oxymoronic phrase and by this the main focus of the book is clear immediately On the other hand there still remains the question to what extent text and history are comparable The author of this volume tries to answer this by discussing the famous novel of Victor Hugo Quatrevingt Treize against the background of the French Revolution A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942 The Carlyle Encyclopedia Mark Cumming, 2004 The Carlyle Encyclopedia focuses primarily on Thomas Carlyle It reflects the range of his interests and resists stereotyped impression of who he was and what he believed It covers Carlyle's entire life without privileging any particular work or period and locates Carlyle in his time and place in the context of a rich and challenging age The Carlyle Encyclopedia also gives a balanced assessment of Jane Welsh Carlyle which avoids either belittling her or overestimating her achievement It avoids the reductive and contradictory stereotypes of her which were offered by early biographers of Thomas Carlyle and offers instead a study of her varied friendships and her trenchant observations on contemporary life The Carlyle Encyclopedia will interest a variety of readers who concern themselves with literature social history the history of ideas Victorian culture and Scottish studies BOOK JACKET The French Revolution Seen from the Right Paul Harold Beik, 1956

Tracing Global Democracy Vladimir Biti, 2016-01-15 Focused on the recently hotly debated topic at the crossroads of various human and social sciences this book investigates the emergence of the cosmopolitan idea of literature and its impact on the reconfiguration of the European and non European political spaces The birthplace of this idea is its designers traumatic experience as induced by the disconcerting condition of their abode The thesis is that the eighteenth and nineteenth century's cosmopolitan projects that grow out of such deep frustrations trace the twentieth century's global democracy This hidden origin of cosmopolitan projects dismantles the usual European representation of modernization as universal progress as myopic Rather than being a generous action of prominent subjects such as Voltaire Kant and Goethe or Bakhtin Derrida and Deleuze cosmopolitanism is an enforced reaction of the instances dispossessed by injury that search for the ways of healing it Yet as soon as their remedy establishes itself as the ground for universal reconciliation it risks suppressing other's trauma i.e. turns from politics into a police Articulating the author's position in the recent debates on the structure of democracy the epilogue suggests an alternative strategy Representation and Its Discontents Azade Seyhan, 2023-04-28 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary theory Her analysis of key thinkers such as Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis explores their views on rhetoric systematicity hermeneutics and cultural interpretation Seyhan examines German Romanticism as a critical intervention in the debates on representation which developed in response to the philosophical revolution of German Idealism Facing a chaotic political and intellectual landscape the eighteenth century theorists sought new models of understanding and new objectives for criticism and philosophy Representation and Its Discontents identifies the legacy of this formative moment in modern criticism and suggests its relevance to contemporary discussions of post structuralism orientalism theories of textuality and the nature of philosophical discourse This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary

Paul Ricoeur's Renewal of Philosophical Anthropology Marc de Leeuw,2021-12-27 In Paul Ricoeur s Renewal of Philosophical Anthropology Vulnerability Capability Justice Marc de Leeuw argues that Ricoeur s philosophical project integrates the anthropological tradition while renewing its importance as a hermeneutic anthropology of human capability Ricoeur posits that our cogito is neither its own absolute master nor fully transparent to itself inflicting a wound bris and fracturing the center of Cartesian self certainty But the Nietzschean disillusionment that ensues does not simply amount to a victorious anti cogito it opens another path towards self understanding In place of the direct route of intuition is found a more complex way forward one guided by interpretation The task of philosophical anthropology is to understand the human through its interpretative critical and imaginative ability as well as its capacity to act towards with and for others the interpretation of the world in front of us the interpretation of who we are and the interpretation of what it means to be among others as other selves coalesces in an anthropology that binds the question of the self to a moral ethical and political project one aiming to reflect our existence in common For Ricoeur the basic question of our subjective and normative standing demands a fundamental response a response toward our own otherness and to responsibilities triggered by the appeal of Others In both cases our vulnerability is inescapable we can never have an absolute self knowledge nor an absolute knowledge of Others Ricoeur turns this fundamental aporia into an affirmative philosophical anthropology of human action attestation and justice
