Representing The Japanese Occupation Of Indonesia Personal Testimonies And Public Images In Indonesia

David Koh Wee Hock

Representing The Japanese Occupation Of Indonesia Personal Testimonies And Public Images In Indonesia:

Representing the Japanese Occupation of Indonesia Remco Raben, 1999 Rather than a history of the war and occupation of Indonesia during the years 1942-1945 Representing the Japanese Occupation of Indonesia offers a survey of the way in which Indonesia, Japan and the Netherlands have shaped the memory of that episode. Comparison of the memories in the three countries brings out the national patterns of memory. This volume gives an impression of the layered and pluriform nature of memory and of the different forms of expression of memory from the most personal level of oral testimony to the most public representation in monuments and films.

A History of Modern Indonesia Adrian Vickers, 2013-03-29 This updated edition examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam in Indonesia and asks why the country's democratic aspirations have yet to be realized.

Forgotten Captives in Japanese-Occupied Asia Kevin Blackburn, Karl Hack, 2007-12-14 Using archival oral and literary sources Blackburn and Hack along with an impressive team of international contributors rectify the obscured picture of the Japanese captive by bringing together for the first time a collection of essays covering an extremely broad range of forgotten captives.

The Indonesia Reader Tineke Hellwig, Eric Tagliacozzo, 2009-03-13 An introduction to Indonesia's history, culture and politics which brings together more than 150 selections including journalists' articles, explorers' chronicles, photographs, poetry, stories, cartoons, drawings, letters and speeches.

Prisoners of War, Prisoners of Peace Barbara Hatley-Broad, 2005-02-01 Millions of servicemen of the belligerent powers were taken prisoner during World War II. Until recently the popular image of these men has been framed by tales of heroic escape or immense suffering at the hands of malevolent captors. For the vast majority, however, the reality was very different. Their history both during and after the War has largely been ignored in the grand narratives of the conflict. This collection brings together new scholarship largely based on sources from previously unavailable Eastern European or Japanese archives. Authors highlight a number of important comparatives. Whereas for the British and Americans held by the Germans and Japanese the end of the war meant a swift repatriation and demobilization for the Germans it heralded the beginning of an imprisonment that for some lasted until 1956. These and many more moving stories are revealed here for the first time.

The Encyclopedia of Indonesia in the Pacific War, 2009-12-14 An obvious hiatus amidst the abundance of Pacific War studies is the story of Indonesia during that period. The Encyclopedia of Indonesia in the Pacific War, edited under the aegis of the Netherlands Institute for War Documentation, now fills that gap. This state-of-the-art work reflects the different experiences and historiographic traditions of Indonesians, Japanese and Dutch. The aim is to present the developments in the Indonesian archipelago in as much a rational and dispassionate way as possible, taking into account regional and social variations and interpreting them within the international context of pre and post-war trends. With due acknowledgement of different perspectives, ambiguities, unresolved issues and conflicting views, it sets out to enhance mutual understanding and academic dialogue.

War Crimes Trials in the Wake of Decolonization and Cold War in Asia, 1945-1956

Kerstin von Lingen, 2016-11-04 This book investigates the political context and intentions behind the trialling of Japanese war criminals in the wake of World War Two After the Second World War in Asia the victorious Allies placed around 5 700 Japanese on trial for war crimes Ostensibly crafted to bring perpetrators to justice the trials intersected in complex ways with the great issues of the day They were meant to finish off the business of World War Two and to consolidate United States hegemony over Japan in the Pacific but they lost impetus as Japan morphed into an ally of the West in the Cold War Embattled colonial powers used the trials to bolster their authority against nationalist revolutionaries but they found the principles of international humanitarian law were sharply at odds with the inequalities embodied in colonialism Within nationalist movements local enmities often overshadowed the reckoning with Japan And hovering over the trials was the critical question just what was justice for the Japanese in a world where all sides had committed atrocities Post-Colonial Immigrants and Identity Formations in the Netherlands Ulbe Bosma, 2012 In this book Ulbe Bosma explores the experience of immigrants in the Netherlands over sixty years and three generations Looking at migrants from all countries Bosma teases out how their ethnic identities are informed by Dutch culture and how these immigrant identities evolve over time Fascinating comprehensive and historically grounded this essential volume reveals how the colonial past continues to shape multicultural Dutch society It is an important counterpart to work on France Britain and Portugal Andrea Smith Lafayette College Journalism and Politics in Indonesia David T. Hill, 2010-01-21 Mochtar Lubis was one of Indonesia's best known newspaper editors authors and cultural figures with a national regional and international prominence that he retained from the early 1950s until his recent death in 2004 This book traces the major events in the life of Mochtar Lubis which is also a prism through which much of Indonesia's post independence history can be interpreted This book is also the story of Indonesia in the second half of the twentieth century when the people of the archipelago became an independent nation and when print media and the influential figures who controlled and produced newspapers played a pivotal role in national political educational and cultural life defining Indonesia Editors with strong personalities dominated the industry and sparred with the nation's leadership Lubis was a vocal critic of the abuse of power and a thorn in the side of the country's first two presidents becoming synonymous with combative journalism Under both Sukarno and Suharto Lubis had his newspaper closed down and was imprisoned As the only comprehensive biography of this towering figure the book provides a unique insight into the history and development of media literature and the political system in Indonesia Legacies of World War II in South and East Asia David Koh Wee Hock, 2007 Illustrates how the political and social fallout from the World War II is still alive and divisive in South and East Asia Indonesia William H. Frederick, Robert L. Worden, 1993 Persimmon, 2001 Nurturing Indonesia Hans Pols, 2018-08-09 Hans Pols proposes a new perspective on the history of colonial medicine from the viewpoint of indigenous physicians The Indonesian medical profession in the Dutch East Indies actively participated in political affairs by joining and leading nationalist associations by publishing in newspapers and magazines and by becoming members of city councils and the colonial parliament Indonesian physicians were motivated by their medical training their experiences as physicians and their subordinate position within the colonial health care system to organise lead and join social cultural and political associations Opening with the founding of Indonesia s first political association in 1908 and continuing with the initiatives of the Association of Indonesian Physicians Pols describes how the Rockefeller Foundation s projects inspired the formulation of a nationalist health programme Tracing the story through the Japanese annexation the war of independence and independent Indonesia Pols reveals the relationship between medicine and decolonisation and the role of physicians in Asian history

War Memory and East Asian Conflicts, 1930-1945 Eveline Buchheim, Jennifer Coates, 2023-06-29 This book explores how narratives exhibitions media representations and cultural heritage sites that communicate memories of conflicts in East Asia between 1930 and 1945 spread interact and are re packaged for post war audiences across national divisions The contributors examine individual case studies of grassroots engagement with war memory and collectively demonstrate the necessity of remaining aware of the researcher as participating in another kind of engagement with war memory Contributions showcase a number of ways of doing research on war memory alongside case studies from diverse regions of the world Taken together they bring a fresh perspective to scholarship on war memory which has tended to focus on space text exhibition or personal narrative rather than bringing these elements into dialogue with one another

Silenced Voices Inez Hollander, 2008 Like a number of Netherlanders in the post World War II era Inez Hollander only gradually became aware of her family s connections with its Dutch colonial past including a Creole great grandmother For the most part such personal stories have been if not entirely silenced at least only whispered about in Holland where society has remained uncomfortable with many aspects of the country s relationship with its colonial empire Unlike the majority of memoirs that are soaked in nostalgia for tempo dulu Hollander s story sets out to come to grips with her family s past by weaving together personal records with historical and literary accounts of the period She seeks not merely to locate and preserve family memories but also to test them against a more disinterested historical record Hers is a complicated and sometimes painful personal journey of realization unusually mindful of the ways in which past memories and present considerations can be intermingled when we seek to understand a difficult past Silenced Voices is an important contribution to the literature on how Dutch society has dealt with its recent colonial history

History in Uniform Katharine E. McGregor, 2007 Under the New Order regime 1967-98 the Indonesian military sought to monopolise the production of official history and control its contents The goal was to validate the political role of the armed forces condemn communism and promote military values A detailed examination of the Indonesian military s image making under Suharto

The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer, Sarah de Mul, 2012-01-01 The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain In the Low Countries local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity accommodation and creolization Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium

Young Soeharto David Jenkins ,2021-05-06 When a reluctant President Sukarno gave Lt Gen Soeharto full executive authority in March 1966 Indonesia was a deeply divided nation fractured along ideological class religious and ethnic lines Soeharto took a country in chaos the largest in Southeast Asia and transformed it into one of the Asian miracle economies only to leave it back on the brink of ruin when he was forced from office thirty two years later Drawing on his astonishing range of interviews with leading Indonesian generals former Imperial Japanese Army officers and men who served in the Dutch colonial army as well as years of patient research in Dutch Japanese British Indonesian and US archives David Jenkins brings vividly to life the story of how a socially reticent but exceptionally determined young man from rural Java began his rise to power an ascent which would be capped by thirty years 1968-98 as President of Indonesia the fourth most populous nation on earth Soeharto was one of Asia's most brutal most durable most avaricious and most successful dictators In the course of examining those aspects of his character this book provides an accessible highly readable introduction to the complex but dramatic and utterly absorbing social political religious economic and military factors that have shaped and which continue to shape Indonesia

Colonial Counterinsurgency and Mass Violence Bart Luttikhuis,A. Dirk Moses,2018-10-24 Whether out of historical interest romantic identification with the colonized or as models for contemporary counter insurgency experts the mass violence of insurgency and counter insurgency in the post war decolonization of the European empires has long exerted an intense fascination In the main the dramas in French Algeria and British Kenya in the 1950s have dominated the scene overshadowing the equally violent events that unfolded in the Dutch Belgian and Portuguese empires Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence is the first book in English to treat the intense conflict that occurred during the Indonesian revolution the decolonization struggle of the Dutch East Indies between 1945 and 1949 This case is particularly significant as the first episode of post war colonial violence indeed one with global reverberations International opinion was ranged against the Dutch and the nascent United Nations condemned its euphemistically termed police actions to reclaim the archipelago from Indonesian nationalists after defeat by the Japanese in 1942 As this book makes clear however intra Indonesian violence was no less prevalent as rival independence visions vied for control and villagers were caught between the fronts Taking a multi perspectival approach eighteen authors examine the origins of the conflict as well as its representational and memory dimensions Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence will appeal to scholars of imperial history mass violence and memory studies alike This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

InterAsian Intimacies Across Race, Religion, and Colonialism Chie Ikeya, 2024-09-15

In InterAsian Intimacies across Race Religion and Colonialism Chie Ikeya asks how interAsian marriage conversion and collaboration in Burma under British colonial rule became the subject of political agitation legislative activism and collective violence Over the course of the twentieth century relations between Burmese Muslims Sino Burmese Indo Burmese and other mixed families and communities became flashpoints for far reaching legal reforms and Buddhist revivalist feminist and nationalist campaigns aimed at consigning minority Asians to subordinate status and regulating women s conjugal and reproductive choices Out of these efforts emerged understandings of religion race and nation that continue to vex Burma and its neighbors today Combining multilingual archival research with family history and intergenerational storytelling Ikeya highlights how the people targeted by such movements made and remade their lives under the shifting circumstances of colonialism capitalism and nationalism The book illuminates a history of belonging across boundaries a history that has been overshadowed by Eurocentric narratives about the mixing of white colonial masters and native mistresses InterAsian intimacy was and remains foundational to modern regimes of knowledge power and desire throughout Asia
