At the Intersection Thomas Rosteck,1999-01-01 This provocative volume is based on the premise that cultural studies and rhetorical studies address specific and parallel questions about culture critical practice and interpretation and that opening up a dialogue between them can enhance both and provide a more complete understanding of society Noted scholars across a variety of disciplines examine overlaps and contradictions between these approaches as well as critical and pedagogical issues that surface with their linkage Research Methods in Social Studies Education Keith C. Barton,2006-03-01 This volume fills a significant gap in the scholarship on social studies education by providing thoughtful reflections on research methods in the field It is not a how to guide but an exploration of key issues related to the design and implementation of empirical studies The authors are active researchers who use varied methods in diverse settings including historical research international comparative studies survey research interviews with students and teachers classroom observations self studies and action research and emancipatory methodologies They use their own experiences to examine such topics as the conceptualization of research questions relationships with participants researchers identities and elicitation of students and teachers thinking This collection should become indispensable for both beginning and experienced scholars in social studies

Rape and Representation Lynn A. Higgins, 1993-07-15 Rape does not have to happen The fact that it does and in the United States a rape is reported every six minutes indicates that we live in a rape prone culture where rape or the threat of rape functions as a tool for enforcing sexual difference and hierarchy Rape and Representation explores how cultural forms construct and reenforce social attitudes and behaviors that perpetuate sexual violence The essays proceed from the observation that literature not only reflects but also contributes to what a society believes about itself Fourteen essays by authors in the fields of English American and African American German African Brazilian Classical and French literatures and film present a wide range of texts from different historical periods and cultures Contributors demythologize patriarchal representation in literature and art in order to show how it makes rape seem natural and inevitable Contributors include the editors John J Winkler Patricia Klindiest Joplin Susan Winnett Ellen Rooney Copp lia Kahn Eileen Julien Marta Peixoto Kathryn Gravdal Carla Freccero Nellie V McKay Nancy A Jones and Froma I Zeitlin Their work raises pressing and often difficult questions for feminist criticism
