Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on the Near East and South Asia, 1973 Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World Max Haller in collaboration, Anja Eder, 2016-03-03 The modern world is characterised by pervasive economic inequalities Strong economic growth in some developing countries has contributed to a degree to a reduction in the levels of inequality between nations yet inequality within nations remains high and in some cases continues to increase Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World investigates the reasons for these striking differences exploring the coincidence and interaction between economic stratification and ethnic differentiation Drawing on extensive international survey and statistical data the author develops a new theory and concrete hypotheses concerning the conditions which lead toward extreme inequality and those which tend toward greater equality A systematic examination of the interaction between class structures social stratification and ethnic differentiation this book sheds light on the manner in which the resulting social structures produce different levels of economic inequality offering a fivefold typology of patterns of ethnic stratification which can be applied to present day world regions Drawing on the work of Max Weber to provide a rigorous investigation of inequality around the world it demonstrates what sociology as a science of social reality can significantly contribute to our understanding of global economic stratification The book is relevant for a wide social scientific audience particularly for sociologists economists and political scientists working in a comparative perspective Soviet Union Review ,1929 Soviet Life ,1980-07
