Persian and Arabic Literary Communities in the Seventeenth Century James White, 2023-06-15 Shortlisted for the 2024 British Kuwait Friendship Society Book Prize A wealth of scholarship has highlighted how commercial political and religious networks expanded across the Arabian Sea during the seventeenth century as merchants from South Asia traded goods in the ports of Yemen noblemen from Safavid Iran established themselves in the courts of the Mughal Empire and scholars from across the region came together to debate the Islamic sciences in the Arabian Peninsula's holy cities of Mecca and Medina This book demonstrates that the globalising tendency of migration created worldly literary systems which linked Iran India and the Arabian Peninsula through the production and circulation of classicizing Arabic and Persian poetry By close reading over seventy unstudied manuscripts of seventeenth century Arabic and Persian poetry that have remained hidden on the shelves of libraries in India Iran Turkey and Europe the book examines how migrant poets adapted shared poetic forms imagery and rhetoric to engage with their interlocutors and create communities in the cities where they settled The book begins by reconstructing overarching patterns in the movement of over a thousand authors and the economic basis for their migration before focusing on six case studies of literary communities which each represent a different location in the circulatory system of the Arabian Sea In so doing the book demonstrates the plurality of seventeenth century aesthetic movements a diversity which later nationalisms purposefully simplified and misread

The Coming of the Mongols David O. Morgan, Sarah Stewart, 2017-11-16 The Mongol invasions in the first half of the thirteenth century led to profound and shattering changes to the historical trajectory of Islamic West Asia As this new volume in The Idea of Iran series suggests sudden conquest from the east was preceded by events closer to home which laid the groundwork for the later Mongol success In the mid twelfth century the Seljuq empire rapidly unravelled its vast provinces fragmenting into a patchwork of mostly short lived principalities and kingdoms In time new powers emerged such as the pagan Qara Khitai in Central Asia the Khwarazmshahs in Khwarazm Khorosan and much of central Iran and the Ghurids to the southeast Yet all were blown away by the Mongols who faced no resistance from a sufficiently muscular imperial competitor and whose influx was viewed by contemporaries as cataclysmic Distinguished scholars including David O Morgan and the late C E Bosworth here discuss the dynasties that preceded the invasion and aspects of their literature poetry and science as well as the conquerors themselves and their rule in Iran from 1219 to 1256

Alexander the Great in the Persian Tradition Haila Manteghi, 2018-02-28 Alexander the Great 356 333 BC was transformed into a legend by all those he met leaving an enduring tradition of romances across the world Aside from its penetration into every language of medieval Europe the Alexander romance arguably had its greatest impact in the Persian language Haila Manteghi here offers a complete survey of that deep tradition ranging from analysis of classical Persian poetry to popular romances and medieval Arabic historiography She explores how the Greek work first entered the Persian literary tradition and traces the development of its influence before revealing the remarkable way in which Alexander became as central to the Persian tradition as any other hero or king And importantly by focusing on the often overlooked early medieval Persian period she also demonstrates that a positive view of Alexander developed in Arabic and Persian literature before the Islamic era Drawing on an impressive range of sources in various languages including Persian Arabic and Greek Manteghi provides a profound new contribution to the study of the Alexander romances Beautifully written and with vibrant literary motifs this book is important reading for all those with an interest in Alexander classical and medieval Persian history the early Islamic world and classical reception studies

Rulers as Authors in the Islamic World, 2024-02-06 How widespread was authorship among rulers in the premodern Islamic world? The writings of different types of rulers in different regions and periods are analyzed in this book from the early centuries in the central lands of Islam to 19th-century Sudan. The composition of poetry appears as the most fertile area for authorship among rulers. Prose writings show a wide variety from astrology to bookmaking, from autobiography to creeds. Some of the rulers made claims to special knowledge but in all cases authorship played a special role in the construction of the ruler's authority and legitimacy. Catalogue of the Persian Manuscripts in the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences Benedek Péri, 2018-05-29 The Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences was established in 1826. Its collection of Persian manuscripts is the most comprehensive set of its kind in Hungary. The volumes were produced in four major cultural centres of the Persianate world: the Ottoman Empire, Iran, Central Asia, and India, during a span of time that extends from the 14th to the 19th century. Collected mainly by enthusiastic private collectors and acknowledged scholars, the manuscripts have preserved several unique texts or otherwise interesting copies of well-known works. Though the bulk of the collection has been part of library holdings for almost a century, the present volume is the first one to describe these manuscripts in a detailed and systematic way.

Urbanisation, Citizenship and Conflict in India Tommaso Bobbio, 2015-06-19 Urbanisation is rapidly changing the geographic and social landscape of India and indeed Asia as a whole. Issues of collective violence, urban poverty and discrimination become crucial factors in the redefinition of citizenship not only in legal terms but also in a cultural and socio-economic dimension. While Indian cities are becoming the centres of a culture of exclusion against vulnerable social groups, a long-term perspective is essential to understand the patterns that shaped the space, politics, economy and culture of contemporary metropolises. This book takes a critical longer-term view of India's economic transition. The idea that urban growth goes hand in hand with the modernisation of the country does not account for the fact that increasingly higher portions of the urban population are comprised of lower income groups, casual labourers and slum dwellers. Using the case study of Ahmedabad, this book investigates the history of the city and of its people over the twentieth century. It analyses the contrasting relationship between urban authorities and the inhabitants of Ahmedabad and examines instances of antagonism and negotiation amongst people groups and between the people and the public authority that have continuously shaped, transformed and redefined life in the city. This book offers an important tool for understanding the bigger context of the conflicts, the social and cultural issues that accompanied the broader process of urbanisation in contemporary India. It will be of interest to scholars of Urban History, studies of collective violence and South Asian Studies.

Islamic Law and Society in Iran Nobuaki Kondo, 2017-03-31 This is the first book on the relationship between Islamic law and the Iranian society during the nineteenth century. The author explores the legal aspects of urban society in Iran and provides the social context in which political process occurred and examines how authorities applied law in society, how people utilized the law and how the law regulated society. Based on rich archival sources including court records and private deeds from Qajar Tehran, this book explores how Islamic law functioned in Iranian society.
