Persian Gardens and Pavilions
Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur s tent in Samargand to Shah Abbas s palace in Isfahan and Humayun s tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes onto examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa di s Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia s rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies

General

Introduction to Persian Literature J.T.P. Bruijn, 2008-10-31 Persian literature is the jewel in the crown of Persian culture. It has profoundly influenced the literatures of Ottoman Turkey, Muslim India, and Turkic Central Asia and been a source of inspiration for Goethe, Emerson, Matthew Arnold, and Jorge Luis Borges among others. Yet Persian literature has never received the attention it truly deserves. A History of Persian Literature answers this need and offers a new comprehensive and detailed history of its subject. This 18-volume authoritative survey reflects the stature and significance of Persian literature as the single most important accomplishment of the Iranian experience. It includes extensive revealing examples with contributions by prominent scholars who bring a fresh critical approach to bear on this important topic. The first volume offers an indispensable entree to Persian literature's long and rich history, examining themes and subjects that are common to many fields of Persian literary study. This invaluable introduction to the subject heralds a definitive and ground-breaking new series.

Hafiz and the Religion of Love in Classical Persian Poetry Leonard Lewisohn, 2010-06-02 The romantic lyricism of the great Persian poet Hafiz (1315-1390) continues to be admired around the world. Recent exploration of that lyricism by Iranian scholars has revealed that in addition to his masterful use of poetic devices, Hafiz's verse is deeply steeped in the philosophy and symbolism of Persian love mysticism. This innovative volume discusses the aesthetic theories and mystical philosophy of the classical Persian love lyric, ghazal, as particularly exemplified by Hafiz, who along with Rumi and Sa'di is Persia's most celebrated poet. For the first time in western literature, Hafiz's rhetoric of romance is situated within the broader context of what scholars refer to as Love Theory in Arabic and Persian poetry, in particular, and Islamic literature more generally. Contributors from both the West and Iran conduct a major investigation of the love lyrics of Hafiz and of what they signified to that high culture and civilization which was devoted to the School of Love in medieval Persia. The volume will have strong appeal to scholars of the Middle East, medieval Islamic literature, and the history and culture of Iran.
