Research Methods for Law Mike McConville, Wing Hong (Eric) Chui, 2024-12-31 This third edition of Research Methods for Law offers students in a range of disciplines law sociology psychology criminology forensic science social legal studies and social welfare an advanced introduction to research methods in an accessible and grounded way As well as covering theoretical comparative and interdisciplinary methods the book breaks new ground by offering a focus on topics of contemporary and developing concerns in areas such as Artificial Intelligence BRICS Continental Legal Systems Islamic Law Gender Race and the Virtual World The expert contributors draw on their vast experience in teaching and research to encourage students and provide sure pathways for their own enterprises with technical competence and adherence to ethical standards Proceedings of the 3rd Borobudur International Symposium on Humanities and Social Science 2021 (BIS-HSS 2021) Muji Setiyo, Agus Setiawan, Veni Soraya Dewi, Fitriana Yuliastuti, Chrisna Bagus Edhita Praja, Lintang Muliawanti, Zulfikar Bagus Pambuko, 2023-02-10 This is an open access book Still related to the big theme of reinforcement the SDG s at the previous conference we try to invite academics and researchers in the world to participate in the 3rd Borobudur International Symposium 2021 3rd BIS 2021 As we know The COVID 19 pandemic and its impact on all 17 SDGs have demonstrated that what began as a health catastrophe swiftly transformed into a human and socioeconomic crisis In September 2019 the UN Secretary General urged all sectors of society to mobilize for a decade of action on three fronts global action to ensure increased leadership increased resources and smarter solutions for the Sustainable Development Goals local action to embed the necessary transitions into governments policies budgets institutions and regulatory frameworks and international action to ensure greater leadership increased resources and smarter solutions for the Sustainable Development Goals Especially in 3rd BIS 2021 we brought up Decade of Action towards Environmental Issues Advancing the Innovation to Recover our Planet as main theme The conference will be held on Wednesday December 15 2021 in Magelang Central Java Indonesia Scope includes Art Linguistics Communication Economics Education Government Studies Health Administration Hospitality International Relations Law Pharmacy Political Studies Psychology Public Health Religious Studies Sociology Health Sciences In the Shadow of Death Elizabeth Beck, Sarah Britto, Arlene Andrews, 2007-02-08 The press called Martin's actions a crime spree Already convicted of armed robbery Martin was facing the death penalty In less than two weeks the jury would decide his fate Terrified that his son would be sentenced to die Phillip did the only thing he felt he could do in an act of faith and desperation in his garage with the car exhaust running Phillip made the consummate sacrifice to spare his son the ultimate punishment Ironically his suicide presented Martin's with another chance at life the jury moved by Martin's loss spared his life Phillip's story like those of the other parents siblings children and cousins chronicled in this book vividly illustrates the precarious position family members of capital offenders occupy in the criminal justice system At once outsiders and victims they live in the shadow of death crushed by trauma grief and helplessness In this penetrating account of guilt and innocence shame and triumph devastating loss and ultimate redemption the voices of these family members add a new dimension to debates about capital punishment and how communities can prevent and address crime Restorative justice theory which views violent crime as an extreme violation of relationships searches for ways to hold offenders accountable and meets the needs of victims and communities torn apart by the crime organizes these narratives and integrates offenders families into the process of transforming conflict and promoting justice and healing for all What emerges from hundreds of hours worth of in depth interviews with family members of offenders and victims legal teams and leaders in the abolition and restorative justice movements is a vision of justice strongly rooted in the social fabric of communities Showing that forgiveness and recovery are possible in the wake of even the most heinous crimes while holding victims stories sacred this eye opening book bridges the pain of living in the shadow of death with the possibility of a reparative form of justice Anyone working with victims offenders and their families from lawyers and social workers to mediators and activists will find this riveting work indispensable to their efforts Case Study in Social Research Barbara Sena, 2023-10-23 The Case Study in Social Research proposes and develops an innovative rigorous and up to date methodological clarification of the case study approach in the social sciences to consistently and consciously apply it to different fields of social research It aspires to provide the reader not with a set of prescriptive rules but rather with a methodological awareness of the complexity and peculiarity of applying a case study so that they may carefully evaluate the limits and potential of conducting this type of investigation What is case study research in the sociological field really How do we carry out a social inquiry of this type How does it differ from other social research approaches In answering these questions this book leads the reader on a historical epistemological technical and applicative path in the methodology of social research by examining all aspects of the case study approach The aim is to respond to as yet still equivocal and misunderstood methodological issues and provide a systematic illustration and exemplification of the case study approach beginning from its sociological and methodological roots its research design and on through to its preparation and administration Space is also dedicated to specifically and practically understanding the differences between the case study and the other social research approaches with which it is often confused in literature such as ethnographic research grounded theory or qualitative research This book is suitable for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students in the social sciences and as a supplementary textbook to primary methods texts as well as for social researchers and other practitioners and academics with a firm grounding in social research methodologies PHILOSOPHY AND SOCIAL WORK: Philosophical Bases, Models and Sources for a Humanistic Social Work 2023 HARDCOVER EDITION ,2023-05-23 This edition comprises brings together incorporates synthesizes some of the author's works books articles chapters ideas fragments in print and electronic form with themes topics ideas that address the relation between philosophy and social work welfare policy with emphasis on the humanistic paradigm approach published in academic format between 2011 and 2023 No new sections were introduced but the bibliography was partially updated bringing to attention relevant titles that appeared after the previous edition In the book it is analyzed the complex and delicate relationship between philosophy and social work welfare between the philosophical system of concepts and ideas and the theory axiology of social work welfare especially from a humanistic perspective bringing face to face on the one hand the great branches or sub domains of philosophy respectively ontology ethics social philosophy personology and on the other hand the great sub domains or issues of social work welfare respectively the way of representation the client and the social problem difficult situation risk situation vulnerability resilience etc the system of constitutive values and principles the way of representation of the professional and the specific practice methodology etc The relation between philosophy and social work is no doubt biunivocal philosophy encompasses in its purpose and history the social issue dimension in its broader human sense especially with the preoccupations in the sphere of ethics and social philosophy but also of the existentialist humanistic and humanistic personalist philosophies as the social work as general theory and axiology cannot be conceived without a consistent philosophical representation Both the system of fundamental values and the mission or methodology of social work welfare are most often stated in the terms of an explicit applied social ethical and humanistic philosophy even if not always this aspect it is highlighted in an assumed way An important observation that must to be done is that the author does not proposes in his book and nor does it accomplish an exhaustive profound and complete approach and exposure of the relation connection from a humanistic point of view between philosophy and social work welfare between their sub domains but only he brings into attention this subject this theme very little approached in the literature in relation to its indisputable importance Regarding the destination of this paper its design content and bibliography are made in such a way that to be useful both to the academic community to students and teachers in philosophy and social sciences and practices and also to the professional community to social workers psychotherapists educators social managers etc
