Renzo Piano Logbook:

Logbook Renzo Piano, 1997 Renzo Piano Genoa 1937 studied architecture at the Polytechnic in Milan Since winning the competition to design the Centre Pompidou in Paris 1971 along with Richard Rogers Piano has become a prominent figure on the international architectural scene with more works constructed outside Italy than in his own country Piano brings a similar approach to both the small and the large scale He has directed projects of very varying sizes small buildings like the travelling IBN Pavilion and the Brancusi Museum and great megastructures like Kansai's International Airport Terminal built on a man made island in the Bay of Tokyo and the remodeling of Berlin's Potsdamer Platz where work is scheduled to be completed in 2002

Renzo Piano: The Complete Logbook Renzo Piano, Kenneth Frampton, 2017-02-21 The most up to date complete illustrated account of the work of one of the world's most influential architects in his own words Renzo Piano has created some of the most emblematic buildings of our age including the New York Times Building in New York City the Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris the Shard in London and the Parco della Musica in Rome Here Renzo Piano himself whose many international awards include the prestigious Pritzker Prize presents in his own words the works on which he has built his reputation over a span of fifty years Over one hundred works are featured accompanied by over one thousand images of Piano's work around the world including new photographs drawings and sketches both intimate and authoritative all with commentaries by the architect that combine personal anecdote and technical description with original insights No other architecture book will appeal to such a broad range of professionals and general readers alike This is an unmatched introduction to the work of one of the world's most influential and inspiring architects Renzo Piano Edgar

Stach, 2021-03-08 The Pritzker laureate Renzo Piano is recognized worldwide as one of the most renowned architects of our time Central elements of his aesthetics include the playful use of natural light the transparency of his buildings and their fine detailing This publication documents nine museum buildings by Renzo Piano Building Workshop Renzo Piano Building Workshop Peter Buchanan, 1993 The Architecture of Modern Italy Terry Kirk, 2005-06-02 Modern Italy may sound like an oxymoron For Western civilization Italian culture represents the classical past and the continuity of canonical tradition while modernity is understood in contrary terms of rupture and rapid innovation Charting the evolution of a culture renowned for its historical past into the 10 modern era challenges our understanding of both the resilience of tradition and the elasticity of modernity We have a tendency when imagining Italy to look to a rather distant and definitely premodern setting The ancient forum medieval cloisters baroque piazzas and papal palaces constitute our ideal itinerary of Italian civilization The Campo of Siena Saint Peter's all of Venice and San Gimignano satisfy us with their seemingly unbroken panoramas onto historical moments untouched by time but elsewhere modern intrusions alter and obstruct the view to the landscapes of our expectations As seasonal tourist or seasoned historian we edit the encroachments time and change have wrought on our image of Italy The learning of history is always a complex task one that in the Italian environment is complicated by the changes wrought everywhere over the past 250 years Culture on the peninsula continues to evolve with characteristic vibrancy Italy is not a museum To think of it as such as a disorganized yet phenomenally rich museum unchanging in its exhibits is to misunderstand the nature of the Italian cultural condition and the writing of history itself Renzo Piano Building Workshop Renzo Piano, 2007 This monograph focuses on Piano's most remarkable buildings such as the Pompidou Centre in Paris which he co-designed with Richard Rogers and the Beyeler building in Switzerland TRADE The Challenges of Orpheus Heather Dubrow, 2011-06-15 This critical exploration of how we define lyric poetry is thorough penetrating and on the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship Choice As a literary mode lyric is difficult to define The term is conventionally applied to brief songlike poems expressing the speaker's interior thoughts but many critics have questioned the underlying assumptions of this definition While many people associate lyric with the Romantic era Heather Dubrow turns instead to the poetry of early modern England The Challenges of Orpheus confronts widespread assumptions about lyric exploring such topics as its relationship to its audiences the impact of material conditions of production and other cultural pressures lyric's negotiations of gender and the interactions and tensions between lyric and narrative Dubrow offers fresh perspectives on major texts of the period from Sir Thomas Wyatt's My lute awake to John Milton's Nativity Ode as well as poems by lesser known figures She also extends her critical conclusions to poetry in other historical periods and to the relationship between creative writers and critics recommending new directions for the study of lyric and of genre A Choice Magazine Outstanding Academic Title A Place for All People Richard Rogers, Richard Brown, 2017-09-07 Richard Rogers founder of Rogers Stirk Harbour Partners is a pre-eminent architect of his generation whose approach to buildings is infused with his enthusiasm for modernism love of life and strong sense of social justice From the Pompidou Centre in Paris to the Lloyds Building in the City of London and from airports to cancer care centres to low cost homes the buildings he and his partners have designed blend private use public space and civic value In part inspired by his 2013 Royal Academy exhibition A place for all people is a mosaic of life projects and ideas for a better society Ranging backwards and forwards over a long and creative life and integrating relationships projects stories collaborations and polemics with case studies drawings and photographs A place for all people is a dazzling and inspiring book as original as its author New Organic Architecture David Pearson, 2001 New Organic Architecture is a manifesto for building in a way that is both aesthetically pleasing and kinder to the environment It illuminates key themes of organic architects their sources of inspiration the roots and concepts behind the style and the environmental challenges to be met The organic approach to architecture has an illustrious history from Celtic design Art Nouveau Arts and Crafts to the work of Antoni Gaudí and Frank Lloyd Wright Today there is a response to a new age of information and ecology architects are seeking to change the relationship between buildings and the natural environment In the first part of his book David Pearson provides a history and assessment of organic architecture The second part comprises statements from thirty architects from around the world whose work is based on natural or curvilinear forms rather than the straight line geometrics of modernism Each statement is accompanied by full color illustrations of one or several of the architects built projects The Architectural Detail Edward R.

Ford,2011-10-19 The Architectural Detail is author Edward R Ford s life s work and this may be his most important book to date Ford walks the reader through five widely accepted and wildly different definitions of detail in an attempt to find once and for all the quintessential definition of detail in architecture The Shard Howard Watson,2017-06-15 We were told we would never get planning consent and we did We were told we would never be able to fund it and we did Then we were told we would never be able to build it and we did Irvine Sellar In 2000 Irvine Sellar a former market trader famous for helping to create the look of the Swinging Sixties on Carnaby Street stood on a rooftop in Southwark London and decided to build the tallest building in western Europe He had virtually no experience and he wanted to build at the wrong height in the wrong place on the wrong side of the river and at the wrong time Twelve years later the Shard a vertical city designed by one of the world s leading architects Renzo Piano changed the skyline of London It immediately became one of the most instantly recognizable and admired contemporary buildings in the world This is the story of one man s vision for London and his determination to redefine an ancient but maligned part of the city despite seemingly insurmountable challenges including mass opposition a huge planning inquiry the financial crash and major construction issues that required radical improvisation at every turn At every twist in the tale Sellar refused to give up The Shard is a tale of extreme ambition innovation and a relentless desire to recast the skyscraper as a force for good The Green Braid Kim Tanzer,Rafael Longoria,2007-04-11

This volume presents the discipline s best thinking on sustainability in written drawn and built form drawing on over fifteen years of peer reviewed essays and national design awards published by the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture ACSA Providing a primer on sustainability useful to teachers and students alike the selected essays address a broad range of issues Combined with design projects that highlight issues holistically they promote an understanding of the principles of sustainability and further the integration of sustainable methods into architectural projects Using essays that alternately revise and clarify twentieth century architectural thinking The Green Braid places sustainability at the centre of excellent architectural design No other volume addresses sustainability within the context of architectural history theory pedagogy and design making this book an ideal source for architects in framing their practices and therefore their architectural production in a sustainable manner Urbanité hybride / Hybrid Urbanity Bruno Marchand,2024-07-22 Countering the phenomenon of sprawl in the often anonymous or chaotic urban periphery the Oassis neighborhood in Lausanne takes a unique approach based on urbanity and hybridization Located on a former industrial wasteland in the west of the city Oassis reflects the compositional principles of the traditional city while also engaging in the dynamics of ecological transition and climate resilience This urban fragment is both an urban fabric compatible with future developments in the neighborhood and an architectural object characterized by urbanity The contemporary challenges of regenerating suburban areas are addressed here through diverse development programs and a profusion of gardens Skilful combination of economic ecological and social factors with high quality architecture With unpublished documents and specially commissioned photographs

Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman, 2007-05-07 Utopian thought though commonly characterized as projecting a future without a past depends on golden models for re invention of what is Through a detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects who sought to represent a utopian content in their work and a consideration of the thoughts of a range of leading writers Coleman offers the reader a unique perspective of idealism in architectural design With unparalleled depth and focus of vision on the work of Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck this book persuasively challenges predominant assumptions in current architectural discourse forging a new approach to the invention of welcoming built environments and transcending the limitations of both the postmodern and hyper modern stance and orthodox modernist architecture
