The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions Adam Silverstein, Guy G. Stroumsa, Moshe Blidstein, 2015-10-01 The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions includes authoritative yet accessible studies on a wide variety of topics dealing comparatively with Judaism Christianity and Islam as well as with the interactions between the adherents of these religions throughout history The comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has been undertaken for many centuries More often than not these studies reflected a polemical rather than an ecumenical approach to the topic Since the nineteenth century the comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has not been pursued either intensively or systematically and it is only recently that the comparative study of Judaism Christianity and Islam has received more serious attention This volume contributes to the emergence and development of the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions a discipline which is now in its formative stages This Handbook includes both critical and supportive perspectives on the very concept of the Abrahamic religions and discussions on the role of the figure of Abraham in these religions It features 32 essays by the foremost scholars in the field on the historical interactions between Abrahamic communities on Holy Scriptures and their interpretation on conceptions of religious history on various topics and strands of religious thought such as monotheism and mysticism on rituals of prayer purity and sainthood on love in the three religions and on fundamentalism The volume concludes with three epilogues written by three influential figures in the Christian Jewish and Muslim communities to provide a broader perspective on the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions This ground breaking work introduces readers to the challenges and rewards of studying these three religions together

Under The Influence Cynthia Robinson, Leyla Rouhi, 2005 A volume of eleven innovative essays on cultural production in medieval Castile blending original archival work with a rigorous consideration of comparative methodology for the study of religions and languages in contact

Writing and Representation in Medieval Islam Julia Bray, 2006-04-18 With contributions from specialists in different areas of classical Islamic thought this accessible volume explores the ways in which medieval Muslims saw interpreted and represented the world around them in their writings Focusing mainly on the eighth to tenth centuries AD known as the formative period of Islamic thought the book examines historiography literary prose and Arabic prose genres which do not fall neatly into either category Filling a gap in the literature by providing detailed discussions of both primary texts and recent scholarship Writing and Representation in Medieval Islam will be welcomed by students and scholars of classical Arabic literature Islamic history and medieval history Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2005-10-31 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the seventh and sixteenth century This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture art history history history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more This reference provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization including the many scientific artistic and religious developments as well as all aspects of daily life and culture For a full list of entries contributors and more visit www.routledge.com/middleages Islamic The Attributes of God in Islamic Thought Mansoor Khalil, 2024-03-18 The debate over Allah's attribute the nature and the inner articulation of Allah is one of the focal debates in the intellectual history of Islam This edited collection aims to highlight and examine some aspects of this debate in their original context based on the relevant primary literature By showing that even an apparently self evident concept such as Allah which lies at the heart of every reading of Islam is highly ambiguous and polysemous the chapters also emphasise the plurality that has always existed in Islamic thought Through highlighting the philosophical and theological reflections on the concept of Allah the results of this study challenge the juristic reading of Islam in which Allah's function consists mainly in providing a detailed plan for the human life and also rewarding or punishing the ones who deviates from it The book also attempts to demonstrate the relevance and the actuality of the tradition and to stress its contemporaneity This volume makes a significant part of the intellectual tradition of Islam accessible for students and scholars of Islamic theology Islamic philosophy Islamic studies and the like as well as providing a secondary source for teaching on the debate in question Islamic Mysticism Contested I.J.F. de Jong, Bernd Radtke, 2021-09-20 Islamic mysticism was contested from the formative period of Islam till the present Criticism of and opposition to mystical conceptions of Islam and their adherents constitute an integral part of an ongoing debate inside the Islamic tradition Controversies and polemics concerning Islamic mysticism often shaped and coincided with socio political configurations This volume results from a collective effort by a group of Islamicists and area specialists with a variety of disciplinary orientations to arrive at a comprehensive view of these controversies and polemics wherever and whenever found The thirty five contributions and the introduction are united in their historicising approach while taking into account the wider socio political context Detailed indexes facilitate consultation of the work and give it an added value as work of reference and research tool Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Julie Scott Meisami, Paul Starkey, 1998 This reference work covers the classical transitional and modern periods Editors and contributors cover an international scope of Arabic literature in many countries      Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today's Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today's Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization      Islam and the Problem of Black Suffering Sherman A. Jackson, 2009 In his controversial 1973 book Is God a White Racist William R Jones sharply criticized black theologians for their agnostic approach to black suffering noting that the doctrine of an omnibenevolent God poses very significant problems for a perennially oppressed community He proposed a humanocentric theism which denies God's sovereignty over human history and imputes autonomous agency to humans By rendering humans alone responsible for moral evil Jones's theology freed blacks to revolt against the evil of oppression without revolting against God Sherman Jackson now places Jones's argument in conversation with the classical schools of Islamic theology The problem confronting the black community is not simply proving that God exists says Jackson The problem rather is establishing that God cares No religious expression that fails to tackle the problem of black suffering can hope to enjoy a durable tenure in the black community For the Muslim therefore it is essential to find a Quranic Islamic grounding for the protest oriented agenda of black religion That is the task Jackson undertakes in this pathbreaking work Jackson's previous book Islam and the Blackamerican OUP 2006 laid the groundwork for this ambitious project Its sequel Islam and the Problem of Black Suffering solidifies Jackson's reputation as the foremost theologian of the black American Islamic movement      Islamic Humanism Lenn E. Goodman, 2005-11-24 This book is an attempt to explain how in the face of increasing religious authoritarianism in medieval Islamic civilization some Muslim thinkers continued to pursue essentially humanistic rational and scientific discourses in the quest for knowledge meaning and values Drawing on a wide range of Islamic writings from love poetry to history to philosophical theology Goodman shows that medieval Islam was open to individualism occasional secularism skepticism even liberalism      Persian Wisdom in Arabic Garb (2 vols.) 'Alī b. 'Ubayda al-Rayḥānī, 2006-12-01 This volume introduces Al b Ubayda al Ray n d 219 834 one of the central figures in the transmission of classical Greek and Persian wisdom into Arabic It offers an edition translation and evaluation of his book Jaw hir al kilam one of the oldest collections of proverbial wisdom and moralia in Arabic as well as other remaining pieces of his works The first part of the book surveys the content of his more than sixty books and suggests that among his translations from Middle Persian into Arabic were the Sind b d n ma and Bilawhar wa Budh sf Moreover he emerges as the author of the famous al Adab al agh r heretofore wrongly attributed to Ibn al Muqaffa The second part contains the Arabic texts and translations as well as a rich documentation of their sources and their further transmission Islamic Law and Muslim

Same-Sex Unions Junaid Jahangir,Hussein Abdullatif,2016-10-03 This book is written with the objective of reasonably addressing the need of Muslim gays and lesbians for a life which involves intimacy affection and companionship within the confines of a legal contract Contemporary conservative Muslim leaders unreasonably promote false marriages with straight spouses failing which they prescribe the solution of permanent celibacy as a test This book delves into an extensive scholarship on the same sources that conservative Muslim leaders draw on the Qur an Hadith and jurisprudence It is argued that the primary sources of Muslim knowledge addressed sexual acts between the same gender in the context of inhospitality exploitation coercion and disease but not true same sex unions past Muslim scholarship is silent on the issue of sexual orientation and Muslim same sex unions The arguments of contemporary conservative Muslim leaders are deconstructed and the case for Muslim same sex unions is made based on jurisprudential principles and thorough arguments from within the Muslim tradition Would You Lie to Save a Life Michael Glenn Maness,2007-09 The Sparrow and the Crow is and will be an epic journey deep within your wildest imagination It takes you in places that light cannot exist but love does It makes you fear what you don t believe and except what you can t conceive Christ was a flower a perfect flower taken into the eye of the sparrow Hatred rage anger became justice caught within the heart of the crow The power of Christ has traveled through the ages searching for two people a man and a woman who are not perfect before God but their hearts are pure and one with creation They are the chosen ones Two people willing to die for each other for no other reason than to preserve a single burning light within a darkened night A candlelight burning within the Eye of the Sparrow His promise to Adam and Eve becomes the Omen of the Crow That he who seeks the rose shall inherit the Heavens and Earth forever more

Encyclopaedia of Islam Ian Richard Netton,2013-12-19 This Encyclopedia covers the full range of Islamic thought It takes substantial note of contemporary trends across the Muslim world and the material on historical Islam has contemporary reference A Lover of God Dora Zsom,2024-07-01 One of the so called ecstatic or intoxicated Sufis of Baghdad Ab usayn al N r d 907 8 was famous for his quasi blasphemous utterances and shocking public behavior He was often enraptured by a passionate love of God that led him to eccentric acts that scandalized both ordinary people and the religious authorities Besides yielding to divine love and beauty he would occasionally come near succumbing to bodily temptations and carnal passions Despite N r s outrageous behavior Junayd the moderate or sober Sufi par excellence held him in high esteem kept corresponding with him and commented upon his controversial ecstatic sayings This book collects N r s literary legacy by surveying the sources for his life poems sayings and comments on the Quran including an exchange of letters between him and Junayd preserved in the Cairo Genizah and by discussing the authorship of the Stations of the Hearts which has been widely attributed to N r

Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil, 2012-05-03 Can non Muslims be saved And can those who are damned to Hell ever be redeemed In Islam and the Fate of Others Mohammad Hassan Khalil examines the writings of influential medieval and modern Muslim scholars on the controversial and consequential question of non Muslim salvation This is an illuminating study of four of the most prominent figures in the history of Islam Ghazali Ibn Arabi Ibn Taymiyya and Rashid Rida Khalil demonstrates that though these paradigmatic figures tended to affirm the superiority of the Islamic message they also envisioned a God of mercy and justice and a Paradise populated by Muslims and non Muslims Along the way Khalil examines the writings of many other important writers such as Ibn Qayyim al Jawziyya Mulla Sadra Shah Wali Allah of Delhi Muhammad Ali of Lahore James Robson Sayyid Qutb Yusuf al Qaradawi Farid Esack Reza Shah Kazemi T J Winter and Muhammad Legenhausen Jacket
