Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1998 A Global Perspective on Real Estate Cycles Stephen J. Brown,Crocker H. Liu,2012-12-06 In March 1999 New York University Salomon Center in association with the Department of Finance at NYU Stern held a one day conference on the impact of real estate cycles on the real estate industry both from a domestic as well as an international perspective The conference featured the leading research on this topic in the United States Europe and Asia Currently the real estate industry is at a critical point New development projects around the world are being put on hold given recent developments in the international capital markets The industry is hard hit by the decline in real estate investment trust REIT share prices and a shrinking pool of capital for real estate ventures This has unfortunately coincided with serious financial problems of very large hedge funds and other institutional investors in the market for commercial mortgage backed securities There is need for new insights into the implications of U S and global real estate cycles on real estate securities including REITs and mortgage backed securities as well as direct real estate investment This global orientation is important given the high mobility of capital into the real estate the increasing integration of real estate markets and the proposed expansion of real estate investment trusts REIT into international real estate The process of globalization has resulted in increased competition between cities for the attraction of investment

Australian national bibliography ,1961 Federal Register ,2004-11 The Economics of Commercial Property Markets Michael Ball,Colin Lizieri,Bryan MacGregor,2012-10-12 This new text provides a rigorous analysis of real estate markets Three main sections cover microeconomics of property markets the macroeconomics of commercial property the financial economics of property Global empirical examples illustrate the theories and issues This often complex area is made accessible each chapter contains a boxed summary and questions for self testing or discussion Street Commerce Andres Sevtsuk,2020-06-12 A comprehensive analysis of the issues involved in planning for and facilitating successful street commerce Street commerce has gained prominence in urban areas where demographic shifts such as increasing numbers of single people and childless empty nesters along with technological innovations enabling greater flexibility of work locations and hours have changed how people shop and dine out Contemporary city dwellers are demanding smaller scale stores located in public spaces that are accessible on foot or by public transit At the same time the emergence of online retail undermines both the dominance and viability of big box discount businesses and drives brick and mortar stores to focus as much on the experience of shopping as on the goods and services sold Meanwhile in many developing countries the bulk of urban retail activity continues to take place on the street even as new car oriented shopping centers are on the rise In light of such trends street commerce will play an important role in twenty first century cities particularly in producing far reaching benefits for the environment and local communities Although street commerce is deeply intertwined with myriad contemporary urban visions and planning goals walkability quality of life inclusion equity and economic resilience it has rarely been the focus of systematic research and informed practice In Street Commerce Andres Sevtsuk presents a comprehensive analysis of the issues involved in implementing successful street commerce Drawing on economic theory urban design principles regulatory policies and merchant organization models he conceptualizes key problems and offers innovative solutions He provides a range of examples from around the world to detail how different cities and communities have bolstered and reinvigorated their street commerce According to Sevtsuk successful street commerce can only be achieved when the private sector urban policy makers planners and the public are equipped with the relevant knowledge and tools to plan and regulate it Business Geography and New Real Estate Market Analysis Grant Ian Thrall,2002-04-18

This work focuses on integrating land use location science with the technology of geographic information systems GIS The text describes the basic principles of location decision and the means for applying them in order to improve the real estate decision Government Reports Annual Index ,1991 The 1985-94 global real estate cycle : its causes and consequences Bertrand Renaud,1995 International Real Estate Economics Piyush Tiwari,Michael White,2017-09-16 As the real estate market becomes increasingly international it is essential to understand how specific national markets operate and relate to one another The authors identify the similarities and differences observed across European Asian and American markets providing a framework to explain how these diverse national markets converge Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1993-08 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988

Reconstructing Urban Economics Franklin Obeng-Odoom,2016-08-15 Neoclassical economics the intellectual bedrock of modern capitalism faces growing criticisms as many of its key assumptions and policy prescriptions are systematically challenged Yet there remains one field of economics where these limitations continue virtually unchallenged the study of cities and regions in built environment economics In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom draws on institutional Georgist and Marxist economics to clearly but comprehensively show what the key issues are today in thinking about urban economics In doing so he demonstrates the widespread tensions and contradictions in the status quo showing how to reconstruct urban economics in order to create a more just society and environment Energy Research Abstracts ,1978 Semiannual with semiannual and annual indexes References to all scientific and technical literature coming from DOE its laboratories energy centers and contractors Includes all works deriving from DOE other related government sponsored information and foreign nonnuclear information Arranged under 39 categories e g Biomedical sciences basic studies Biomedical sciences applied studies Health and safety and Fusion energy Entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Corporate author subject report number indexes Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1993 Advances in Business, Management and Entrepreneurship Ratih Hurriyati,Benny Tjahjono,Ikuro Yamamoto,Agus Rahayu,Ade Gafar Abdullah,Ari Arifin Danuwijaya,2020-01-06 The GCBME Book Series aims to promote the quality and methodical reach of the Global Conference on Business Management Entrepreneurship which is intended as a high quality scientific contribution to the science of business management and entrepreneurship The Contributions are the main reference articles on the topic of each book and have been subject to a strict peer review process conducted by experts in the fields The conference provided opportunities for the delegates to exchange new ideas and implementation of experiences to establish business or research connections and to find Global Partners for future collaboration The conference and resulting volume in the book series is expected to be held and appear annually The year 2019 theme of book and conference is Creating Innovative and Sustainable Value added Businesses in the Disruption Era The ultimate goal of GCBME is to provide a medium forum for educators researchers scholars managers graduate students and professional business persons from the diverse cultural backgrounds to present and discuss their researches knowledge and innovation within the fields of business management and entrepreneurship The GCBME conferences cover major thematic groups yet opens to other relevant topics Organizational Behavior Innovation Marketing Management Financial Management and Accounting Strategic Management Entrepreneurship and Green Business

The Canadian Home Marc Denhez, 1994-09-01 Would you want to live in a factory molded cube made of plastic asbestos and UFFI With an H bomb shelter and the nuclear furnace underneath Or a house designed by God to harmonize with the cosmic Muzak The Canadian Home explains how our housing came to be including the pagan origins of colonial homes why Tudor is not Tudor and where so many predictions went wrong But the book is not just about tastes and floor plans it also celebrates technological innovation from prehistoric Inuit windows of stretched seal guts to the R 2000 house and habitation in space For the first time records of the Canadian Home Builders Association have been opened to reveal the power plays of bureaucrats developers architects and financiers and how they affect the quality affordability and choice of our housing today Fiery debates over the sublime and the ridiculous e g 1940s architectural articles on whether Toronto should be bombed are set against the backdrop of Canadian politics and industrial history Whether the reader's interest is in construction politics or home decor this book explains why the roof over our heads is the way it is Pierre Berton In his fascinating study of Canadian shelter Marc Denhez takes us on a 20 000 year journey from the days of the cave the tipi and the igloo to the H bomb shelter and the mobile home This is in short a lively as well as an erudite study of the development of housing It deserves a permanent position on any library shelf If you live in a house or own one or build one if you have a roof over your head read this book A housing book with punch and humour immensely enjoyable Charles Lynch author journalist and former governor of Heritage Canada

Mortgage Revenue Bonds D. Durning, 2012-12-06 This book brings together much of the best policy oriented research on state and local mortgage revenue bond MRB programs Most of this research was conducted to evaluate the impact of MRB subsidies on housing markets and potential home buyers All of the research is concerned with the so what question often ignored by economists it addresses the implications of the research results for public policy decisions concerning MRBs The need for this book becomes apparent when reading the transcripts of congressional hearings on MRBs At those hearings the policy debate seems underinformed Aside from discussions of the General Accounting Office s periodic evaluations of MRB programs and impassioned rebuttals by MRB proponents the hearing testimony consists mostly of assertions and anecdotal evidence with some yes MRBs work and no they don t exchanges Although the research in this book may not improve the level of the policy debate on MRBs it can inform decision makers experts and citizens interested in housing policy about issues that should be examined when considering the future of MRBs Also it can point other researchers interested in housing policy in the direction of the questions about MRB programs that need additional attention
