Cacaphonies Annabel L. Kim, 2022-04-05 Exploring why there is so much fecal matter in literary works that matter Cacaphonies takes fecal matter and its place in literature seriously Readers and critics have too long overlooked excrement s vital role in the twentieth and twenty first century French canon In a stark challenge to the tendency to view this literature through sanitizing abstractions Annabel L Kim undertakes close readings of key authors to argue for feces as a figure of radical equality both a literary object and a reflection on literature itself without which literary studies is impoverished and sterile Following the fecal through line in works by C line Beckett Genet Sartre Duras and Gary and the contemporary authors Anne Garr ta and Daniel Pennac Kim shows that shit far from vanishing from the canon after the early modern period remains present in the modern and contemporary French literature that follows She argues that all the shit in the canon expresses a call to democratize literature making literature for all just as shit is for or of all She attends to its presence in this prized element of French identity treating it as a continually uttered desire to manifest the universality France aspires to as encapsulated by the slogan Libert galit fraternit but fails to realize In shit there is a concrete universalism that traverses bodies with disregard for embodied differences Cacaphonies reminds us that literature and the ideas to be found therein cannot be separated from the corporeal envelopes that create and receive them In so doing it reveals the aesthetic political and ethical potential of shit and its capacity to transform literature and life
