Stott,2008-11-15 This book examines the character and function of the documents mentioned in the biblical texts in relation to comparable references in literature from wider antiquity Citing various references to written documents in the Hebrew Bible Stott takes into consideration both those references that may point to external sources for example the many literary citations in the books of Kings and Chronicles as well as certain other documents that play a role in the narrative such as the book of the law in 2 Kings the scrolls of Jeremiah and the tablets of the law The aim of this study is not to determine to which texts external to the world of the narrative if any these documents refer or to identify the content of these documents or to reconstruct their origins and historical development Instead the primary focus is to understand these references within their literary context asking why indeed they are mentioned at all and what purpose they serve in the narrative regardless of whether they existed or not in the external world or whether the stories about them have basis in historical reality as it happened Holy War Discourses in 1QM and John's Apocalypse David Chapman Harris,2024-02-28 This study offers an in depth examination of the Qumran War Scroll 1QM alongside John s Apocalypse which takes the concept of Holy War into consideration It delineates between ancient Jewish and nascent Christian apocalyptic and theological sensibilities and breaks the conventional barrier between Qumran studies and New Testamen Rabbis, Sorcerers, Kings, and Priests Jason Sion Mokhtarian,2021-11-02 examines the impact of the Persian Zoroastrian Empire on rabbinic identity and authority as expressed in the Babylonian Talmud Advanced Concepts for Intelligent Vision Systems Wilfried Philips,Dan Popescu,Paul Scheunders,2005-10-05 Turks, Tatars and Russians in the 13th-16th Centuries István Vásáry,2023-05-31 The setting for the studies collected here is the West Eurasian steppe region

extending from present day Kazakhstan through southern Russia Ukraine and Moldavia to the Carpathian Basin The first articles deal with pre Mongol Turkic peoples of the region and their relations with the Byzantine Empire to the south but the core of the volume is the history of the Golden Horde and its successor states such as the Kazan and Crimean Khanates whose Turco Mongol overlords are often referred to as Tatars These played a decisive role in the history of Western Central Asia and Eastern Europe in the 13th 16th centuries and had a fundamental influence on the rise of the Russian state Particular articles look at Mongol institutions and terminology others at the interaction of the medieval Tatar and Russian worlds

Islamic Law in Early Modern Iran Zahir Bhalloo, 2023-10-24 Historical studies on the practice of Islamic law shar'a tend to focus on practice in a Sunni setting during the Mamluk or Ottoman periods This book decenters Sunni and Mamluk and Ottoman normativity by investigating the practice of shar'a in a Twelver Shi'i Persian speaking milieu in early modern Iran between the sixteenth to twentieth centuries Drawing on documentary evidence and narrative sources it reconstructs who the practitioners of Islamic law were how they authenticated annulled and archived legal documents and how they intervened in the resolution of disputes over religious endowments waqf The study demonstrates that following Iran's conversion to Twelver Shi'ism under the Safavids the dominance of Twelver Shi'i legal theory which conferred judicial authority on scholars recognized as Shi'i jurists mujtahids affected both the practitioners of Islamic law and the procedures of shar'a court practice in Iran Shi'i jurists in Iran as a result would come to exercise by the end of the nineteenth century a judicial monopoly over valid shar'a court practice thus laying the foundation for Ayatollah Khomeini's extension during the Iranian revolution of the authority of the Shi'i jurist over political affairs
