Look Ma No Hands:

Look Ma, No Hands Gabrielle Drolet, 2025-05-20 A humorous profound debut memoir about chronic pain accessibility and young adulthood by an acclaimed essayist and cartoonist In 2021 Gabrielle Drolet developed a condition that made her unable to use her hands It only worsened over time and as a writer and artist she had to learn new ways of creating and expressing herself The experience completely changed her life and her outlook Look Ma No Hands explores both the difficulty and the humour of developing chronic and life altering pain in her twenties Each chapter looks at a different aspect of her life touched by her disability how she learned to write when she couldn't type how she learned to manage the most mundane daily tasks She moves cities and as her work as a writer and cartoonist builds has to navigate different byzantine health systems without the privilege or security of having a family doctor even as she moves into her new apartment and embarks on first dates And she does all of this with the most wonderful sense of the absurd Look Ma No Hands is utterly charming and shares profound reflections on life's curveballs and explores how in Drolet's words you can live a full even funny life in a disabled body

Look Ma, No Hands Christina Laflamme, 2022-06-23 On Saturday June 27th 2020 after 105 days of Covid isolation alone in my tiny single souled apartment in Toronto I took off on my old Raleigh bicycle packing nothing but some bike tools camping gear and a change of clothes In search of some personal sanity amidst a global pandemic I headed for Vancouver by myself nearly five thousand kilometers away The day after I left however my mother died My relationship with my mother had been complicated Her sudden death was completely unexpected and left me with many unsaid words unanswered questions and unfinished business Mom how do I write our final chapter and find peace for us without your help or input I hadn't a clue However with her ashes in tow mom riding VIP up front on the handlebars somehow I was we were going to have to figure it out And this is how my solo journey from Toronto to Vancouver became a bicycle ride for two But could I at the age of forty five after not having been on a bike for four years just get up and ride thousands of kilometres across the country and then up the skyscraping mountain range of the Canadian Rockies Especially after only three training rides to prepare There was only one way to find out Ready Mom Let's go
