Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips,2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene

D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry

Hollywood's Last Golden Age Jonathan Kirshner,2012-11-15 Between 1967 and 1976 a number of extraordinary factors converged to produce an uncommonly adventurous era in the history of American film The end of censorship the decline of the studio system economic changes in the industry and demographic shifts among audiences filmmakers and critics created an unprecedented opportunity for a new type of Hollywood movie one that Jonathan Kirshner identifies as the seventies film In Hollywood s Last Golden Age Kirshner shows the ways in which key films from this period including Chinatown Five Easy Pieces The Graduate and Nashville as well as underappreciated films such as The Friends of Eddie Coyle Kluge and Night Moves were important works of art in continuous dialogue with the political social personal and philosophical issues of their times These seventies films reflected the era s social and political upheavals the civil rights movement the domestic consequences of the Vietnam war the sexual revolution women s liberation the end of the long postwar economic boom the Shakespearean saga of the Nixon Administration and Watergate Hollywood films in this brief exceptional moment embraced a new aesthetic and a new approach to storytelling creating self consciously gritty character driven explorations of moral and narrative ambiguity Although the rise of the blockbuster in the second half of the 1970s largely ended Hollywood s embrace of more challenging films Kirshner argues that seventies filmmakers showed that it was possible to combine commercial entertainment with serious explorations of politics society and characters interior lives Arthur Penn's Bonnie and Clyde Lester D. Film/AV News ,1979 The Cult Film Experience J. P. Telotte,2014-02-19 Play it again Sam is the motto of cult film enthusiasts who will watch their favorite movie over and over beyond all reason What is the appeal of cult movies Why do fans turn up in droves at midnight movies or sit through the same three hanky classics from Hollywood s golden era These are some of the questions J P Telotte and twelve other noted film scholars consider in this groundbreaking study of the cult film The book identifies two basic types of cult films older Hollywood movies such as Casablanca that have developed a cult following and midnight movies most notably The Rocky Horror Picture Show Telotte Bruce Kavin and Timothy Corrigan offer thought provoking discussions about why these two types of movies become cult films the sort of audience they attract and the needs they fulfill for that audience Subsequent essays employ a variety of cultural feminist ideological and poststructural strategies for exploring these films In a section on the classical cult film the movie Casablanca receives extensive treatment An essay by T J Ross considers Beat the Devil as a send up of cult films while another essay by Wade Jennings analyzes the cult star phenomenon as personified in Judy Garland Midnight movie madness is explored in essays on The Rocky Horror Picture Show movie satires of the 1950s science fiction double features and horror thrillers Illustrated with scenes from favorite movies and written for both fans and scholars The Cult Film Experience will appeal to a wider audience than the usual suspects Film Review Index Julia Johnson,1986 Film Review Index: 1950-1985 Patricia King Hanson,Stephen L.
