Perplexities Of Identification Anthropological Studies In Cultural Differentiation And The Use Of Resources:

Perplexities of Identification Henk Driessen, Ton Otto, 2000 This text explores how identities emerge persist and change and which power resources are tapped in the course of this process

Reflections on Identity in Four African Cities S. B. Bekker, Anne Leildé, 2006 Identity has become the watchword of our times In sub Saharan Africa this certainly appears to be true and for particular reasons Africa is urbanising rapidly cross border migration streams are swelling and globalising influences sweep across the continent Africa is also facing up to the challenge of nurturing emergent democracies in which citizens often feel torn between older traditional and newer national loyalties Accordingly collective identities are deeply coloured by recent urban as well as international experience and are squarely located within identity politics where reconciliation is required between state nation building strategies and sub national affiliations They are also fundamentally shaped by the growing inequality and the poverty found on this continent These themes are explored by an international set of scholars in two South African and two Francophone cities The relative importance to urban residents of race class and ethnicity but also of work space and language are compared in these cities This volume also includes a chapter investigating the emergence of a continental African identity A recent report of the Office of the South African President claims that a strong national identity is emerging among its citizens and that race and ethnicity are waning whilst a class identity is in the ascendance The evidence and analyses within this volume serve to gauge the extent to which such claims ring true in what everyone knows is a much more complex and shifting terrain of shared meanings than can ever be captured by such generalisations

Globalization and Development Don Kalb, Wil Pansters, Hans Siebers, 2004-06-24 This book is a collective effort by researchers affiliated with the CERES Research School in Development Studies in the Netherlands These experts discuss themes and concepts crucial to the overlapping fields of globalization and development research Individual chapters examine the notions and issues of globalization livelihood identity governance transnationalism and knowledge

The Modern Anthropology of India Peter Berger, Frank Heidemann, 2013-06-03 The Modern Anthropology of India is an accessible textbook providing a critical overview of the ethnographic work done in India since 1947 It assesses the history of research in each region and serves as a practical and comprehensive guide to the main themes dealt with by ethnographers It highlights key analytical concepts and paradigms that came to be of relevance in particular regions in the recent history of research in India and which possibly gained a pan Indian or even trans Indian significance Structured according to the states of the Indian union contributors raise several key questions including What themes were ethnographers interested in What are the significant ethnographic contributions How are peoples communities and cultural areas represented How has the ethnographic research in the area developed Filling a significant gap in the literature the book is an invaluable resource to students and researchers in the field of Indian anthropology ethnography regional anthropology and postcolonial studies It is also of interest to students of South Asian studies in general as it provides an extensive and critical overview of regionally based ethnographic activity undertaken in India      The Anthropology of News and Journalism S. Elizabeth Bird, 2010 This title explores the role of news and journalism in contemporary culture from an anthropological perspective Essays by leading scholars look at communities of professional and nonprofessional journalists

Warfare and Society Ton Otto, Henrik Thrane, Helle Vandkilde, 2006-11-01 This book straddles the disciplines of archaeology and social anthropology Its 25 contributions divided into 6 sections with separate introductions successively scrutinise the concept of war in philosophy social theory and the history of anthropological and archaeological research discuss warfare in pre state and state societies and assess its relationship to rituals social identification and material culture

Post-War Identification Torsten Kolind, 2008-11-12 Stolac the town of departure for this book and the site where the author conducted fieldwork is located in the south western corner of Bosnia Herzegovina The war in Bosnia Herzegovina 1992-95 was initially an act of aggression and territorial conquest instigated by Serbian political leaders However as the war progressed it increasingly came to consist of several minor wars one of them fought in Western Bosnia Herzegovina between Croatian and Muslim forces This was the one that affected the inhabitants of Stolac the most Before the war ethnic identity in Bosnia Herzegovina was only one identity among others and ethnic differences were embedded in everyday practices Today ethnic difference is all there is The Muslims of Stolac are fully aware that as Muslims they constitute a totally separate group and that ethnic identity is by far the most important form of identity in present day Bosnia Herzegovina In that regard the nationalist project has succeeded Such a crystallisation and explication of identity fits in well with the structurally inspired anthropology of war and violence which theorises that the function of violence is to create unambiguous identities However Post War Identities shows that for the Muslims of Stolac the creation of unambiguous ethnic identities is only half the story

The Wheel of Autonomy Felix Girke, 2018-08-17 How do the Kara a small population residing on the eastern bank of the Omo River in southern Ethiopia manage to be neither annexed nor exterminated by any of the larger groups that surround them Through the theoretical lens of rhetoric this book offers an interactionalist analysis of how the Kara negotiate ethnic and non ethnic differences among themselves the relations with their various neighbors and eventually their integration in the Ethiopian state The model of the Wheel of Autonomy captures the interplay of distinction agency and autonomy that drives these dynamics and offers an innovative perspective on social relations      Making Aboriginal Men and Music in Central Australia Ase Ottosson, 2020-05-31 This detailed ethnographic study explores the intercultural crafting of contemporary forms of Aboriginal manhood in the world of country rock and reggae music making in Central Australia Focusing on four different musical contexts an Aboriginal recording studio remote Aboriginal settlements small non indigenous towns and tours beyond the musicians homeland the author challenges existing scholarly political and popular understandings of Australian Aboriginal music men and related indigenous matters in terms of radical social cultural and racial difference Based on extensive anthropological field research among Aboriginal rock country and reggae musicians in small towns and remote desert settlements in Central Australia the book investigates how Aboriginal musicians experience and articulate various aspects of their male and indigenous sense of selves as they make music and engage with indigenous and non indigenous people practices places and sets of values Making Aboriginal Men and Music is a highly original intimate study which advances our understanding of contemporary indigenous and male identity formation within Aboriginal Australian society Providing new analytical insights for scholars and students in fields such as social and cultural anthropology cultural studies popular music and gender studies this engaging text makes a significant contribution to the study of indigenous identity formation in remote Australia and beyond Tibetan Medicine in the Contemporary World

Laurent Pordié,2012-08-21 The popularity of Tibetan medicine plays a central role in the international market for alternative medicine and has been increasing and extending far beyond its original cultural area becoming a global phenomenon This book analyses Tibetan medicine in the 21st century by considering the contemporary reasons that have led to its diversity and by bringing out the common orientations of this medical system Using case studies that examine of the social political and identity dynamics of Tibetan medicine in Nepal India the PRC Mongolia the UK and the US the contributors to this book answer the following three fundamental questions What are the modalities and issues involved in the social and therapeutic transformations of Tibetan medicine How are national policies and health reforms connected to the processes of contemporary redefinition of this medicine How does Tibetan medicine fit into the present globalized context of the medical world Written by experts in the field from the US France Canada China and the UK this book will be invaluable to students and scholars interested in contemporary medicine Tibetan studies health studies and the anthropology of Asia Winner of the ICAS Colleagues Choice Award 2009 Trade and Contemporary Society Along the Silk Road Jacqueline H.

Fewkes,2008-10-27 This book analyses the trade system in Ladakh India a busy entrep t for Silk Route trade between Central and South Asia The author s research combines anthropological historical and archaeological methods of investigation to present a cultural history of South Central Asia Strangers Either Way Jasna Čapo,2007 Croatia gained the world s attention during the break up of Yugoslavia in the early 1990s In this context its image has been overshadowed by visions of ethnic conflict and cleansing war crimes virulent nationalism and occasionally even emergent regionalism Instead of the norm this book offers a diverse insight into Croatia in the 1990s by dealing with one of the consequences of the war the more or less forcible migration of Croats from Serbia and their settlement in Croatia their ethnic homeland This important study shows that at a time in which Croatia was perceived as a homogenized nation in the making there were tensions and ruptures within Croatian society caused by newly arrived refugees and displaced persons from Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina Refugees who in spite of their common ethnicity with the homeland population were treated as foreigners indeed as unwanted aliens Rendering Houses in Ladakh Sophie Day,2023-05-30 Sophie Day explores the houses that are imagined built repurposed and dismantled among different communities in Ladakh drawing attention to the ways in which houses are like and unlike people A handful of in depth house portraits are selected for the insight they provide into major regional developments based on the author s extended engagement since 1981 Most of these houses are Buddhist and associated with the town of Leh Drawing on both image and text collaborative methods for assembling material show the intricate relationships between people and places over the life course Innovative methods for recording and archiving such as storyboards are developed to frame different views of the house This approach raises analytical questions about the composition of life within and beyond storyboards offering new ways to understand a region that intrigues specialists and non specialists alike Shifting Images of Identity in the Pacific Toon van Meijl,2021-10-25 This book examines how identities emerge persist and change in various Pacific societies The shifting images of identity are explored in pre colonial colonial as well as post colonial circumstances All the essays in this volume address both continuity and discontinuity in the construction of identities in the rapidly changing Pacific region A region increasingly characterized by state formation processes and global influences The introduction provides a theoretical analysis of the changing paradigm in the study of identity over recent decades This is exemplified with a comparative overview of the emergence of a constructivist approach of culture tradition and identity in Pacific studies Nine ethnographic contributions subsequently address the central question from a variety of different angles Some chapters focus on classic topics such as migration and myth while others deal with indigenous peoples in modern nation states tourism economic development global consumerism or electronic communication The societies in question range from relatively isolated groups to communities living dispersed around the globe Each chapter provides valuable insights into the processes of identity in the Pacific over time An epilogue provides a comparative reading of the different theoretical solutions that have been proposed to make sense of the shifting images of identity in the contemporary increasingly transnational Pacific Religion and the Decline of Fertility in the Western World Renzo

Derosas,Frans van Poppel,2006-10-05 1 RELIGION AND THE DECLINE OF FERTILITY IN THE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURIES THE EMERGENCE OF A RESEARCH ISSUE During the last quarter of the nineteenth century almost all European countries began to experience a decline in their fertility level This transition was recognized as crucial almost from its inception and provided a strong stimulus for the scientific study of fertility until then there had been no apparent trend toward a decline in fertility with the exception of France and differentials in fertility had not been very conspicuous Lorimer 1959 142 Handbooks and articles on population mainly of a statistical demographic nature took up the question of falling birth rates and its causes The bases for these studies were the routinely collected population statistics that made it possible to observe fertility trends for administrative regions By identifying administrative regions that differed in the timing and extent of the fertility decline researchers hoped to find explanations for the fertility transition Municipal statistical offices in larger cities such as Berlin Vienna Budapest and Amsterdam were able to obtain more diversified data than were generally collected by national agencies and offered social scientists the opportunity to carry out more intensive investigations of differential fertility that is of variations in fertility of socially defined subpopulations or categories defined by occupation or rural urban residence Somewhat later the national statistical agencies started to collect and publish comparable data at the national level Modern Ladakh Martijn van Beek, Fernanda Pirie, 2008-07-31 The modern history of Ladakh has been profoundly shaped by influences from South Asia and beyond In detailed empirical case studies the contributors document and analyse change and continuities in this region brought about by colonialism independence and modernisation In an introductory review essay highlighting emerging themes and continuing debates in the scholarship on Ladakh the editors argue for the need to situate Ladakh in an Indian and South Asian context while also taking into account its cultural linguistic and historical ties with Tibet Studies from the neighbouring sub regions of Kargil Ladakh Zangskar and Baltistan are brought together to make an important contribution to the anthropological and sociological literature on development and modernity as well as to Ladakh Tibetan and South Asian studies Gender, Nation and Religion in

European Pilgrimage Catrinen Notermans, 2016-04-22 Despite the forces of secularization in Europe old pilgrimage routes are attracting huge numbers of people and given new meanings in the process In pilgrimage religious or spiritual meanings are interwoven with social cultural and politico strategic concerns This book explores three such concerns under intense debate in Europe gender and sexual emancipation trans national identities in the context of migration and European unification and religious identifications in a changing religious landscape The interdisciplinary contributions to this book explore a range of such controversies and issues including Africans renewing family ties at Lourdes Swedish women at midlife or young English men testing their strength on the Camino to Santiago de Compostela New Age pilgrims and sexuality Saints festivals in Spain and Brittany conservative Catholics challenging Europe s liberal policies on abortion Polish migrants and French Algerians reconfiguring their transnational identity by transporting their familiar Madonna to their new home new sacred spaces created such as the shrine of Our Lady of Santa Cruz traditional Christian saints such as Mary Magdalene given new meanings as new age goddess and foundation legends of shrines revived by new visionaries Pilgrimage sites function as nodes in intersecting networks of religious discourses geographical routes and political preoccupations which become stages for playing out the boundaries between home and abroad Muslims and Christians pilgrimage and tourism Europe and the world This book shows how the old routes of Europe are offering inspirational opportunities for making new journeys Cargo, Cult, and Culture Critique Holger Jebens, 2004-01-01 This collection of original essays is based on fieldwork in Melanesia Fiji Australia and Indonesia by scholars who are influential in the contemporary debate on cargo cults

Crossing a Line Amahl Bishara, 2022-06-21 Palestinians living on different sides of the Green Line make up approximately one fifth of Israeli citizens and about four fifths of the population of the West Bank In both groups activists assert that they share a single political struggle for national liberation Yet obstacles inhibit their ability to speak to each other and as a collective Geopolitical boundaries fragment Palestinians into ever smaller groups Crossing a Line enters these distinct environments for political expression and action of Palestinians who carry Israeli citizenship and Palestinians subject to Israeli military occupation in the West Bank and considers how Palestinians are differently impacted by dispossession settler colonialism and militarism Amahl Bishara looks to sites of political practice journalism historical commemorations street demonstrations social media in prison and on the road to analyze how Palestinians create collectivities in these varied circumstances She draws on firsthand research personal interviews and public media to examine how people shape and reshape meanings in circumstances of constraint In considering these different environments for political expression and action Bishara illuminates how expression is always grounded in place and how a people can struggle together for liberation even when they cannot join together in protest Restoring the Balance Ien Courtens, 2012-12-11 Who made Mama Raja ill This question buzzing around the village starts off this anthropological study on healing performances in the context of religious change The fascinating case is presented of a seriously ill woman of high standing in northwest Ayfat located in the interior of the Bird s Head in West Papua By unravelling the various explanations of the cause of the illness and the path Mama Raja followed in search of healing the author documents how why and when Papuan people make their choices in their search for healing The study offers an ethnographically rich journey through the variety of healing methods in current Ayfat society indigenous obtained during female and male initiation rites biomedical the missionary hospital and Christian created by ritual healers since the coming of the missionaries Likewise the causes ascribed to illness range from sorcery witchcraft violation of ancestral or biblical rules to biomedical conditions a multiplicity of ways of understanding illness and healing that emerged in the context of religious change Making choices among the variety of healing performances and the creation of new performances are shown to be dynamic processes At the core are the innovative contributions of local healers particularly women who chose to create new performances in the face of religious change Restoring the Balance looks at indigenous and Christian religious practices and how people in northwest Ayfat have found a way to integrate the two and bring both sides into balance This book will be highly useful to anthropologists and others interested in Melanesian and eastern Indonesian cultures healing spiritual healing or religious change It would make an attractive case study for university courses at any level
