J C VICKERMAN YORKSHIRE UK Extremely helpful and informative Planning to purchase a puppy soon and will continue to use the guidance given

HEATHER FISHER UK What a great resource for those considering acquiring a family pet It contains lots of practical information and tips I have owned dogs as pets all my life and I learned a lot from this book I have 14 year old dog now who has had separation anxiety issues and I wish I had this book when she was young It will unfortunately not be long until she is no longer with us still healthy but showing her age and I will definitely rely on this book when it is time to bring a new puppy into the house I would highly recommend this to anyone thinking about choosing a family pet N CLARK USA I bought this book for my son who is considering buying a puppy I made the mistake of flicking through it before I gave it to him I just couldn't put it down so now it looks as though it's been read from cover to cover which it has Linda Whitwam writes in the most down to earth readable fashion and the book is packed full of really useful information She outlines the pros and cons of all the most common breeds and even the crossbreeds and mixed breeds And when you've decided upon your puppy there's loads of advice on how to look after and train it S E KAYE UK

Hero Dogs Wilma Melville, Paul Lobo, 2019-01-08 Lola was a buckshot riddled stray lost on a Memphis highway Cody was rejected from seven different homes Ace had been sprayed with mace and left for dead on a train track They were deemed unadoptable Untrainable Unsalvageable These would become the same dogs America relied on when its worst disasters hit In 1995 Wilma Melville volunteered as a canine search and rescue SAR handler with her Black Labrador Murphy in the aftermath of the Oklahoma City bombing At the time there were only fifteen FEMA certified SAR dogs in the United States Believing in the value of these remarkable animals to help save lives Wilma knew many more were needed in the event of future major disasters She made a vow to help 168 dogs receive search and rescue training in her lifetime one for every Oklahoma City victim Wilma singlehandedly established the National Disaster Search Dog Foundation SDF to meet this challenge The first canine candidates Ana Dusty and Harley were a trio of golden retrievers with behavioral problems so severe the dogs were considered irredeemable and unadoptable But with patience discipline and love applied during training they proved to have the ability agility and stamina to graduate as SARs Paired with a trio of firefighters they were among the first responders searching the ruins of the World Trade Center following 9/11 setting the standard for the more than 168 of the SDF's search and rescue dogs that followed Beautiful and heart wrenching Hero Dogs is the story of one woman's dream brought to fruition by dedicated volunteers and firefighters and the bonds they forged with the incredible rescued turned rescuer dogs to create one of America's most vital resources in disaster response
