Persian Painting 1st Edition:

Wonders of Creation and the Singularities of Painting Stefano Carboni, 2020-03-31 A beautifully illustrated study of Al Qazwini's 14th century illustrated Arabic copy of a cosmographic encyclopedia entitled The Wonders of Creation and the Oddities of Existing Things and the first ever translations of the text into English

The Ardabil Carpets Rexford Stead, 1974-01-01 The richness of Near Eastern art is epitomized by sixteenth and seventeenth century Persian carpets. Among the finest ever produced the two Ardabil carpets are believed to have been made as offerings for the Shrine of Sheikh Safi at Ardabil during the Safavid dynasty in sixteenth century Persia. In this text Rexford Stead, deputy director of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, explores the intricacies of the Ardabil carpets, one formerly in the Getty Museum and now in the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the other in the Victoria and Albert Museum, London. A bibliography and exhibition history are included.

The Monumental Inscriptions from Early Islamic Iran and Transoxiana Sheila Blair, 2024-04-02 Inscriptions on buildings are a distinctive feature of Islamic architecture and this book studies the 79 surviving monumental inscriptions in the Iranian world from the first five centuries of the Muslim era A.D. 622-1106, the period in which all the major trends of monumental epigraphy in the area were set. These foundation, commemorative, and funerary texts come from the region between Iraq and Soviet Central Asia. Written primarily in Arabic, they embellished architectural monuments and furnishings whose nature implies the construction of major buildings. An extended introduction discusses such general topics as titulature, patronage, and stylistic development. Each text is then presented individually with photographs, drawings, transcriptions, translations, and an extensive commentary which presents the inscription in its larger palaeographic and historical contexts.

Occidental Perceptions of European Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Persian Travel Diaries Vahid Vahdat, 2017-03-31 In the midst of Europe's nineteenth century industrial revolution, four men embarked on separate journeys to the wondrous Farangistan, a land of fascinating objects, mysterious technologies, heavenly women, and magical spaces. Determined to learn the secret of Farangistan's advancements, the travelers kept detailed records of their observations. These diaries mapped an aspirational path to progress for curious Iranian audiences who were eager to change the course of history. Two hundred years later, Travels in Farangi Space unpacks these writings to reveal a challenging new interpretation of Iran's experience of modernity. This book opens the Persian travelers' long forgotten suitcases and analyzes the descriptions contained within to gain insight into Occidental perspectives on modern Europe. By carefully tracing the physical and mental journeys of these travelers, the book paints a picture of European architecture that is nothing like what one would expect.

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus, the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World. The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages.

archaeology history and art history as well as by direct survey of the site The morphological analysis of Persepolis including the study of the proportions of the elevations and the verification of a planning grid for the layout of the entire ensemble demonstrate the univocal will by Darius to plan Persepolis following a precise initial scheme The study shows how the inscriptions bas reliefs and the innovative architectural language together express the symbolism values and political messages of the Achaemenid Dynasty exhibiting influence from different lands in a new architectural language and in the plan of the entire site

Tradition Anna Contadini, 2011-11-11 A study of the Kit b Na t al ayaw n Book on the Characteristics of Animals this book considers together text and image in this unique thirteenth century manuscript thereby contributing to the wider scholarship on Middle Eastern painting and art of the pre modern period

Conversion and Islam in the Early Modern Mediterranean Claire Norton, 2017-02-03 The topic of religious conversion into and out of Islam as a historical phenomenon is mired in a sea of debate and misunderstanding It has often been viewed as the permanent crossing of not just a religious divide but in the context of the early modern Mediterranean also political cultural and geographic boundaries Reading between the lines of a wide variety of sources however suggests that religious conversion between Christianity Judaism and Islam often had a more pragmatic and prosaic aspect that constituted a form of cultural translation and a means of establishing communal belonging through the shared and often contested articulation of religious identities The chapters in this volume do not view religion simply as a specific set of orthodox beliefs and strict practices to be adopted wholesale by the religious individual or convert Rather they analyze conversion as the acquisition of a set of historically contingent social practices which facilitated the process of social political or religious acculturation Exploring the role conversion played in the fabrication of cosmopolitan Mediterranean identities the volume examines the idea of the convert as a mediator and translator between cultures Drawing upon a diverse range of research areas and linguistic skills the volume utilises primary sources in Ottoman Persian Arabic Latin German Hungarian and English within a variety of genres including religious tracts diplomatic correspondence personal memoirs apologetics historical narratives official documents and commands legal texts and court records and religious polemics As a result the collection provides readers with theoretically informed new research on the subject of conversion to or from Islam in the early modern Mediterranean world

Sardar, 2015-04-13 The vast Deccan plateau of south central India stretches from the Arabian Sea to the Bay of Bengal In the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the region was home to several major Muslim kingdoms and became a nexus of international trade most notably in diamonds and textiles through which the sultanates attained remarkable wealth The opulent art of the Deccan courts invigorated by cultural connections to the Middle East Africa and Europe developed an otherworldly character distinct from that of the contemporary Mughal north in painting a poetic lyricism and audacious use of color in the decorative arts lively creations of inlaid metalware and painted and dyed textiles and in architecture a somber grandeur still visible today in breathtaking monuments throughout the plateau The first book to fully explore the history and legacy of these kingdoms Sultans of Deccan India elucidates the predominant themes in Deccani art the region's diverse spiritual traditions its exchanges with the outside world and the powerful styles of expression that evolved under court patronage with fresh insights and new scholarship Alongside the discussion of the art lively engaging essays by some of the field's leading scholars offer perspectives on the cycles of victory and conquest as dynasties competed with one another vied with Vijayanagara a great empire to the south and finally succumbed to the Mughals from the north Featuring some 200 of the finest works from the Deccan sultanates as well as spectacular site photographs and informative maps this magnificently illustrated catalogue provides the most comprehensive examination of this world to date and constitutes a pioneering resource for specialists and general readers alike The Indigenous Lens? Markus Ritter, Staci G. Scheiwiller, 2017-12-18

The historiography of early photography has scarcely examined Islamic countries in the Near and Middle East although the new technique was adopted very quickly there by the 1840s Which regional local and global aspects can be made evident What role did autochthonous image and art traditions have and which specific functions did photography meet since its introduction This collective volume deals with examples from Iran the Ottoman Empire and the Arab lands and with the question of local specifics or an indigenous lens The contributions broach the issues of regional histories of photography local photographers specific themes and practices and historical collections in these countries They offer for the first time in book form a cross section through a developing field of the history of photography Private Collecting, Exhibitions, and the Shaping of Art History in London Stacey J. Pierson, 2017-01-12 The Burlington Fine Arts Club was founded in London in 1866 as a gentlemen's club with a singular remit to exhibit members' art collections Exhibitions were proposed organized and furnished by a group of prominent members of British society who included aristocrats artists bankers politicians and museum curators Exhibitions at their grand house in Mayfair brought many private collections and collectors to light using members' social connections to draw upon the finest and most diverse objects available Through their unique mode of presentation which brought museum style display and interpretation to a grand domestic style gallery space they also brought two forms of curatorial and art historical practice together in one unusual setting enabling an unrestricted form of connoisseurship where new categories of art were defined and old ones expanded The history of this remarkable group of people has yet to be presented and is explored here for the first time Through a framework of exhibition themes ranging from Florentine painting to Ancient Egyptian art a study of lenders objects and their interpretation paints a picture of private collecting activities connoisseurship and art world practice that is surprisingly diverse and interconnected Bayana Shokoohy Mehrdad Shokoohy, 2020-03-18 Bayana in Rajasthan and its monuments challenge the perceived but established view of the development of Muslim architecture and urban form in India At the end of the twelfth century early conquerors took the mighty Hindu fort building the first Muslim city below on virgin ground They later reconfigured the fort and constructed another town within it These two towns were the centre of an autonomous region during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Going beyond a simple study of the historic architectural and archaeological remains this book takes on the wider issues of how far the artistic traditions of Bayana which developed independently from those of Delhi later influenced north Indian architecture It shows how these traditions were the forerunners of the Mughal architectural style which drew many of its features from innovations developed first in Bayana The Shaping of Persian Art Yuka Kadoi, Iván Szántó, 2014-07-18 While the impact of the Persian style is undeniably reflected in most aspects of the art and architecture of Islamic Central Asia this Perso Central Asian connection was chiefly formed and articulated by the Euro American movement of collecting and interpreting the art and material culture of the Persian Islamic world in modern times This had an enormous impact on the formation of scholarship and connoisseurship in Persian art for instance with an attempt to define the characteristics of how the Islamic art of Iran and Central Asia should be viewed and displayed at museums and how these subjects should be researched in academia This important historical fact which has attracted scholarly interest only in recent years should be treated as a serious subject of research accepting that the abstract image of Persian art was not a pure creation of Persian civilization but that it can be the manifestation of particular historical times and charismatic individuals Attention should therefore be given to various factors that resulted in the shaping of Persian imagery across the globe not only in terms of national ideologies but also within the context of several protagonists such as scholars collectors and dealers as well as of the objects themselves This volume brings together Islamic Iranian and Central Asian art experts from diverse disciplinary and professional backgrounds and intends to offer a novel insight into what is collectively known as Persian art Islam and the West. Arabic inscriptions and pseudo inscriptions Maria Vittoria Fontana, 2020-02-28 This volume contains four essays on inscriptions and or pseudo inscriptions made with letters of the Arabic alphabet or with characters deriving from the latter used in artifacts produced in the West and especially Italy during the medieval and Renaissance period Maria Vittoria Fontana is Full Professor of Islamic Archaeology and History of Art at the Department of Science of Antiquities of Sapienza University in Rome previously she held the same role at L Orientale University of Naples

She has carried out excavations in Iran Jordan and Yemen The last excavation was at Istakhr and the final report was published in the volume Istakhr Iran 2011 2016 Historical and Archaeological Essays Quaderni di Vicino Oriente XIII Rome Sapienza 2018 She is also the author of numerous scientific articles and monographs on both archaeological and iconographic subjects the latter concerning Islamic productions as well as Western ones that have come into contact with Islam
