F. Deubel, H  l  ne Tiss    res, Scott M. Youngstedt, 2014-06-26 Saharan Crossroads Exploring Historical Cultural and Artistic Linkages between North and West Africa counteracts the traditional scholarly conception of the Sahara Desert as an impenetrable barrier dividing the continent by employing an interdisciplinary lens to examine myriad interconnections between North and West Africa through travel trade communication cultural exchange and correspondence that have been ongoing for several millennia Saharan Crossroads offers a unique contribution to existing scholarship on the region by uniting a diverse group of African European and American scholars working on various facets of trans Saharan history social life and cultural production and bringing their work together for the first time This trilingual volume includes eleven chapters written in English five chapters in French and three chapters in Arabic reflecting the multicultural nature of the Sahara and this international project Saharan Crossroads explores historical and contemporary connections and exchanges between populations living in and on both sides of the Sahara that have led to the emergence of distinctive cultural and aesthetic expressions This contact has been fostered by a series of linkages that include the trans Saharan caravan trade the spread of Islam the migration of nomadic pastoralists and European colonization The book includes three major sections 1 history culture and identity 2 trans Saharan circulation of arts music ritual performance and architecture and 3 religion law language and writing While the gaze of international political analysts has turned toward the Sahara to follow problematic developments that pose serious threats to human rights and security in the region it is especially timely to recall that the people and countries of the Sahelo Saharan world have maintained long histories of peaceful coexistence interdependence and cooperation that are too often overlooked in the present French Lyrics Arthur Graves Canfield,1899 Select
