

A collection of letters and papers debating the place of sexuality in feminist theory and practice. For many feminists heterosexuality is inconsistent with feminism. For many more, heterosexuality as a practice or institution is something to be changed with the help of men. Within the women's liberation movement this debate has recently surfaced in letters written in response to the Leeds Revolutionary Feminists' paper on political lesbianism. We have put the arguments, in all their urgency, into a more permanent form as a way of encouraging further thought on these issues.
