The actresses were sometimes the only females on location, and they had to provide their own wardrobe and do their own make up, as well as discourage the advances of over affectionate co-stars. Despite these difficulties, most of the women interviewed for this agree that they had fun. Long before anyone had heard of alien cookbooks, gremlins on the wings of airplanes, or places where pig-faced people are considered beautiful, Rod Serling was the most prestigious writer in American television. As creator, host, and primary writer for The Twilight Zone, Serling became something more than an American icon. When Serling died in 1975 at the age of fifty, he was the most honored, most outspoken, most recognizable, and likely the most prolific writer in television history. Though best known for The Twilight Zone, Serling wrote over 250 scripts for film and television and won an unmatched six Emmy Awards for dramatic writing for four different series. His filmography includes the acclaimed political thriller Seven Days in May and cowriting the original Planet of the Apes. In great detail and including never-published insights drawn directly from Serling's personal correspondence, unpublished writings, speeches, and unproduced scripts, Nicholas Parisi explores Serling's entire massive body of work. With a foreword by Serling's daughter, Anne Serling, Rod Serling: His Life, Work, and Imagination is part biography, part videography, and part critical analysis. It is a painstakingly researched look at all of Serling's work in and out of The Twilight Zone. The Mythic West in Twentieth-century America Robert G. Athearn, 1986. Briefly describes life in the West and discusses the ephemeral nature of the region, western towns, the tourist industry, agriculture, fiction, and the ecology movement. The New York Times Film Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews, 2001-12. From the Oscar-winning blockbusters American Beauty and Shakespeare in Love to Sundance oddities like American Movie and The Tao of Steve to foreign films such as All About My Mother, the latest volume in this popular series features a chronological collection of facsimiles of every film review and awards article published in The New York Times between January 1999 and December 2000. Includes a full index of personal names, titles, and corporate names.
