Requiem For A Futurologist:

Requiem for a Futurologist Wole Soyinka, 1985 Theatre and Postcolonial Desires Awam Amkpa, 2004-06 This book explores the themes of colonial encounters and postcolonial contests over identity power and culture through the prism of theatre. The struggles it describes unfolded in two cultural settings separated by geography but bound by history in a common web of colonial relations spun by the imperatives of European modernity. In post-imperial England as in its former colony Nigeria, the colonial experience not only hybridized the process of national self-definition but also provided dramatists with the language, imagery and frame of reference to narrate the dynamics of internal wars over culture and national destiny happening within their own societies. The author examines the works of prominent twentieth-century Nigerian and English dramatists such as Wole Soyinka, Femi Osofisan, David Edgar and Caryl Churchill to argue that dramaturgies of resistance in the contexts of both Nigerian as well as its imperial inventor England shared a common allegiance to what he describes as postcolonial desires. That is the aspiration to overcome the legacies of colonialism by imagining alternative universes anchored in democratic cultural pluralism. The plays and their histories serve as filters through which Amkpa illustrates the operation of what he calls overlapping modernities and reconfigures the notions of power and representation, citizenship and subjectivity, colonial and anticolonial nationalisms and postcoloniality. The dramatic works studied in this book embodied a version of postcolonial aspirations that the author conceptualises as transcending temporal locations to encompass varied moments of consciousness for progressive change whether they happened during the heyday of English imperialism in early twentieth-century Nigeria or in response to the exclusionary politics of the Conservative Party in Thatcherite England. Theatre and Postcolonial Desires will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of drama, postcolonial and cultural studies.

Chronicles from the Land of the Happiest People on Earth Wole Soyinka, 2022-08-02 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF THE YEAR. The first Black winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature gives us a tour de force combining elements of a murder mystery, a searing political satire and an Alice in Wonderland-like modern allegory of power and deceit. Los Angeles Times. In an imaginary Nigeria, a cunning entrepreneur is selling body parts stolen from Dr Menka's hospital for use in ritualistic practices. Dr Menka shares the grisly news with his oldest college friend, bon viveur star engineer and Yoruba royal, Duyole Pitan Payne. The life of every party, Duyole is about to assume a prestigious post at the United Nations in New York, but it now seems that someone is determined that he not make it there. And neither Dr Menka nor Duyole knows why or how close the enemy is or how powerful. Chronicles from the Land of the Happiest People on Earth is at once a literary hoot, a crafty whodunit and a scathing indictment of political and social corruption. It is a stirring call to arms against the abuse of power from one of our fiercest political activists who also happens to be a global literary giant.
