Love Too Strong To Die:

A Love Too Strong To Die Hebert Centrone, Elizabeth Benton, 2003-07 Adventurer at heart Hebert Centrone has lived on the edge literally On his journey through life he never gave up on love and kept searching for his soul mate An eyewitness to glory terror and tragedy he has braved discrimination and bitter cold snow storms to become what his friends call an extraordinary mountaineer He hasn't told his story in his own words until now Among the most intrepid and fearless climbers Hebert Centrone has traveled from coast to coast in search of fresh challenges and new heights to conquer Along the way he has accumulated an extraordinary list of experiences including an excruciating night without a tent in a shallow snow cave With the triumphs came harrowing incidents of suffering and many humiliating situations at the hand of his climbing partner This is just not the end but the very beginning of a journey full of great expectations Wild Jack Caroline Lee Hentz, 1854

Teaching in the southern African nation of Botswana in the early 1980s Richard Christensen faced a new world one endlessly fascinating and challenging Experiencing warm hospitality from many people sharing both joyful celebrations and painful struggles with students he and his family encountered a deeper sense of the true meaning of community Travel in apartheid South Africa and war weary Zimbabwe gave him a fuller understanding of the reality of oppression and how people of faith endured their plight and kept hope alive In this experience so surprising in many ways he came to a deepened realization of the genuine freedom of the gospel and the hope it affords us He saw that relationships are what save us that the salvation of God in Christ is not merely personal and individual but communal and that we are thus more dependent upon one another than we realize Learning to see the world with new eyes he discovered not only a more expansive vision of the church and the world but also a more honest and complete understanding of himself as a product of an affluent and segregated society
