Reorienting Fashion The Globalization Of Asian Dress:

Re-Orienting Fashion Sandra Niessen, Ann Marie Leshkovich, Carla Jones, 2003-04 Asian fashion has become a global phenomenon of significant economic political and social import But the industry in Asia remains characterized by the gap between traditional centres of fashion and power and the relatively marginalized periphery that includes Asia The resulting fashions are ambiguous despite their indigenous origins and inspiration their survival depends upon the West This book explores Asian fashion in a global economic and cultural context In itself this is pathbreaking because fashion studies have traditionally divided along the boundaries of the western non western dichotomy When both production and consumption cut through these traditional boundaries new fashion principles are expressed globally How are western economic cultural political iconic and social forms inscribed in indigenous Asian fashion when and often because that fashion is an expression of resistance against western encroachment How does dress become an active site for the negotiation of state ideals and gender roles in nations struggling to construct new identities informed by modern western impulses What role does gender play in negotiating dress symbols and how does this tie in with commodification by the global economic system With chapters focusing on East South and Southeast Asian designers retailers consumers and governments this book moves Asian fashion centre stage and should be of interest to dress and fashion theorists anthropologists sociologists and all those seeking to understand globalization and its effects RE-ORIENTING FASHION: THE GLOBALIZATION OF ASIAN DRESS; ED. BY SANDRA NIESSEN., 2003

Threads of Globalization Melia Belli Bose, 2024-02-06 Threads of globalization is an interdisciplinary volume that brings fashion specific garments motifs materials and methods of production into dialogue with gender and identity in various cultures throughout Asia during the long twentieth century It examines how the shift from artisanal production to fast fashion over the past 150 years has devalued women's textile labour and how skilled textile garment makers and the organizations that support them are preserving and reviving heritage traditions. It also offers examples of how socially engaged artists in Asia and the diaspora use their work to criticize labour and environmental abuses in the global fashion industry. The End of Fashion Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2018-11-01. Attitudes to fashion have changed radically in the twenty-first century. Dress is increasingly approached as a means of self-expression rather than as a signifier of status or profession and designers are increasingly treated as artists as fashion moves towards art and enters the gallery museum and retail space. This book is the first to fully explore the causes and implications of this shift, examining the impact of technological innovation, globalization and the growth of the internet. The End of Fashion focuses on the ways in which our understanding of fashion and the fashion system have transformed as mass mediation and digitization continue to broaden the way that contemporary fashion is perceived and consumed. Exploring everything from the rise of online shopping to the emergence of bloggers as power elites who have revolutionized the terrain of traditional fashion reportage, this volume anatomizes a world in which runway shows now compete with live streaming digital fashion films, Instagram and Pinterest. Bringing together original cutting-edge contributions from leading international scholars, this book is essential reading for students and scholars of fashion and cultural studies as well as anyone interested in exploring the dramatic shifts that have shaken the fashion world this century and what they might say about larger changes within an increasingly global and digital society. Threads of globalization Melia Belli Bose, 2024-02-06. Threads of globalization is an interdisciplinary volume that brings fashion-specific garments, motifs, materials and methods of production into dialogue with gender and identity in various cultures throughout Asia during the long twentieth century. Hejin Lee, Christina H. Moon, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, 2019-06-03. How transnational modernity is taking shape in and in relation to Asia. Fashion and Beauty in the Time of Asia considers the role of bodily aesthetics in the shaping of Asian modernities and the formation of the so-called Asian Century. S. Hejin Lee, Christina H. Moon and Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu train our eyes on sites as far-flung, varied and intimate as Guangzhou and Los Angeles, Saigon and Seoul, New York and Toronto. They map the transregional connections, ever-evolving aspirations and sensibilities and new worlds and life paths forged through engagements with fashion and beauty. Contributors consider American influence on plastic surgery in Korea, Vietnamese debates about the fashionable and the costs and commitments demanded of those who make and wear fast fashion, from Chinese garment workers to Nepalese nail technicians in New York who are mandated to dress fashionably. In doing so, this interdisciplinary anthology moves beyond common characterizations of Asians and the Asian diaspora as simply

The Fabric of Cultures Amy Harriet Winter, 2008-01 Fashion in Altermodern China Feng Jie, 2022-03-24 Fashion in Altermodern China examines key features of women s fashion within the cultural and political context of contemporary China While global brands and styles heavily influence Chinese consumer trends the Chinese fashion system is formed of its own internal logics and emergent trends too Adopting the theoretical term altermodern Feng Jie encourages us to view China in terms of its rapid modernization which presents its own rhythms and meanings and argues persuasively that Chinese fashion can t be wholly understood in terms of a Western discourse of modernity postmodernity and the global Expanding our understanding of the fashion system Fashion in Altermodern China takes on board new trends in global trade new technologies and the hybridity of designs and consumption of fashion Through critical readings of Barthes on the neutral and Jullien on blandness both directly influenced by Asian philosophies the author offers a new perspective on Chinese fashion arguing that while global local contexts lead to identifiably postmodern and hybrid aesthetics for women in contemporary China the flux and mix of available fashions is experienced in a more open neutral manner than scholars have previously described Crucially then rather than position trends in China only in terms of hybridity which betrays a Western bias and a binary logic of host recipient there are more fluid ways in which we need to understand how women engage in fashion in China today Dress and Globalisation Margaret Maynard,2004-09-04 This work surveys dress and identity of cultures around the world It draws on issues of consumption ethnicity gender and the body as well as anthropological accounts and studies of representation Styling Shanghai Christopher Breward,Juliette MacDonald,2020-01-23 Styling Shanghai is the first book dedicated to exploring the city s fashion cultures examining its growing status as one of the world s foremost fashion cities From its origins as an international treaty port in the 19th century Shanghai has emerged as a global leader in the production mediation and consumption of fashion This book reveals how the material and imaginative context of this thriving urban centre has produced vivid interpretations of fashion as object image and idea Bringing together contributions by a range of leading international fashion historians and theorists and drawing on extensive original research Styling Shanghai offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the mega city s shifting position as a fashion capital Rooted in collaboration between leading UK Australian and Shanghai based institutions it considers the impact of local and global textile manufacturing the representation and marketing of Shanghai Style bodies and gender in the Paris of the East and the challenges of globalization commercialization and digital communication in contemporary Shanghai Dangerous Designs ,
