Non-Semitic Loanwords in the Hebrew Bible Benjamin J. Noonan, 2019-10-29 Ancient Palestine served as a land bridge between the continents of Asia Africa and Europe and as a result the ancient Israelites frequently interacted with speakers of non-Semitic languages including Egyptian Greek Hittite and Luwian Hurrian Old Indic and Old Iranian This linguistic contact led the ancient Israelites to adopt non-Semitic words many of which appear in the Hebrew Bible Benjamin J. Noonan explores this process in Non-Semitic Loanwords in the Hebrew Bible which presents a comprehensive up to date and linguistically informed analysis of the Hebrew Bible's non-Semitic terminology In this volume Noonan identifies all the Hebrew Bible's foreign loanwords and presents them in the form of an annotated lexicon An appendix to the book analyzes words commonly proposed to be non-Semitic that are in fact Semitic along with the reason for considering them as such Noonan's study enriches our understanding of the lexical semantics of the Hebrew Bible's non-Semitic terminology which leads to better translation and exegesis of the biblical text It also enhances our linguistic understanding of the ancient world in that the linguistic features it discusses provide significant insight into the phonology orthography and morphology of the languages of the ancient Near East Finally by tying together linguistic evidence with textual and archaeological data this work extends our picture of ancient Israel's interactions with non-Semitic peoples A valuable resource for biblical scholars historians archaeologists and others interested in linguistic and cultural contact between the ancient Israelites and non-Semitic peoples this book provides significant insight into foreign contact in ancient Israel New Voices in Iranian Archaeology Karim Alizadeh, Megan Cifarelli, 2025-02-28 In championing the work of local scholars especially female this volume begins to fill a politically imposed lacuna in the English language reporting of high quality research in one of the most formative regions for the development of human civilization This volume highlights the excellent wide ranging work of a diverse collection of Iranian archaeologists the new voices in Iranian archaeology Archaeology in Iran has developed in lockstep with the discipline of archaeology itself in part due to the colonial endeavors that provided impetus for Europeans to travel to distant lands and extract antiquities and other commodities But centuries before western archaeologists broke ground on excavations in the lands that would in 1935 be called Iran a deep and meaningful engagement with and reverence for the past was a thread running through Iranian culture since antiquity For millennia the residents and rulers of ancient Iranian lands have admired interacted with inscribed invented stories about and imitated the visible often ruined monuments of their ancestors that dotted the landscape Following numerous interruptions in the twentieth century occasioned by revolution war and the geopolitical climate Iranian archaeology has experienced a resurgence and these papers offer case studies on the archaeological and scientific sophistication of the work currently being done in Iran by Iranian archaeologists As a collection these papers show the chronological and geographical breadth of archaeology in Iran with papers analyzing the earliest evidence for human object interaction in the Paleolithic era the bustling medieval cities and their hinterlands and many stages in between The case studies deliberately highlight archaeological work across the entirety of the vast and varied geography of Iran from the fertile plains of Fars in the southwest to the rugged Zagros Mountains in the northwest from the peaks of the Elburz Mountains south of the Caspian Sea across the broad expanse of the Plateau to the eastern regions bordering Afghanistan and Turkmenistan This volume also features the work of many women in Iranian archaeology a testament to the expansion and evolution of the field and its participants in Iran In sum these papers demonstrate the commitment of a new generation of Iranian archeologists to their land s diverse and complex past
