treated separately from those of academic theology as if the latter had little relation to the former This raises the question for us today How is spirituality related to the practice of theology In Renewing Theology J Matthew Ashley provides an answer by turning to Ignatian spirituality and three prominent twentieth century theologians who embraced its spiritual resources Karl Rahner Ignacio Ellacur a and Jorge Mario Bergoglio that is Pope Francis Ashley begins his investigation by considering the historical origins of the widening separation between spirituality and academic theology in the Christian West He provides an initial overview of Ignatian spirituality focusing on the openness and multidimensionality of Ignatius of Loyola s Spiritual Exercises presented here as a text in which the conditions of modernity that defined its author s world are present at least incipiently Ashley then offers three case studies in order to show how each Jesuit Rahner Ellacur a and Pope Francis responded to the challenges of modernity in a way that is uniquely nourished and illuminated by themes constitutive of Ignatian spirituality Their theologies Ashley suggests evince a particular clarity and force when the Ignatian spirituality that animates them is foregrounded Providing new and productive avenues into understanding the theologies of these three individuals this sophisticated and enlightening book will interest scholars and students of systematic theology as well as

Evangelism in an Age of Despair Andrew

Root, 2025-03-11 Evangelism is a contested even conflicted word But churches are declining in numbers and resources What if we aren't thinking about evangelism in the right way culturally or theologically This book contextualizes evangelism in our late modern times and reimagines what the call to outreach means in today's world Our sad times are made sadder by the realization that our all out pursuit of happiness has made us stressed anxious lonely and depressed says leading practical theologian Andrew Root The French thinker Michel de Montaigne taught us to focus on making ourselves happy but Blaise Pascal pointed out that we are creatures of soul as much as self so happiness does not satisfy Root offers a vision for how a theology of consolation can shape a hopeful approach to evangelism We all need consolation others to care for us in our sadness if we can find such a minister and lean into our sorrow we will find the presence of Jesus Christ Root uses a fictional church to show rather than tell us how consolation evangelism works For support he looks to the ministries of Gregory of Nyssa and his sister Macrina Jean Gerson Johann von Staupitz and Martin Luther who all contend that consolation is central to our transformation into the life of God
