Research In Middle East Economics The Economics Of Middle East Peace A Reassessment:

The Economics of Middle East Peace, 1993      Economics of Middle East Peace S. Roy, 1999-04-20 Devoted to the thorny topic of the economic dimensions of peace in the Middle East This book hopes to clarify some of the main issues confronting different Middle Eastern actors in a post Oslo world and provide a basis for further inquiry and exploration

The Peace Business Markus Bouillon, 2004-02-26 Markus Bouillon's book makes an important and original contribution to the literature on the Middle East peace process It is based on extensive and imaginative research and it is packed with new and fascinating material Bouillon places the behaviour of the elites under an uncompromising lens His work serves as a useful corrective to the conventional wisdom by highlighting the negative effects of the peace process for all but the elites in Israel Jordan and the Palestinian territories Avi Shlaim Oxford University The first full length authoritative account of the various dimensions of business in the context of Arab Israeli peace an empirically dense and nuanced analysis James Piscatori Oxford University      Palestinian Labour Migration to Israel Leila Farsakh, 2005-09-06 Leila Farsakh provides the first comprehensive analysis of the rise and fall of Palestinian labour flows to Israel Highlighting the interdependence between Israel's confiscation of Palestinian land and the use of Palestinian labour she shows how migration has been the result of evolving dynamics of Israeli occupation and the reality of Palestinian labour force growth This study analyzes the pattern of Palestinian labour supply the role of Israel's territorial and economic policies in the Occupied Territories in releasing Palestinian labour from the land and the nature of Israeli demand for Palestinian workers especially in the construction sector where the majority of commuting labourers are concentrated New light is shed on the growth of illegal Israeli settlements in the West Bank and Gaza Strip which are being built by Palestinian workers Palestinian Labour Migration to Israel is original in its analysis of the contrasting forces of separation and the integration between Israel and the Palestinian territories showing that the changing patterns in labour flows reflect a process of redefinition of the 1967 borders It will be of valuable interest to economists and development specialists as well as to scholars policy makers and all those concerned with the Palestinian Israeli conflict      The New Intifada Roane Carey, 2001-10-17 The second Intifada arose in September 2000 The course of the uprising its consequences for the Palestinian people and the Israeli state and its impact on the future of peace in the Middle East are traced here 30 photos      The Berkeley Undergraduate Journal, 2003      Journal of Economic Literature, 2001      Media Politics and Democracy in Palestine Amal Jamal, 2017-09-02 In opposition to the PA liberal as well as Islamic social forces promote policies of protest and resistance through media tools against the authoritarian policies of the PA The media is viewed as a public sphere in which these forces compete Media institutions play an important role in setting the parameters of communication in processes of state building promoting public debate and forming public spheres influence the modes of state-civil society relations Combining concepts of political communication with social movement theory the author examines the extent to which public opinion plays a role in determining the character of the political regime The rising tension between the Palestinian Authority's attempts to deepen its control over society and the reaction to this development by opposition groups informs the analysis of each civil institution the role of NGOs the Islamic movement the women's movement and Palestinian feminism and the liberal democratic intellectual elite are all assessed through their media institutions and communication policies to reveal the character of the emerging Palestinian public sphere

The Palestinian Economy and the Oslo Process Sara Roy, 1998-09-29 The foundations for a viable self-sustaining Palestinian economy have not emerged since the start of the Oslo peace process Economic conditions in the Gaza Strip and West Bank have deteriorated markedly leaving the Palestinian economy weaker now than it was in 1967 when measured against the advances made by other states in the region The reasons for Palestinian economic decline are many but turn on one key issue Israeli closure policy Closure restricts the movement of labor and goods and distorts rational economic activity Now a permanent feature of the local economy closure has resulted in the physical and economic separation of the West Bank and Gaza Strip and their separation from Israel high unemployment permanent unemployment for a growing segment of the labor force a doubling of poverty levels increasing child labor constrained trade relations and a growing need for relief and social assistance among Palestinians Closure has devastated Palestinian economic growth and reform and has made it increasingly difficult for people to meet their basic needs If closure continues to be enforced the economic and political changes promised by the Oslo agreements and now so desperately needed in the West Bank and Gaza will not be possible

The Palestinian National Movement Amal Jamal, 2005-06-08 A comprehensive up-to-date account of the dynamics in the Palestinian political arena Ann M Lesch Villanova University This innovative study examines the internal dynamics of the Palestinian political elite and their impact on the struggle to establish a Palestinian state The PLO leadership has sought to prevent the rise of any alternative in the West Bank and Gaza Strip that can challenge its authority to represent Palestinian aspirations for self-determination Drawing on Palestinian sources and interviews with Palestinian political leaders Jamal argues that the Fatah leadership has attempted to mobilize new social forces local secular nationalist and Islamist movements while undermining their ability to develop independent power structures This policy has served to radicalize the younger local elites contributing to the tensions that precipitated the first and second intifadas Israel's policies have undermined the legitimacy of the national elite while enhancing the Islamist opposition's ideological legitimacy In this way internal elite disunity and growing political differentiation have worked against development of a common Palestinian strategy of state building

A Very Political Economy Rex Brynen, 2000 A Very Political Economy spares no political sensitivities in its dissection of the aid process but also argues persuasively that without international assistance there would have been no Palestinian Authority left to negotiate with and no peace process to revive

Journal of Palestine Studies, 1999 A quarterly on Palestinian affairs and the Arab-Israeli conflict

Policy Alternatives for Sustained Palestinian Development and State Formation, 2009

The IMF, World Bank and Policy Reform Alberto Paloni, Maurizio

Zanardi,2012-10-12 The debate on whether or not the International Monetary Fund and World Bank and their intervention strategies are a positive force for change in the developing world continues to rage Featuring both macroeconomic and microeconomic approaches this book brings together an international team of contributors and centres upon three broad themes the ideology of the IMF and World Bank poverty reduction conditionality In exploring these themes this book will be a valuable reference for postgraduate students and professionals in the fields of development studies and political economy

Advances in Austrian Economics Peter J. Boettke,S. Ikeda,1998-12 This third volume in the series is divided into four parts The first presents a symposium on models of socialism the second presents current research the third review essays and the fourth book reviews International Review of Economics & Finance ,1998 American Jewry Christian

Wiese,Cornelia Wilhelm,2016-11-03 American Jewry explores new transnational questions in Jewish history analyzing the historical cultural and social experience of American Jewry from 1654 to the present day and evaluates the relationship between European and American Jewish history Did the hopes of Jewish immigrants to establish an independent American Judaism in a free and pluralistic country come to fruition How did Jews in America define their relationship to the Old World of Europe both before and after the Holocaust What are the religious political and cultural challenges for American Jews in the twenty first century Internationally renowned scholars come together in this volume to present new research on how immigration from Western and Eastern Europe established a new and distinctively American Jewish identity that went beyond the traditions of Europe yet remained attached in many ways to its European origins Analytical Peace

Economics Partha Gangopadhyay,Nasser Elkanj,2016-10-26 The Middle East is at an unprecedented crossroads between the established Euro centric system and the emerging Asian powerhouses like India and China Their economies policies and social structures are a half way house between these two dominant groups and are an important case study to examine in order to highlight future prospects and problems of the global system The Middle East is an important missing piece in a huge global puzzle This book makes a significant step towards understanding that puzzle and offers solutions for how to fully integrate this missing jigsaw piece into the global economic system Analytical Peace Economics The Illusion of War for Peace focuses on three critical issues in the Middle East that dominate discussions about their place in the global political economy conflict oil and regional development Examining economic and social development in juxtaposition with conflict and peace this book adapts develops and applies historical geographical economic and psychological methods creating a nuanced approach to the collective understanding of the economic and social dynamics in the region By developing theoretical models and analysing empirical research this book offers an economic analysis of the attempt to find peace through war and seeks to find alternative solutions This book will be of interest to researchers policy makers and doctoral students of economics finance and social sciences as well as advanced undergraduate students of peace economics and development studies

Aid, Diplomacy and Facts on the Ground Michael Keating,Anne Le More,Robert Lowe,2005 This volume reviews the lessons that can be drawn from external funding for the Israeli Palestinian peace and reconstruction process over the last decade What are the implications for Palestinians Israelis and international actors of this experience in light of plans for Israeli withdrawal from the Gaza Strip What are the realistic possibilities for a viable Palestinian state What are the responsibilities opportunities and constraints for external actors A major aspect of the last decade has been the three way relationship between aid diplomacy and facts on the ground during one of the most difficult and frustrating periods in the history of the Middle East This book offers analyses of the relationship between aid and diplomacy over this period and in particular the role that external assistance has played and could now play in supporting peace strategies Aimed at senior policymakers diplomats donors and academics involved in the peace and reconstruction process in the West Bank and Gaza Aid Diplomacy and Facts on the Ground will also provide lessons for those involved in similar processes in other regions Contributors include Yossi Alpher Bitter Lemons Geoffrey Aronson Foundation for Middle East Peace Christian Berger External Relations Directorate General EC Rex Brynen McGill University Claude Bruderlein Harvard University Larry Garber former USAID Mission Director Jerusalem Eyad El Sarraj Gaza Community and Mental Health Hospital Jeff Halper Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions Mustaq Khan SOAS Karma Nabulsi Nuffield College Oxford University Harish Parvathaneni UNRWA Gaza Nigel Roberts World Bank Jerusalem Sarah Roy Harvard University Nader Said Birzeit University David Shearer OCHA Jerusalem and Jimmy Weinblatt Ben Gurion University      Index Islamicus ,1999
