The Qesse-ye Sanjān is the sole surviving account of the emigration of Zoroastrians from Iran to India to form the Parsi-Persian community

Written in Persian couplets in India in 1599 by a Zoroastrian priest it is a work many know of but few have actually read let alone studied in depth

This book provides a romanised transcription from the oldest manuscripts an elegant metrical translation detailed commentary and most importantly a radical new theory of how such a text should be read i.e. not as a historical chronicle but as a charter of Zoroastrian identity foundation myth and justification of the Parsi presence in India

The book fills a lacuna that has been acutely felt for a long time

Persian Literary Devices: Eight Essays Alireza Korangy, Pouneh Shabani-Jadidi, 2024-09-24

This volume offers a glimpse into the rich tradition of literary devices in Persian language and literature It establishes an incontrovertible connection between literary devices figurative language rhetoric and so on and pedagogy and poetics in both written and oral expression The essays offer a detailed and thorough overview of some of these literary devices and their dynamics which have helped make the Persian literary tradition a force to reckon with The essays also carve out a space dedicated to colloquialisms and idioms as they are interwoven into the fabric of Persian culture within the larger field of rhetoric These devices are fostered and furthered in their potency both culturally and linguistically by the poets writers and rhetoricians who utilize them The essays highlight a culture and history in texts and oral history that further speak to a culturally tailored complexity as per figurative language idioms colloquialisms and therhetoric they help found and or re define These discussions and analyses further facilitate an understanding of the epistemological and cultural meaning of some of the constituents of what is otherwise a Persian identity This work is a must have for scholars and students of Persian Arabic Ottoman and Urdu literature not to mention Middle Eastern history and cultural poetics enthusiasts Kashmiri Literature Braj B.
