Love Waits:

Making Chastity Sexy Christine J. Gardner, 2011-07-28 Students of rhetoric should appreciate Making Chastity Sexy for the sophistication of its argument about counter public advocacy. Others will welcome it for keen insights about the recent history of American evangelicals and even more Christine Gardner's striking comparisons between chastity rhetoric in the United States and in East Africa. Mark Noll, author of The New Shape of World Christianity: How American Experience Reflects Global Faith. Christine Gardner has written a terrific book that moves beyond tired survey research based studies to give us a rich and engaging in depth analysis of the language through which evangelical abstinence movements attempt to persuade teenagers to refrain from having sex. We learn not only about programs in the United States but also in Africa where abstinence has been advocated to prevent HIV/AIDS. Making Chastity Sexy shows clearly the power of rhetoric and its unanticipated consequences. Robert Wuthnow, Princeton University. Written in an engaging, often journalistic style, Making Chastity Sexy offers compelling insight into the rhetorical strategies of contemporary evangelical sexual abstinence campaigns and illuminates a remarkable variety of responses to these campaigns by teens and young adults. Angela G. Ray, Associate Professor of Communication Studies, Northwestern University. Sex and Sexuality in Modern Southern Culture Assistant Professor of American Studies, Trent Brown, Trent Brown, 2017-09-18 Taking an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Southern sexuality, Sex and Sexuality in Modern Southern Culture offers twelve essays that explore the history of the expression and embodiment of sexuality in the context of the broad cultural and social changes the South underwent in the decades following World War II. Contributors examine prostitution networks in the region, interracial sex in the civil rights movement, Freaknik and black male sexuality, queer Florida, conservative women and sexuality in the 1980s and 1990s, and the fiction of Larry Brown. No other collection of essays or narrative history attempts an overview of sex and sexualities in the American South in recent decades. More than simply an overview, however, this volume also seeks to provide models for further scholarship. The Power of Erotic Celibacy Lisa Isherwood, 2006-04-10 This title considers various issues regarding celibacy and Christianity, including the following: how the female body is used to underpin exploitative social systems; how Christianity has tried to control the bodies of women through regulations about the female body; how women have used celibacy to subvert the social order; how radical incarnationism and queer theory create new challenges to traditional understandings of celibacy; how being erotic and celibate may manifest in social, sexual, and political ways. It also explores how being erotically celibate challenges patriarchal society and opens up new theological understanding. Parenting with Kingdom Purpose Kenneth S. Hemphill, Ken Hemphill, Richard Ross, 2005 Designed to help parents instill in their children a faith that has a foundation, the authors reveal what must be instilled in today's youth for faith to be a reality in their adult lives. The Routledge International Handbook of Sex Therapy and Religion Caleb Jacobson, 2025-09-30 The Routledge International Handbook of Sex Therapy and Religion is an invaluable resource for clinicians, religious scholars, clergy, and anyone interested in the intersection of religion and sexual health By weaving together psychological theories religious ethics and cultural competence this volume provides a holistic approach to sex therapy that honors the faith and values of diverse religious traditions This handbook is not only a testament to the importance of integrating religious and cultural perspectives in therapeutic practice but also a vital tool for religious scholars and clergy in understanding and addressing sexual health issues within their communities It serves as a call to action for greater competency in addressing the complex needs of religious clients in matters of sex sexuality and gender
