Slave Narratives (LOA #114) William L. Andrews, Henry Louis Gates, 2000-01-15 This collection of landmark slave narratives demonstrates how a diverse group of writers challenged the conscience of a nation and laid the foundations of the African American literary tradition No literary genre speaks as directly and as eloquently to the brutal contradictions in American history as the slave narrative The works collected in this volume present unflinching portrayals of the cruelty and degradation of slavery while testifying to the African American struggle for freedom and dignity They demonstrate the power of the written word to affirm a person's and a people's humanity in a society poisoned by racism Slave Narratives shows how a diverse group of writers challenged the conscience of a nation and through their expression of anger pain sorrow and courage laid the foundations of the African American literary tradition This volume collects ten works published between 1772 and 1864 Narratives by James Albert Ukawsaw Gronniosaw 1772 and Olaudah Equiano 1789 recount how they were taken from Africa as children and brought across the Atlantic to British North America The Confessions of Nat Turner 1831 provides unique insight into the man who led the deadliest slave uprising in American history The widely read narratives by the fugitive slaves Frederick Douglass 1845 William Wells Brown 1847 and Henry Bibb 1849 strengthened the abolitionist cause by exposing the hypocrisies inherent in a slaveholding society ostensibly dedicated to liberty and Christian morality The Narrative of Sojourner Truth 1850 describes slavery in the North while expressing the eloquent fervor of a dedicated woman Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom 1860 tells the story of William and Ellen Craft s subversive and ingenious escape from Georgia to Philadelphia Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 is Harriet Jacobs s complex and moving story of her prolonged resistance to sexual and racial oppression The narrative of the trickster Jacob Green 1864 presents a disturbing story full of wild humor and intense cruelty Together these works fuse memory advocacy and defiance into a searing collective portrait of American life before emancipation Slave Narratives contains a chronology of events in the history of slavery as well as biographical and explanatory notes and an essay on the texts The Collected

William James: Writings 1902-1910 (LOA #38) William James, 1859-02-01 Philosopher and psychologist William James was the best known and most influential American thinker of his time The five books and nineteen essays collected in this Library of America volume represent all his major work from 1902 until his death in 1910 Most were originally written as lectures addressed to general audiences as well as philosophers and were received with great enthusiasm His writing is clear energetic and unpretentious and is marked by the devotion to literary excellence he shared with his brother Henry James In these works William James champions the value of individual experience with an eloquence and enthusiasm that has placed him alongside Emerson and Whitman as a classic exponent of American democratic culture In The Varieties of Religious Experience 1902 James explores the very inner citadel of human life by focusing on intensely religious individuals of different cultures and eras With insight compassion and open mindedness he examines and assesses their beliefs seeking to measure religion's value by its contributions to individual human lives In Pragmatism 1907 James suggests that the conflicting metaphysical positions of tender minded rationalism and tough minded empiricism be judged by examining their actual consequences Philosophy James argues should free itself from unexamined principles and closed systems and confront reality with complete openness In A Pluralistic Universe 1909 James rejects the concept of the absolute and calls on philosophers to respond to the real concrete sensible flux of life Through his discussion of Kant Hegel Henri Bergson and religion James explores a universe viewed not as an abstract block but as a rich manyness in oneness full of independent yet connected events The Meaning of Truth 1909 is a polemical collection of essays asserting that ideas are made true not by inherent qualities but by events James delights in intellectual combat stating his positions with vigor while remaining open to opposing ideas Some Problems of Philosophy 1910 was intended by James to serve both as a historical overview of metaphysics and as a systematic statement of his philosophical beliefs Though unfinished at his death it fully demonstrates the psychological insight and literary vividness James brought to philosophy Among the essays included are the anti imperialist Address on the Philippine Question On Some Mental Effects of the Earthquake a candid personal account of the 1906 California disaster and The Moral Equivalent of War a call for the redirection of martial energies to peaceful ends as well as essays on Emerson the role of university in intellectual life and psychic research
